OWNERSHIP

WILLIAM O. DeWITT JR.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD / GENERAL PARTNER

William O. DeWitt Jr. was born Aug. 31, 1941, and grew up in St. Louis as the son of former baseball executive and team owner William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt. He led the organization of the Cardinals' ownership group, which purchased the team on March 21, 1996. As the principal owner of the Cardinals, DeWitt serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. He oversees all financial, baseball and league matters for the team and is a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council.

DeWitt is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School and holds a 1963 B.A. degree in economics from Yale University and a 1965 M.B.A. degree from Harvard Business School.

DeWitt has been involved in baseball since his childhood and has held past investment interests in the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He also has served as a board member for the Cincinnati Bengals and the Cincinnati Stingers hockey team. His father owned the St. Louis Browns from 1949-51, when Bill Jr. served as the team's batboy. His uniform, which was worn by midget Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch-hitting appearance on Aug. 19, 1951, is on loan to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

DeWitt is President of the investment firm Reynolds, DeWitt & Co. He also is Co-Chairman of Restaurant Management Inc. and a board member of Sena Weller Rohs Williams Inc., U.S. Playing Card Co. and Conair Group Inc.

He has had investment interests in CEA Corp. (parent of Cincinnati Equitable Insurance Co.), Charter Cable Systems Inc., Cincinnati Riverfront Coliseum, Coca-Cola Bottling Investment Group Inc. (co-chairman), Future Now Corporation (publicly traded on NASDAQ), Middle States Coca-Cola Bottling Group Inc. (vice-chairman), Midwest Employers Casualty Co., Mississippi Valley Investment Co. (bank holding company), Republic Broadcasting Corp., and Spectrum 7 Energy Corp. (vice-chairman).

His numerous civic activities include: Ohio Co-Chair Bush for President, President of the William O. and Margaret H. DeWitt Foundation, Semple Foundation Board Member, Yale University Development Board Member, Regional Chairman for the Yale Campaign, Cincinnati Art Museum Board Member, Taft Museum Board Member, Cabinet Member for Cincinnati Fine Arts Fund, United Way of Cincinnati, Multiple Sclerosis Society, Salvation Army Board Member, past President of the Fund for Independent Schools of Cincinnati (minority scholarship program) and Co-Chair of the 2001 Presidential Inaugural Committee.

In 1998, DeWitt was appointed to the National Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors.

DeWitt is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis. They have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew and Margot, and four grandchildren. DeWitt's sister, Donna "DeDe" DeWitt Lambert, is also an investor in the team.

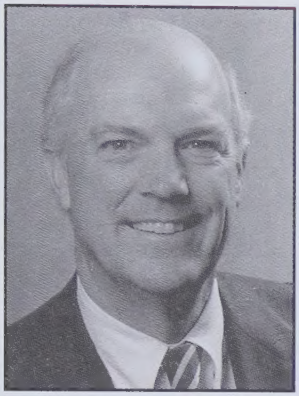
FREDERICK O. HANSER
CHAIRMAN



Frederick O. Hanser was a principal organizer of the Cardinals' ownership group, which purchased the team on March 21, 1996. Hanser is President and Director of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P., and Chairman of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. He oversees the daily operations of the team on behalf of the ownership group as well as the activities of the holding companies and other subsidiaries.

Hanser, a St. Louis attorney, has been a partner in the St. Louis law firm of Armstrong, Teasdale L.L.P. since 1978, specializing in banking and corporate and estate taxation. He was a lawyer for the firm of Fordyce and Mayne from 1966-78. He has been involved in numerous venture capital and closely held businesses, including Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc., the holding company for Southwest Bank.

Hanser, a life-long St. Louis resident and Cardinals fan, was born April 13, 1942. He is the son of Mrs. Olive D. Mullen and the late S. Albert Hanser, M.D. He is the great-grandson of former Cardinals investor Adolph M. Diez, whose involvement with the Cardinals spanned 30 years, from 1917 to 1947.

Hanser received a B.A. degree in economics from Yale University in 1963 and earned a J.D. degree from the Washington University School of Law in 1966.

Some of his current and past business and civic activities include the Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc. Board of Directors and Executive Committee (holding company for Southwest Bank) and board membership on the St. Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association, St. Louis Children's Hospital, the Greater St. Louis Area Boy Scouts, the Backstoppers, St. Louis Country Day School and the Easter Seal Society.

Hanser and his wife, Kathy, have two grown children, Tim and Kara, and one grandson.

ANDREW N. BAUR
SECRETARY-TREASURER

Andrew N. Baur was a principal organizer of the Cardinals' ownership group that purchased the team on March 21, 1996. Mr. Baur is the Secretary-Treasurer and a Director of Gateway Group Inc., the Managing Corporate General Partner of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P., and is Secretary-Treasurer of the St. Louis Cardinals, L.P. Baur is a native St. Louisan and life-long Cardinals fan.

Baur is currently chairman and CEO of Southwest Bank and its holding company, Mississippi Valley Bancshares Inc. Baur led a group that purchased Southwest Bank in October 1984.

His past career posts include: Chairman and CEO of the County Bank of St. Louis, and President and Chief Operating Officer of County Tower Corp., the holding company for County Bank (1978-84); President and Chairman, Commerce Bank of St. Louis (1974-78); Mercantile Trust Co., N.A., which he entered as a commercial banking officer and left as Vice President in charge of the Loan Division (1970-74); and employment by the First National Bank of Atlanta (1967-70), where he started as a management trainee and was elected an officer in 1969.

Baur received an A.B. degree in 1966 from Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Va., and an M.B.A. from Georgia State University in 1970.

Baur is a member of the Board of Directors for Rawlings Sporting Goods Co., the MUNY (Municipal Theater Association) and is Vice Chairman of the National Kidney Foundation. He is the former chairman of St. Luke's Hospital, the St. Louis Regional Commerce & Growth Association, the Arts & Education Council of Greater St. Louis and KETC. Baur also serves as a Commissioner Emeritis of Tower Grove Park.

Baur is the son of the late Andrew H. Baur and the former Florence Noland. He was born in St. Louis on April 25, 1944, and attended Country Day School. He has three grown children, Andrew, Todd and McKay.

MANAGEMENT

MARK C. LAMPING
PRESIDENT

Mark Lamping was named president of the St. Louis Cardinals on Sept. 1, 1994. In addition to the club's 1996 and 2000 Central Division championships, his tenure has been highlighted by the design and completion of major renovations to Busch Stadium. In 1999, the Cardinals were honored by United Sports Fans of America as Major League Baseball's Fan-Friendly Team for their superior efforts to make a day at the ballpark more affordable and enjoyable.

In February 1994, Lamping was appointed commissioner of the Continental Basketball Association. Prior to that Lamping served as Anheuser-Busch's group director of sports marketing for five years. In that position, he managed the company's TV and radio sports production division while coordinating all domestic and international sports marketing activities for Anheuser-Busch's beer brands, including sponsorship agreements for the Olympics, the World Cup and all major professional sports, including Major League Baseball, the National Football League, the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association.

Lamping, 43, joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981. He initially worked as a financial analyst in the company's corporate planning division before serving as a district manager in southern Illinois and central Iowa. He also served as the senior brand manager for new products and director of sales operations.

His civic activities include St. Louis Sports Commission Board of Directors; Board of Directors, St. Louis University Business School; and SSM Health Care Central Region Board.

Lamping also is involved in a variety of charitable organizations, including Board of Directors, Roman Catholic Orphan Board; Board of Directors, Boone Valley Classic Foundation; Board of Directors of the St. Louis Cardinals Community Fund; Chairperson of the Make-A-Wish Foundation Golf Classic in 1997, 1998 and 1999; Chairman of the Old Newsboys Day for children's charities; Chairman of the St. Louis Archdiocese Catholic Charities 2000 Christmas Appeal and served as a chairperson for Pope John Paul's 1999 visit to St. Louis.

Lamping was honored as 1998 Man of the Year by the St. Louis chapter of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Resources. He received the 1998 James O'Flynn Award from St. Patrick's Center in recognition of his work to help the homeless in the St. Louis area and was awarded the 2001 Marianist Youth Medal. Lamping has been inducted into the Vianney High School Hall of Fame and was named Rockhurst University 2000 Alumnus of the Year for outstanding achievement.

A St. Louis native, Lamping holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Rockhurst College in Kansas City and a master's degree in business administration from Saint Louis University. He lives in St. Louis County with his wife, Cheryl, and their children, Brian, Lauren and Timothy.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER

Walt Jocketty was named the Cardinals' vice president/general manager on Oct. 14, 1994, and in November 2000 was promoted to his current position of Senior Vice President, signing a four-year contract extension through the year 2004. He is entering his 27th season in professional baseball.

Jocketty, 50, was named Executive of the Year by Baseball America and The Sporting News in November of 2000 after his key acquisitions helped the Cardinals to their second National League Central Division Championship and their 17th postseason appearance. In a busy offseason prior to the 2000 campaign, Jocketty became the first general manager in baseball history to trade for a 20-game winner and a 40-homer man in the same off-season with the trades for Darryl Kile and Jim Edmonds. He enhanced the team's pitching staff by trading for pitchers Kile, Dave Veres and Pat Hentgen and singing free agent Andy Benes. Jocketty bolstered the lineup by trading for second baseman Fernando Vina and all-star outfielder and 2000 Gold Glove winner Edmonds. He also signed free agent catcher Mike Matheny who was a 2000 Rawlings Gold Glove award winner. Jocketty's trading deadline deals for Will Clark, Mike Timlin, Jason Christiansen and Carlos Hernandez were keys to the team's success down the stretch and into the postseason.

Throughout the season Jocketty orchastrated long-term deals with shortstop Edgar Renteria, Edmonds and Vina to help insure the success of the team for 2001. To bolster the team for this coming season, Jocketty traded for pitchers Dustin Hermanson and Steve Kline in December.

Jocketty was instrumental in bringing Manager Tony La Russa to St. Louis as well as nearly a dozen new faces to the Cardinals' roster before the 1996 season. Those changes helped the club return to the postseason that year after an eight-season drought. In July 1997, he engineered a deal that brought slugger Mark McGwire to St. Louis and then put together a contract that keeps McGwire here through 2001.

Jocketty has helped build the Cardinals' future through the June amateur draft, helping to land young stars like Rick Ankiel, J.D. Drew, Chad Hutchinson and Matt Morris. In the last two June drafts, he has continued to build the team's reserve of young talent by signing first-round picks Shaun Boyd (outfielder, 2000) and righthanded pitchers Chance Caple and Nick Stocks (1999).

Before coming to the Cardinals, Jocketty was the Assistant General Manager/Player Personnel for the Colorado Rockies, whom he joined in 1993. Prior to that, he served 10 seasons as the Director of Baseball Administration for the Oakland A's. He served a total of 14 years with Oakland, starting in March 1980, when he was hired by Charles O. Finley as Director of Minor League Operations and Scouting. Jocketty was instrumental in overhauling the A's minor league system and helped turn the club into one of the 1980s' most dominant franchises by producing such standouts as McGwire, Jose Canseco and Walt Weiss.

While with Oakland, Jocketty played a key role in establishing the Arizona Rookie League and the Dominican Summer League. He previously served on Major League Baseball's Operations Committee, which is responsible for negotiations between the Professional Baseball Association and Major League Baseball. He has served as a board member of the Epworth Children's Home in St. Louis.

Jocketty is a native of Minneapolis, Minn., where he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Minnesota in 1974. He and his wife, Sue, have two children, Ashley and Joey, and make their home in St. Louis County.

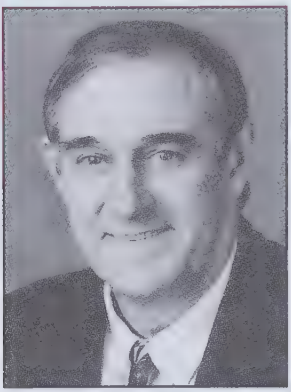
MANAGEMENT

JERRY WALKER
VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL



As vice president of player personnel, Walker assists general manager Walt Jocketty with personnel decisions involving the major league club and oversees the Cardinals' player development and scouting activities. He was promoted to his current position on Feb. 1, 1997, after serving as director of major league player personnel since he joined the organization in November 1994.

After concluding his playing career in 1964, Walker managed five years at the minor league level for the New York Yankees. He scouted for the Yankees from 1973 until the middle of the 1981 season, when he was named the Yankees' major league pitching coach. He also served as the Houston Astros' major league pitching coach from 1983-1986.

Walker returned to the scouting ranks in 1987, joining the Detroit Tigers as a special assignment scout. He was appointed the Tigers' general manager in September 1991 and was responsible for overseeing all major and minor league operations. In April 1994, he joined the Toronto Blue Jays as a special assignment scout.

A former pitcher, Walker's major league career spanned eight seasons with Baltimore (1957-60), Kansas City (1961-62) and Cleveland (1963-64). He became the youngest pitcher to ever start an All-Star Game in 1959, when at age 20, he drew the assignment for the American League in the second game played that summer (on Aug. 3).

Walker, 62, a native of Ada, Okla., and his wife, Janis, have two married daughters and five grandchildren.

BOB GEBHARD
VICE PRESIDENT, SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Gebhard is in his second full season with the Cardinals after joining the organization in September 1999. He was promoted in January of this year to his current vice president position. In this post Gebhard will work closely with Senior Vice President and General Manager Walt Jocketty on the club's day-to-day major league operations including player evaluations and contract negotiations.

The former vice president and general manager of Colorado, Gebhard built the Rockies from the ground up. He spent eight years with the team — from the November 1991 expansion draft until he resigned in August 1999 — and helped the club reach the postseason in just its third season. Before joining the Rockies, Gebhard was a member of the Minnesota Twins front office, serving as director of major league personnel in 1987 and as vice president of player personnel from 1988-1991. He worked for the Montreal Expos from 1974-86, serving as director of minor league operations, as minor league field director and as a major league coach.

Gebhard's playing career spanned 11 seasons and included big-league duty with the Twins and Expos. A righthanded pitcher, he was originally drafted by Minnesota in the 15th round of the first-ever amateur draft in 1965.

Gebhard and his wife, Nancy, have three children, daughters Angie and Jenny, and son Casey. They reside in Littleton, Colo.

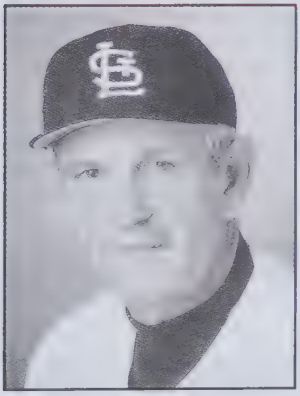
BING DEVINE
SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT

Devine rejoined the Cardinals in October 1999 as a special assignment scout and reports directly to Senior Vice President and General Manager Walt Jocketty. During the regular season, Devine assists in scouting the Cardinals' National League opponents and the organization's minor league system.

As the Cardinals' general manager from 1958-64 and 1968-78, Devine will long be remembered for trades that helped build Redbirds teams that won World Series in 1964 and 1967 and the N.L. pennant in 1968. He acquired Curt Flood (his first trade as a GM), Dick Groat, Bill White, Julian Javier and, his most celebrated deal, Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs. Devine also was president of the St. Louis football Cardinals from 1981-86 and president of the New York Mets from 1965-67. He most recently worked as a scout for the Houston Astros and as a special assignment scout for the Philadelphia Phillies. His career includes stints with the Montreal Expos and San Francisco Giants, as well.

A collegiate basketball star while attending Washington University, Devine served in the United States Navy from 1943-46 after beginning his career in professional sports with the Cardinals in 1939.

JIM LEYLAND
MAJOR LEAGUE SCOUT



Leyland joined the Cardinals staff in 2000 as a major league scout. From his primary base in Pittsburgh, he scouts National League teams that visit PNC Park and travels to Cleveland's Jacobs Field to evaluate A.L. clubs. Leyland reports directly to Walt Jocketty.

Leyland retired as a major league manager following the 1999 season, his 14th as a big-league skipper, with a career 1,069-1,131 record. He managed in Pittsburgh (1986-96), Florida (1997-98) and Colorado, leading the Marlins to a World Series championship in 1997 and the Pirates to three straight Eastern Division titles, beginning in 1990. He was a minor league manager from 1971-81, leading his clubs to five first-place finishes, and a catcher in the Detroit farm system from 1964-70.

Leyland, 56, resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Katie, and their two children, Patrick (10/11/91) and Kellie (6/23/93).

BEHIND THE SCENES

DR. GEORGE A. PALETTA JR.
HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. George A. Paletta Jr. was named the Cardinals' head physician in February 1998 after serving as the New York Mets' associate team physician since July 1996. Paletta works with both the St. Louis Blues and the St. Louis Rams and has been an assistant team physician for the Cleveland Browns and Cleveland Cavaliers.

Paletta is a 1984 graduate of The College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass. He completed medical school in 1988, receiving an M.D. from Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in Baltimore. Paletta completed a surgical internship at Northwestern University Hospital in Chicago and then a residency in orthopedic surgery at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York. While at the Hospital for Special Surgery, he also completed a research fellowship in sports medicine. After residency, he served as a fellow in sports medicine in 1994 and '95 at the Cleveland Clinic. He then completed an additional fellowship in pediatric and adolescent sports medicine at Children's Hospital of Michigan.

In January 1996, Paletta joined the staff of the Hospital for Special Surgery as an assistant attending surgeon on the Sports Medicine and Shoulder Service, where his practice specialized in sports medicine. He also served on the faculty of Cornell University Medical College as an instructor in orthopedic surgery.

In 1998, he joined the faculty of Washington University's Department of Orthopedic Surgery as an assistant professor.

Paletta and his wife, Jackie, have four children: Sarah, Savannah, George III and Emma.

DR. RICK WRIGHT
ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Rick Wright, a native of Sikeston, Mo., and graduate of the University of Missouri, begins his fourth year as an orthopedic specialist on the Cardinals' medical staff. Wright has served as an orthopedic physician for the St. Louis Rams since 1995 and the St. Louis Blues since 1997. He also has worked with the Minnesota Twins, Minnesota Vikings and Minnesota Timberwolves.

Wright is a 1984 graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia and received his M.D. from the university in 1988. Following medical school, he received specialty training in orthopedic surgery at Vanderbilt University from 1988-93. From 1993-1994, he did subspecialty training in orthopedic sports medicine at the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center.

Wright established his practice in St. Louis in August 1994 and is a member of the Department of Orthopedic Surgery at Washington University. He and his wife, Lana, have two children, Megan and Robert.

DR. KEN YAMAGUCHI
ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Ken Yamaguchi joined the Cardinals' medical staff in 1998 as a specialist in shoulder and elbow disorders. He currently serves as an assistant professor and chief of shoulder and elbow surgery at Barnes-Jewish Hospital.

After graduating from UCLA, Yamaguchi attended George Washington University School of Medicine, where he also served his orthopedic residency training. He completed his fellowship training in shoulder surgery with the internationally renowned shoulder service at Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center in New York, which serves as consultant to the Yankees. Yamaguchi later continued his elbow training at the Mayo Clinic and has authored several publications on shoulder and elbow surgery.

Born and raised in Southern California, the 40-year-old physician resides in Chesterfield, Mo., with his wife, Kathy, and two children, Kelli and Kyle.

DR. STAN LONDON
SENIOR MEDICAL ADVISER

Dr. Stan London was appointed the Cardinals' senior medical adviser in October 1997. He was the Cardinals' head physician for 29 seasons, succeeding his associate, Dr. I.C. Middleman, who passed away in September 1968.

Dr. London, 74, a native of Springfield, Ill., received his M.D. degree from Washington University in 1949. As a student, he excelled in baseball and is widely regarded as Washington University's greatest basketball player ever. While studying for his doctorate, Dr. London coached the university's baseball team and was assistant basketball coach.

Dr. London is a fellow for both the American Board of Surgeons and the American College of Surgeons, an assistant professor of surgery at Washington Medical, and a partner in Parkerest Surgical Associates.

Dr. London was the team physician for the St. Louis Hawks during the club's 11 seasons (1956-57 to 1966-67) in the National Basketball Association. He has tended to Cardinal baseball players' medical needs since 1956.

One of the area's top all-time amateur athletes, Dr. London is a member of the Springfield (Ill.) High School Hall of Fame, the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame and was the first inductee into the Missouri Handball Hall of Fame. He also is a member of the Missouri Sports Medicine Hall of Fame.

Dr. London and his wife, Jackie, have three children and four grandchildren.

DR. JIM LOOMIS
ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Jim Loomis, the Cardinals' specialist in internal medicine, has been a team physician for the St. Louis Rams since 1995 and has served as European tour physician for the St. Louis Symphony.

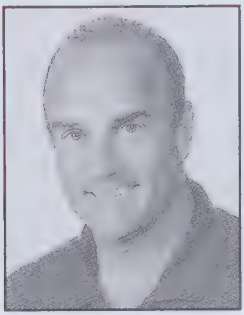
Loomis, 41, a native of Little Rock, Ark., came to St. Louis in 1985 after receiving his M.D. from the University of Arkansas. He served his internship and residency in internal medicine at Barnes Hospital, completing both in 1988. He received his M.B.A. from Washington University in 1997.

Loomis is board-certified in internal medicine and a member of Alpha Omega Alpha, the American College of Physicians and the American College of Sports Medicine. He is part of the BJC Medical Group and practices with Associated Internists in west St. Louis County. He also is on the clinical faculty of Washington University's School of Medicine in the Department of Medicine.

Loomis and his wife, Susan, have two sons, Jimmy and Billy.

BEHIND THE SCENES

BARRY WEINBERG
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER



Barry Weinberg begins his fourth season as the Cardinals' head athletic trainer following 16 seasons as trainer for the Oakland A's. He began his training career in 1974 with the Pittsburgh Pirates, where he spent five seasons in their minor league system. He was the New York Yankees' assistant trainer from 1979-81.

Weinberg, 49, is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He also conducts continuing education seminars for the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. Weinberg received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield (Mass.) College and a master's degree in athletic training from Indiana University. He was the American League trainer at the 1987 and '93 All-Star games.

Weinberg was inducted into the Washington D.C. Jewish Sports Hall of Fame in 1996 and received the Distinguished Alumni award from Springfield College in 2000. He was the producer and host for a baseball training and conditioning video in 2000. A native of Silver Spring, Md., Weinberg is a Broadway enthusiast and enjoys country and western music, photography and golf.

BRAD HENDERSON
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Brad Henderson is entering his 14th season as the Cardinals' assistant trainer. The 39-year-old Henderson joined the Cardinals' training staff in May 1988 and has been a trainer in the organization since 1985.

Henderson, a native of Ballwin, Mo., is a 1985 graduate of the University of Missouri. His first trainer's position was with Johnson City of the Appalachian League. He was head trainer at Arkansas (Texas League) before joining the major league club in 1988. Henderson has been a National Athletic Trainters Association member since 1986 and is licensed by the states of Missouri and Florida. He formerly was the National League Assistant Trainer Representative to the PBAT Executive Committee. He served as trainer for the 2000 National League All-Star team.

Henderson has also worked with the training staffs of the St. Louis football Cardinals and the University of Missouri's football and baseball teams.

Henderson and his wife, Julie Lynn, have a son, Blake Andrew, and a daughter, Brooke Marie. In his spare time, Henderson enjoys running, horse racing and golf.

MARK O'NEAL
MEDICAL/REHABILITATION COORDINATOR

Mark O'Neal enters his 12th season as a trainer in the Cardinals' organization and his fourth year at the major league level. From 1994 to '97, he was head trainer for the Class-AAA Louisville Redbirds.

O'Neal joined the organization after graduating from the University of Arkansas in 1989. After a year with the Cardinals' Savannah club in 1990, he served as the Arkansas Travelers' trainer for three seasons (1991-93). In the off-season, the Russelville, Ark., native has worked as a trainer for the University of Arkansas-Little Rock and in the instructional Arizona Fall League. He also monitors the medical status of the Cardinals' major leaguers during the winter.

A nationally certified trainer, the 33-year-old O'Neal enjoys golf and is an avid college football and basketball fan. He and his wife, Stefanie, have two sons, Conner and Cade.

PETE PRINZI
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Pete Prinzi begins his fifth season in the Cardinals' system and his second at the major league level. From 1997 through 1999, he served as the club's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator.

Prinzi, 31, graduated from Florida State University, where he played football for the Seminoles. After playing professionally for three seasons (1991-93) in the European Football League, he returned to his alma mater as an assistant strength coach from 1994 through 1996.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Prinzi now resides in Charleston, S.C., with his wife, Lena.

RALPH FILSON
TEAM CHIROPRACTOR

Ralph Filson begins his fourth year working with the Cardinals as the team's chiropractor. He has also served as the chiropractor for the St.Louis Rams since 1998.

A native of St. Louis, Filson is a graduate of Logan College of Chiropractic and is a full-time professor at Logan College of Chiropractic. Filson also teaches throughout the United States on the Logan College of Chiropractic Post Graduate faculty. He recently co-authored a textbook on chiropractic procedure.

Filson currently serves as treasurer on the Logan College of Chiropractic Association Board of Directors and as president of the American Chiropractic Association Council on Technique. Filson and his wife, Ivy, have three children: Kerry and twins, Emma and Samuel.

C.J. CHERRE
TRAVELING SECRETARY

C.J. Cherre is responsible for handling the Cardinals' travel and road accommodations, including all spring training arrangements in Jupiter, Fla.

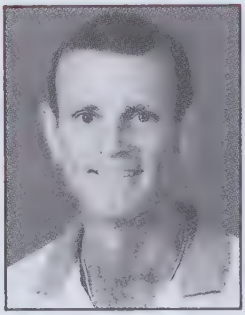
Born in Norfolk, Va., and raised in St. Louis, Cherre is entering his 24th season with the club. He is a 1970 graduate of St. Louis University High School and received a bachelor's degree (cum laude) from Saint Louis University in 1974.

Cherre began his Cardinals career in the group sales department, where he worked in 1977 and 1978. He was named assistant director of public relations in January 1979 and held the position through 1980. He assumed his current position in January 1981.

Cherre, an ardent University of Notre Dame supporter, enjoys swimming, country and contemporary music, and fine dining. In 1998 he received the "Good Guy" award from the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA and at baseball's winter meetings was designated the "Traveling Secretary of the Year." Cherre has one daughter, Laura (16), and this past fall was engaged to Jill Sheehe of Jupiter, Fla., and is planning a 2001 wedding.

BEHIND THE SCENES

BUDDY BATES
EQUIPMENT MANAGER



Buddy Bates is in his 19th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager. He succeeded the late Butch Yatkeman, who was with the Redbirds for 59 years before retiring after the 1982 season.

The 48-year-old Bates joined the Cardinals in 1969, his first of three seasons as a bat boy. He was named assistant equipment manager and visiting clubhouse manager in 1972, holding the positions until assuming his current role in 1983.

Bates, a St. Louis native, is a graduate of Central High School, where he lettered in basketball. He attended Florissant Valley Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. He was honored in 1997 with the "Good Guy" award by the St. Louis Chapter of the BBWAA. Bates and his wife, Rachelle, reside in St. Charles.

RIP ROWAN
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Rip Rowan is entering his 13th season as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager. Rowan, a native of St. Louis, has been with the Cardinals since 1978, when he served as the visitors' bat boy.

The 37-year-old Rowan graduated from Pattonville High School in 1982 and began assisting in the Cardinal clubhouse in 1983. He enjoys watching sports and fly fishing in his spare time. He and his wife, Dawn, have three children, Jessica, Jacob and Brennen.

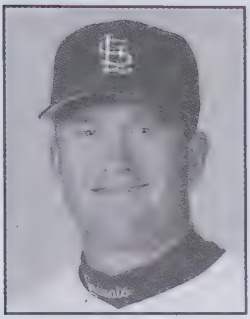
JERRY RISCH
VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Jerry Risch is in his 36th season with the Cardinals and his 18th year as visiting clubhouse manager.

The 48-year-old Risch began working for the Cardinals in 1966 as the umpires' room manager. In 1969 and 1970, he served as the Redbirds' bat boy. He began working as an assistant in the visitors' clubhouse in 1971 and was named to his current position in 1983.

Risch is a graduate of Southwest High School, where he lettered in soccer. He attended Meramec Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Risch and his wife, Mary Catherine, have two children, Jessica and Joseph.

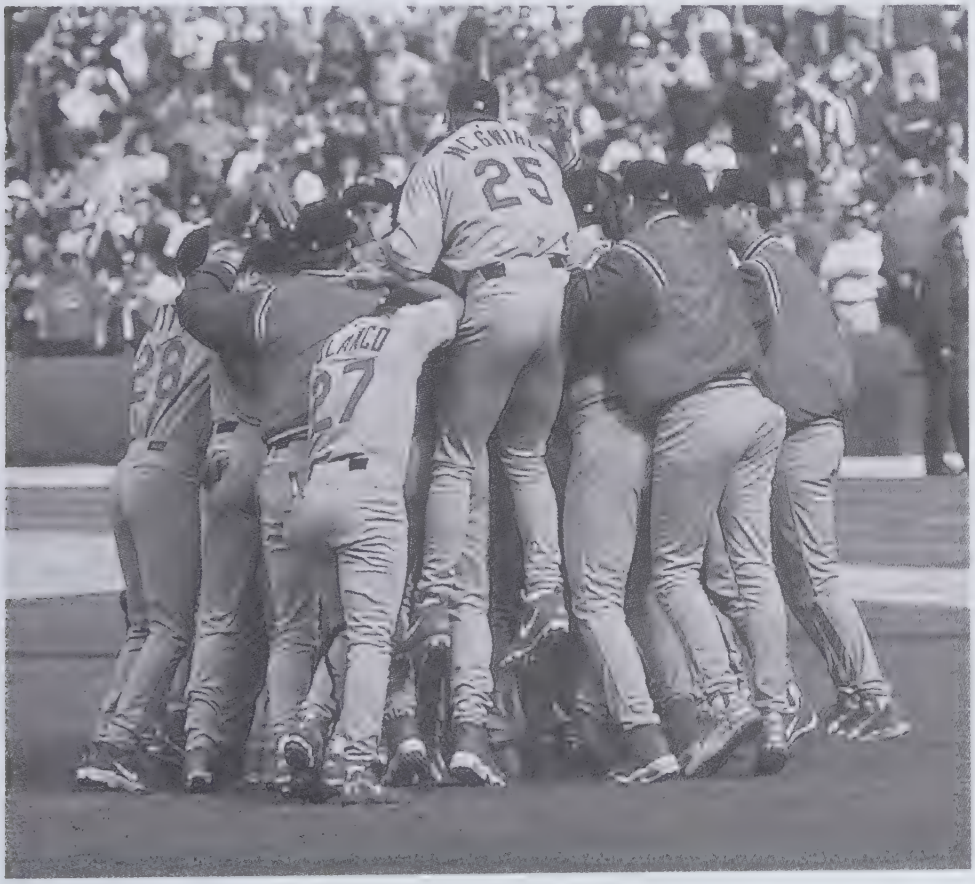
JEFF MURPHY
BULLPEN CATCHER (33)



Murphy begins his fifth season as the Cardinals' bullpen catcher and his 10th year in the organization. A former All-Big Eight performer at the University of Nebraska, Murphy was the Cards' 19th-round pick in the June 1992 amateur draft. He advanced to Class-AA Arkansas before an ankle injury in 1996 finished his career.

Murphy was named to the New York-Penn League's postseason All-Star squad in 1992, his first professional season. He threw out 47 percent of the runners attempting to steal against him. The next year, he led the South Atlantic League's catchers in fielding while posting career highs with seven home runs and 47 runs batted in. After spending the 1994 and '95 seasons at St. Petersburg, he moved to Arkansas in 1996 but appeared in just two games before injuring his ankle. He was named the Cardinals' bullpen catcher during spring training in 1997 after coming to camp as a nonroster invitee.

Born in St. Louis, the 30-year-old Murphy was raised in Las Vegas, and he now resides in St. Charles, Mo. He and his wife, Leah, have a son, Hunter, and a daughter, Sadie.



The Cardinals celebrate their win over Atlanta in the 2000 Division Series.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The St. Louis Cardinals have a century-long history of serving the community. Few cities enjoy such a positive impact from their ball club as St. Louis. The next few pages celebrate the numerous community outreach programs, including Cardinals Care, the team's community foundation.

Supporting children is the focus of so much of what the Cardinals do in the community. Cardinals players, the front office, management and ownership are committed to making a positive impact on kids in the neighborhoods and communities around us.

CARDINALS CARE

Cardinals Care is the team's community foundation supporting kids in the area. Since its inception, Cardinals Care has distributed over $1.8 million through the Ball Field Program and cash grants to children and youth organizations. Cardinals Care arranges player visits with kids in the community and oversees the 275,000 complimentary Cardinals game tickets given out each season. Cardinals Care is a separate not-for-profit 501(c) (3) and was established by the team in January 1997. Members of the Cardinals' ownership group made inaugural contributions to the Fund. Since then additional contributions have been made by the ownership group, fans, local businesses, and Cardinal players, including Mark McGwire, Ray Lankford and Jim Edmonds. 100 percent of the annual administrative and operating expenses of Cardinals Care is paid for by the St. Louis Cardinals, LP. This structure makes Cardinals Care an extremely efficient vehicle through which supporters and contributors achieve maximum impact to benefit children in the St. Louis area.

CARDINALS CARE "BALL FIELD PROGRAM"

In an effort to help revitalize some of St. Louis' neediest neighborhoods, Cardinals Care has initiated this exciting program to give hundreds of St. Louis youths the chance to play ball on a green, well-kept, regulation diamond.

WINTER WARM-UP

Each January, Cardinals Care presents the annual Winter Warm-Up, a weekend-long baseball festival where fans and families can get autographs, interact with team owners and management, bid on unique auction items, obtain game-used memorabilia and merchandise, and visit a wide variety of baseball exhibitors. Dozens of current and former Cardinals and Hall-of-Famers gather to visit and sign autographs for fans. On the right is Stan Musial leading fans in "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" at last year's warm-up.

"JERSEYS OFF THEIR BACKS"

Once a year after the last out of a game, 25 Cardinals' players plus the manager and coaches bound out of the dugout to autograph and present their jerseys, donated by Rawlings, to fortunate fans with winning raffle tickets. All fans at this game have an opportunity to donate $1 for each scratch-off raffle ticket, with proceeds benefiting the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) and Cardinals Care.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

CARDINALS SCHOOL PROGRAM

Say No to Drugs! Stay in School! Participate in Sports! These are the three key messages that more than a quarter-million students have heard from Joe Cunningham, Al Hrabosky and Fredbird as part of the Cardinals' School Program. The traveling, no-cost program entertains students and reminds them of life's important goals.

RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner City)

Every year, Cardinals Care provides a considerable grant to the St. Louis RBI program. Reviving Baseball in the Inner City is an initiative led nationally by the Commissioner of Major League Baseball and supported locally in St. Louis by the Cardinals. RBI provides the leagues and structure that allow youths to participate in organized baseball. The grant from Cardinals Care provides equipment, uniforms and field upkeep for dozens of teams on both sides of the river. The coaches teach baseball, but just as important, they teach teamwork and dedication.

CARDINALS COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS PROGRAM

Each season the Cardinals donate more than 275,000 tickets to various fans and organizations.

- o Special Tickets For Straight A Students
- o Summer Reading Program For Kids
- o Knothole Program For Groups of Kids
- o Special Ticket Program For Seniors
- o Safety Patrol Program For Kids
- o Fight-Free School Program For Students
- o Scouts Program for Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts

TONY'S TROOPS

Fans who arrive early at the ballpark are likely to see manager Tony La Russa talking with a group of youngsters in the Cardinals' dugout as part of "Tony's Troops." The Cardinals' manager takes time out of his pre-game preparation to talk with children about what it takes to succeed in baseball and in life. After posing questions to the Cardinals' manager, the group has dinner before watching the game, compliments of Cardinals Care. The program targets children who may lack the resources to attend a baseball game.

PLAYERS' WIVES

Each year the Cardinals' wives team up to raise money for different charitable causes throughout the St. Louis area. Projects from past years have provided teddy bears to children in hospitals, canned food for needy families and financial support for Oprah's Angles House and Employment Connection.

KILE'S KIDS

Darryl Kile sponsors this special program once a homestand. A group of twenty-five kids and their chaperones watch batting practice from the field and then meet with Darryl in the Cardinals' dugout. As part of the outing, Darryl provides each member of the group with a meal and a ticket for the game.

CARDINALS' CREW KIDS CLUB

The Cardinals offer an exciting opportunity for kids 15 and under to sign up and participate in their very own fan club. Every member receives tickets, an official membership card, a periodic newsletter, special gifts and an invitation to the Cardinals' Crew party that Cardinals players attend.

OTHER CHARITABLE ACTIVITIES

Whenever possible, the Cardinals have provided tickets or auction items that have contributed toward raising thousands of dollars.

In addition, Cardinals' players, front-office employees and Fredbird have "adopted" several local hospitals by making frequent visits to children during the baseball season. Cardinals' players can meet their fans at schools, boys and girls clubs, churches and other local organizations. The far-reaching efforts of the entire Cardinals' family underscore the team's goal of giving back to the St. Louis community in as many ways as possible.

PROPOSAL FOR NEW DOWNTOWN BALLPARK

On April 8, 2000, the St. Louis Cardinals unveiled plans for a new downtown ballpark that could be ready for play as early as Opening Day 2004. The proposed site for the new facility lies south of Busch Stadium on the existing south parking lot. The site is bound by Broadway on the east, Poplar Street on the south, Seventh Street on the west and a newly-extended Clark Street on the north.

The Cardinals worked with Hellmuth, Obata and Kassabaum, Inc. (HOK Sport), of Kansas City, Mo., on the ballpark design. HOK Sport has designed numerous major league facilities, including Coors Field in Denver, Oriole Park at Camden Yards in Baltimore, Enron Field in Houston, and Pacific Bell Park in San Francisco.

The proposed new ballpark would offer state-of-the-art seating and sightlines, new and improved concessions, and unique seating and service amenities. Its northeast orientation and openness would give a majority of the seats a spectacular view of the Gateway Arch. Artistic detailing on the brick and stone façade would add a rich context to the downtown streetscape. Beyond left field of the new building will be a series of new structures on the site of the former Busch Stadium. This "Ballpark Village" would rise up from a re-established city street grid and would feature residential, office, and retail development that would bring a vibrancy to the urban landscape 365 days a year. In the development section closest to the ballpark, a new building for the Cardinals Hall of Fame Museum would be framed by a series of themed restaurants and retail attractions that would provide an especially festive atmosphere on game days. Some buildings in this area might even have rooftop viewing reminiscent of the way fans enjoy games from apartments adjacent to Wrigley Field in Chicago.

The plan calls for a redesigned MetroLink station that would tunnel under seventh and eighth streets and emerge on the ballpark side of the street to provide a more convenient way for fans to enter and exit the park and its associated development attractions.

"We are extremely excited about this project," notes William DeWitt Jr., Managing General Partner of the Cardinals. "This has the potential to achieve a number of objectives all at once. Cardinal fans will get to enjoy the best facility in all of baseball with the assurance that the team can be competitive year after year. The city will benefit from the stability this brings to an important civic asset. And the region as a whole will enjoy the thriving new development activity that this project brings to the downtown core."

The ballpark and urban development projects would require a phased construction schedule. The new park would be approximately 70% complete when the last game is played at Busch Stadium. Then Busch Stadium would be demolished and the first season in the new ballpark would open with about 40,000 permanent and temporary seats (including more than 20,000 at the field box level). All required spectators, team and press facilities would be available for use in this first season. Additional seating, including a second story on the left field pavilion section, would be added for year two, bringing the total capacity to approximately 47,900 by the Spring of 2005. At this point the Cardinals Hall of Fame Museum and other retail and residential development would begin to come on line north of Clark Street.

The preliminary cost estimate to build the ballpark, new Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum and courtyard in the new ballpark village is $370 million. The financing plan calls for the Cardinals to contribute $120 million to the project with the remainder financed through tax-free revenue bonds. The Cardinals financial contribution to this project is double what teams in comparable size markets have invested in their new ballparks.

The new ballpark design takes into account the rich architectural history of St. Louis as well as some of the more successful historic ballparks of the past, such as Ebbets Field in Brooklyn, Shibe Park in Philadelphia, Crosley Field in Cincinnati, and St. Louis' own Sportsman's Park. The major materials of the building exterior are those of downtown St. Louis: brick, granite and glass. Arched masonry windows and openings recall both classic ballparks like Ebbetts Field and the nearby architecture of Cupples Station and Washington Avenue. The arched steel entrances between the entry towers on three sides of the building recall the imagery of the Eads Bridge, one of St. Louis' most enduring landmarks. The upper deck is shaded by a metal sunscreen canopy, which unlike most other ballparks is supported by an arched brick façade with stone detailing at the back of the upper seating bowl.

Although not radically asymmetrical, the playing field would be quirkier than Busch Stadium because of the phased construction schedule and the placement of certain outfield features such as the bullpens, the left field porch, and the expanded bleacher configuration. Foul territory will be smaller than at present Busch Stadium, with just 50 feet separating the first row of spectators from homeplate and the baselines, tapering to just a few feet at the foul poles.

The seating bowl for the new ballpark will be unique. It will be divided into four quadrants, or neighborhoods, relating to baseball field geometry, different seating amenity options, and the downtown street grid. The vast majority of premium seats (suites and club seats) will be located behind home plate between first and third base, and an outdoor plaza area behind the upper bowl would include outdoor concessions and views of the downtown streetscape from an elevated platform. As the left field seats turn the corner at the foul pole, the upper deck would project dramatically close to the field, creating a "home run porch" where the first row of second level seats would cantilever over the playing field below. In left-center field behind the bleacher seats, an extended open plaza would look down on the action and provide a continuity of open space that links the playing field to the "Plaza of Champions" in front of the Hall of Fame Museum. This area would also include amenities for children and families looking for alternative entertainment and concessions options. In right-center field a brick building will provide a dramatic backdrop for the batter's eye and will include a full service restaurant with a rooftop patio for outdoor dining and viewing. Right field would look like a more traditional ballpark section, with extensive group sales seating and party suites at the club/suite level.

The new ballpark would serve as the seventh home of the Cardinals since their inception in 1876. The Cardinals began playing at Grand Avenue Grounds, 1876-77. The have also played at Union Park (1885-86, 1892-97), League Park (1898), Robison Field (1899-1920), Sportsman's Park/Busch Stadium on Grand Avenue (1920-65), and present day Busch Stadium (1966-present). Ground was broken for the present-day Busch Stadium in 1964, and the first game was played on May 12, 1966.

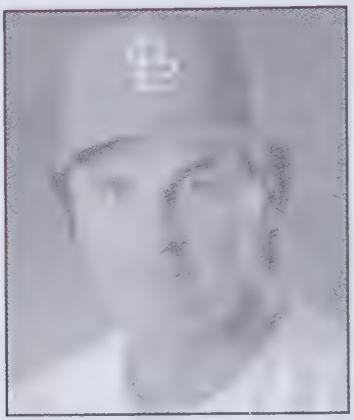
ANTHONY (TONY) LA RUSSA JR. (10)

MANAGER



Tony La Russa enters his sixth season at the Cardinals' helm as the career leader in wins (1,734) among active managers and No. 11 on the all-time major league list. Only eight other managers — and just three in the last 50 years — have skippered the Cardinals for more than four seasons. In 2000, he managed the club to 95 wins, the most in his five seasons at the Redbirds helm and he guided the team to its second N.L. Central Division title.

La Russa was hired by the Cardinals on October 23, 1995, after managing for 17 years in the American League with Oakland and Chicago. In his first N.L. season, La Russa guided the Cardinals to the 1996 Central Division title and was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press.

Regarded by his peers as one of the game's top managers, La Russa's honors include Manager of the Year recognition in four seasons, two N.L. Central Division titles, five A.L. Western Division titles, three A.L. pennants and one World Series championship.

La Russa began his professional managing career in 1978 with Knoxville of the Class- AA Southern League before taking his first major league managing job on August 2, 1979, with the Chicago White Sox.

In seven-plus seasons (1979-86) with the White Sox, La Russa quickly established his managerial acumen. In 1983, he guided Chicago to the A.L. West title and the best record in the major leagues, 99-63. He was rewarded with Manager of the Year accolades from The Sporting News, the Associated Press and the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

In 1984, La Russa's White Sox were tied for first place at the All-Star break before finishing fifth with a 74-88 record. He was relieved of his duties on June 19, 1986, and assumed the manager's role with Oakland less than three weeks later, on July 7.

In just his second full year with the A's, La Russa managed the club to an A.L. West-record 104 wins, the A.L. pennant and into the 1988 World Series. He again earned Manager of the Year honors from the BBWAA and The Sporting News. For three straight years, 1988-90, the A's led the major leagues in victories, only the 11th time in history that a team had accomplished such a feat. During that span, La Russa's A's became the first team to win three consecutive A.L. pennants since the 1976-78 New York Yankees.

In 1989, La Russa guided the Athletics to their fourth World Championship since the club moved to Oakland, sweeping the Giants in four straight games during the earthquake-interrupted Bay Bridge Series.

On July 14, 1991, LaRussa became the 40th manager in major league history to win 1,000 career games. He earned a third Manager of the Year award in 1992 after steering the A's to their fourth A.L. West title in five years. He is Oakland's all-time leader in games managed (1,471) and victories (798).

The former infielder signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City Athletics on the night he graduated from high school in 1962. He made his major league debut with Kansas City just one year later. La Russa didn't return to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four seasons in Oakland before concluding his big-league playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs. Overall, his professional career spanned 16 seasons.

LaRussa, the 48th manager in Cardinals history, actually was a member of the organization once previously, when he was a player-coach for the Cardinals' Triple-A New Orleans affiliate in 1977.

A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, La Russa passed the bar exam in December 1979, making him one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history. The other four are Monte Ward (New York Giants, Brooklyn and Providence, late 1800s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20, New York Giants, 1924), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1913-15, St. Louis Cardinals, 1919-25). All of La Russa's predecessors are in the Hall of Fame.

La Russa, 56, makes his off-season home in Danville, Calif., with his wife, Elaine, and their two daughters, Bianca Tai (9/14/79) and Devon Kai (8/17/82). La Russa was born 10/4/44 in Tampa, Fla., and graduated from Jefferson High School in Tampa. He also holds a degree in industrial management from The University of South Florida in Tampa. He is the founder and chairperson of Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation (ARF) and is an active member in the Cardinals' community foundation, Cardinals Care.

MARK STEPHEN DeJOHN (34)

BENCH COACH

DeJohn, 47, joined the Cardinals' major league coaching staff in 1996. He served as the organization's field coordinator for player development for three seasons and managed in the Cardinals' farm system from 1986-1991. He also managed and coached in the Detroit Tigers' and Kansas City Royals' farm systems.

DeJohn was drafted by the New York Mets in 1971 and played in their system through the 1977 season. He signed with the Detroit Tigers in 1978 and reached the major leagues with the Tigers in 1982.

DeJohn made the transition from player to coach the next year, serving as a minor league instructor for the Tigers. He then coached at Kansas City's Eugene affiliate in 1985 but returned to Detroit midway through the season to manage the Tigers' Birmingham affiliate.

DeJohn joined the Cardinals' organization in 1986, managing the Savannah Cardinals to a 75-60 record. He spent two seasons in Savannah before taking the helm of the Midwest League's Springfield Cardinals in 1988. The next year, he was named manager of Johnson City, where he spent two seasons. DeJohn managed Detroit's Class AA London affiliate in 1992 before returning to the Cardinals' organization in 1993.

DeJohn has two children, Timothy and Stephanie. He attended Woodrow Wilson High School in Middletown, Conn.

DAVID (DAVE) EDWIN DUNCAN (18)

PITCHING COACH

Duncan, 55, enters his sixth season as the Cardinals' pitching coach after being appointed to the post on October 23, 1995. In each of his first two seasons, the pitching staff set club records for strikeouts and ranked in the top six in the league in ERA.

Before joining the Cardinals, Duncan had been Oakland's pitching coach since July 1986, when he joined the A's along with manager Tony La Russa. Under Duncan's guidance, the Oakland staff ranked as one of the best in baseball, leading the American League in ERA from 1988 through 1990. In 1990, the A's had the lowest earned-run average in the majors, becoming just the second A.L. staff to do so since the inception of the DH rule in 1973.

Duncan began his coaching career in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. In 1982, he was hired as Seattle's pitching coach, and the Mariners responded by leading the A.L. in strikeouts and finishing second in saves and shutouts. He left the Mariners in 1983 to join La Russa and the Chicago White Sox.

A former catcher, Duncan signed with the Kansas City A's in 1963 and made his major league debut in 1964. When the A's moved to Oakland, Duncan moved with them and appeared in both the 1971 and 1972 A.L. Championship Series and the 1972 World Series. Duncan concluded his playing career with two-year stints in both Cleveland (1973-74) and Baltimore (1975-76).

During his playing and coaching career, Duncan has been associated with six Cy Young Award winners. He coached Bob Welch, Dennis Eckersley and LaMarr Hoyt, and caught Vide Blue and Jim Hunter in Oakland, and Jim Palmer in Baltimore when all six pitchers won their awards.

Duncan and his wife, Jeanine, have two sons, Christopher (drafted by the Cardinals as a supplemental first-round pick in the June 1999 amateur draft) and David, and make their off-season home in Tucson, Ariz.

MICHAEL (MIKE) ANTHONY EASLER (19)

HITTING COACH

Easler begins his third season as the Cardinals' hitting coach. Before joining the club, he managed the Nashua Pride of the independent Atlantic League in 1998, the league's inaugural year. Easler guided the Pride to a 59-41 record, and seven of his players were signed by major league organizations. During his playing career, Easler spent most of the 1976 season in the Cardinals' farm system, winning the American Association batting title with the Tulsa Oilers before a Sept. 3 trade to California.

A veteran of 14 big-league seasons, Easler has coached or managed at the professional or amateur level for the last 10 years. He began his instructional career in 1990 as manager of the Miami Miracle and in 1991 was named the Toronto Blue Jays' roving minor league hitting instructor. In 1992, Easler took over as hitting coach for the Milwaukee Brewers and helped the team to a .268 batting mark, second in the American League. He joined the Red Sox's staff in 1993 and spent two seasons as the team's hitting coach before leaving to become head coach at National Christian University in San Antonio, Texas. In 1996, Easler began working as Mo Vaughn's personal hitting instructor, a role that continues to this day.

Known as the "Hit Man" during his playing days, Easler batted .293 during his career with Houston (1973-75), California (1976), Pittsburgh (1977-83), Boston (1984-85), the New York Yankees (1986-87) and Philadelphia (1987). He was named to the National League All-Star team in 1981 and batted over .300 on four occasions, including a career-best .338 in 1980. A former recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award for Outstanding Community Service and the Boston Man of the Year Award, Easler took part in the 1979 World Series as a member of the Pirates' "We are Family" Series champions.

A native of Cleveland, Easler, 50, attended Cleveland State University and is an ordained Baptist minister. He and his wife, Brenda, have three children, Misty, Shandi and Khyla, and three grandchildren. Easler resides in San Antonio.

MARTIN (MARTY) LEE MASON (38)

BULLPEN COACH

Mason, 43, enters his second season as bullpen coach after working the previous three years as the organization's Triple-A pitching coach. He begins his 16th year as a coach in the system, dating back to his first assignment at St. Petersburg in 1986. After two seasons there, Mason coached at Savannah in 1988, returned to St. Petersburg in 1989, then moved to Arkansas from 1990-96.

A righthanded pitcher originally signed by the New York Yankees in 1980, Mason was acquired by the Cardinals in December 1982 after playing on loan that season for the club's Springfield affiliate. While in the Yankees' system, he led the South Atlantic League with an .846 winning percentage in 1981, when he was 11-2 at Greensboro. At the Cardinals' Springfield affiliate in '83, Mason ranked second in the Midwest League with 54 appearances and third in games finished, with 46. Mason also pitched for Arkansas and St. Petersburg. He retired after four games as a player-coach at St. Petersburg in 1986.

Mason was born April 4, 1958, in Central City, Ky. He attended Central Alabama Academy from 1975 to 1976 and Western Kentucky University from 1977 to 1980. He married the former Lynn Bradford on Feb. 22, 1986. The couple have two daughters, Brandy Leigh and Lindsey. Mason enjoys bass fishing and is a small-engine mechanic in his spare time.

DAVID (DAVE) LAWRENCE McKAY (39)

FIRST-BASE COACH

McKay, 50, begins his sixth season as the Cardinals' first-base coach and his 16th season on Tony La Russa's coaching staff. McKay was La Russa's first-base coach in Oakland from 1989-95 and handled bullpen and bench coach duties for the A's beginning in 1984. In all, McKay spent 16 years as a player or coach in the Oakland system.

McKay was signed by the Minnesota Twins in 1971 and spent four seasons in the minor leagues. He broke into the majors in a big way, homering off Detroit's Vern Ruhle in his first big-league at-bat on Aug. 22, 1975. McKay also hit safely in 21 of his first 22 major league games.

After the 1976 season, the Twins lost McKay in the expansion draft to Toronto, where McKay was the starting third baseman in the first game in Blue Jays franchise history. After splitting time between Toronto and Syracuse in 1979, McKay signed with the A's in 1980. He played for Oakland through 1982, helping the A's to the 1981 Western Division crown by batting .288 in the second half and belting a home run in the divisional playoff series against Kansas City. He spent the 1983 season in the minor leagues as a player-coach.

McKay earned a physical education degree from Columbia Basin Junior College in Pasco, Wash., and attended Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. Born in Vancouver, B.C., McKay will be inducted into the Canadian National Baseball Hall of Fame this coming June. He and his wife, Lene, who is from Denmark, make their home in Scottsdale, Ariz., with their son, Cody.

JOSE MANUEL OQUENDO (11)

THIRD-BASE COACH

Oquendo begins his second season as the Cardinals' third-base coach. After joining the club's major league staff in 1999 as bench coach. He was an instructor in the Cardinals' farm system, working as a field instructor in 1997 before managing the Redbirds' New Jersey affiliate to a 34-41 finish in '98.

Oquendo's professional playing career spanned 17 seasons and included big-league duty with the New York Mets (1983-84) and Cardinals (1986-95). Dubbed the "Secret Weapon" during his 10 seasons with the Redbirds, Oquendo established single-season major league records for the highest fielding percentage (.996) and fewest errors by a second baseman (three) in 1990. He also led the league in fielding in 1989 and compiled a .992 fielding average at second base for his career.

Oquendo batted .286 for the Cardinals' 1987 pennant-winning club and hit a career-high .291 in 1989 while playing in a league-high 163 games. In 1988, Oquendo became the first National League player since 1918 to play all nine positions in one season.

LOUIS (LOU) CLARK BROCK (20)

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, assists with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training and periodically throughout the season. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 61, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steal campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 21st on the all-time list.

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in both 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame. His uniform No. 20 is one of 10 that have been retired by the Cardinals. Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984.

ROBERT (BOB) GIBSON (45)

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time as a Cardinal from 1959 to 1975, is entering his sixth season as Cardinals special instructor.

Gibson, 65, served as the Cardinals' bullpen coach in 1995. He formerly was a pitching coach under Joe Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts, tying an N.L. record for one month.

In World Series competition, few players compared to Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters nine times, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform No. 45 is one of 10 retired by the Cardinals.

Gibson recently authored his autobiography, "Stranger To The Game." He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb.

ALBERT FRED (RED) SCHOENDIENST (2)

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 59 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager, the longest tenure in club history. He managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and '78.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: in 1946 with the Cardinals and in 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League All-Stars to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate honor with his induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times. His uniform No. 2 was retired by the Cardinals in 1996.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser national bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Ill., and was married to the late Mary Schoendienst for 53 years (Sept. 20, 1947). They had four children, all of whom are married: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

FULL NAME: Darrell Shane Andrews

HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 220 BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: 8/28/71 at Dallas, Texas

OPENING DAY AGE: 29 M.L. SERVICE: 6.000

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as free agent to a minor league contract, January 5, 2001.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

NON-ROSTER INVITEE

2000 SEASON:

- Missed more than half the season due to a herniated disc in his lower back. In 66 games for the Cubs, he batted .229 with 14 home runs and 39 RBIs.
- Was on the disabled list 5/15-8/25 due to the back injury. Underwent surgery 6/7 (Dr. Michael Schafer) to have the disc removed.
- Played in 58 games at third base (41 starts) and six games at first base (4 starts).
- Was the Cubs' Opening Day third baseman. Had three RBIs in the season opener 3/29 against the Mets in Tokyo, including a two-run homer off Dennis Cook - baseball's first roundtripper of the campaign.
- In the Cubs' Wrigley Field home opener 4/10 vs. ATL, hit a ninth-inning game-tying three-run homer. The Cubs went on to win the contest 4-3.
- Recorded his fifth career two-homer game 4/12 vs. ATL, driving in four runs in the contest.
- Hit his second career pinch-homer 5/11 off MIL's Steve Woodard.
- Had a game-ending RBI single 5/8 vs. MIL to give the Cubs a 12-11 win. Had four RBIs in the contest, including a three-run homer.
- Went just 6-for-42 in his final 16 games before going on the disabled list. Before rejoining the Cubs in late August, he played in 15 games during a rehab stint at Iowa (AAA) and hit .184 (7-for-38) with two homers and seven RBIs.
- After returning to the majors, he was 1-for-22 in his first 12 games. From 9/13 through the end of the season, he went 17-for-52 (.327) with four homers and 12 RBIs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1990 – Began his professional career at Gulf Coast (Rookie), appearing in 56 games and batting .242 with three home runs and 24 RBIs.

1991 – Spent the season at Sumter (A) and had 11 homers and 49 RBIs in 105 games.

1992 – Led the South Atlantic League - and Montreal's farm system - in homers (25) at Albany, Ga. (A)...was named to the league's all-star team, as he led the circuit in walks (107) and home run ratio (1 every 18.1 at-bats).

1993 – Batted .260 with 18 home runs and 70 RBIs at Harrisburg (AA)...ranked among the Eastern League leaders in homers and doubles (29).

1994 – Had 16 home runs and 85 RBIs for Ottawa in his first season at the Triple-A level...led International League third basemen in total chances (436).

1995 – Was a member of Montreal's Opening Day roster in his first big league action...played in 84 games (including 38 starts at third base and 19 at first base) and batted .214 with eight homers and 31 RBIs...made his M.L. debut as a defensive replacement 4/26 at PIT...collected his first hit 4/27, a game-winning solo homer off Jim Gott in the top of the ninth inning to give the Expos a 2-1 victory...his second M.L. hit also was a homer - off the Cubs' Kevin Foster on 4/28 in his first career game at Wrigley Field...on 9/28, he hit a pinch-grand slam off CIN's Chuck McElroy.

1996 – Had 19 homers and 64 RBIs in 127 games for the Expos...connected for a pair of grand slams within a 10-day span - on 4/16 off PHI's Mike Grace and on 4/25 off CIN's Tim Pugh...drove in five runs in the 4/25 affair...had a two-hit inning 6/24 vs. PIT - a run-scoring single and a run-scoring triple...had a career-high four hits 7/18 at NY...recorded his first two multi-homer games 6/17 at COL and 8/1 vs. CIN...had a .955 fielding percentage at third base (15 E/335 TC)...from 4/27 through the end of the season, though, he committed just six errors.

1997 – Missed most of the season with a thoracic nerve irritation in his upper left shoulder...was on the disabled list 5/1-10/30...injured his shoulder diving for a baseball 4/8 at St. Louis...played the rest of the month with the discomfort before being sidelined for the campaign...made injury rehab stops at Ottawa (AAA) and West Palm Beach (A) in an attempt to return to the Expos, but the injury flared up during both minor league stops...had four homers and nine RBIs in 18 games for Montreal.

1998 – Had his best major league season, hitting 25 homers and driving in 69 runs in 150 contests for the Expos...also had 30 doubles in finishing the campaign with a .238 batting average...had a career-high 12-game hitting streak 4/12-25.

1999 – Was signed as a free agent by the Cubs on 9/10 after having been released by Montreal on 9/7...in a combined 117 games, he batted .195 with 16 homers and 51 RBIs...in 19 games for the Cubs, he hit .254 with five homers and 14 RBIs...batted .181 with 11 homers and 37 RBIs in 98 games for the Expos...saw action in 82 games at third base (60 starts) and 18 games at first base (14 starts)...was on the disabled list 5/11-6/1 with a bulging disc in his back...in his first game off the disabled list 6/1, he recorded his fourth career two-homer game in Expos' 10-8 victory vs. ARI...went 3-for-4 with three runs scored and five RBIs - which tied his career high.

MISC: Graduated in 1990 from Carlsbad (NM) High School, where he was a member of three state championship teams...also lettered in football...resides in Carlsbad with his wife Amy and children Teagan and Dalton.

- Had 12 no-decisions among his 30 starts. Made one relief appearance.
- The Cards posted wins in nine of his 10 starts after 8/7. The only blemish was 9/8 at Milwaukee, when the Brewers plated four runs in the 9th-inning of a 6-5 defeat.
- Claimed a 1.97 ERA (45.2 IP/ 10 ER) in his last seven starts and struck out 54 while allowing just 16 walks and 31 hits.
- Went 3-0 with a 1.65 ERA, 40 strikeouts and 11 walks in five September starts.
- Earned first major league win in his 4/9 start vs. MIL. Fanned 10 batters in his 6.0 IP, allowing just three hits. Singled in the fifth inning, hitting safely for the second time in three starts.
- Posted a 14-1 win vs. SD on 4/20. Tossed five shutout innings and allowed just two hits. Struck out four, but walked a career-high seven batters. Collected three base hits, including his first career home run (off Vicente Palacios).
- Earned his third win with seven shutout innings against MIL on 4/26. Allowed just three hits and homered (off Steve Woodard) for the second straight game.
- Went without a decision in 5/7 outing at CIN. Had four wild pitches, including three in the third inning, in a 9-7 loss.
- Despite a solid performance, he did not earn a decision in his 5/13 outing vs. LA, a 3-1 Redbirds loss. Fired seven innings of shutout ball, allowing just four hits, while striking out nine and walking four.
- Suffered his second loss on 5/19 at PIT in what was probably the worst start of his young career. Lasted just 2.2 innings and allowed seven runs on seven hits in a 13-1 loss, as Kris Benson three-hit the Redbirds.
- Won for the first time in nearly a month on 5/25, when he downed the Marlins, 7-6. Fanned a career-high 11 batters in 6.2 IP. Walked none and allowed four runs (two coming via solo HRs).
- Earned his fifth win 5/30 at ARI, 6-1. Threw five no-hit innings against the Diamondbacks before allowing one run on three hits in the sixth. Had five strikeouts and two walks.
- Equaled a career high with 11 strikeouts in a five-inning outing vs. CLE on 6/4. Allowed two runs on five hits and walked none, but did not earn a decision in the Cards' 3-2 loss. Surrendered a solo home run to Kenny Lofton, marking the first HR he'd allowed to a left-handed batter in 93.1 career innings pitched.
- Enjoyed one of his best games on 7/21, in a 12-1 win at HOU. Went seven innings and allowed just three hits while equaling a career high with 11 strikeouts. Went 2-for-3 at the plate with a walk, RBI and two runs scored.
- Was a 17-5 loser vs. ARI in his 7/27 outing at STL. Fanned 10 batters in just 4.2 IP, including seven of the first nine batters he faced. The D-Backs nicked him for six runs (two homers) and went on to tally 19 hits in the rout.
- Held the Brewers to just one run on three hits in 6.0 IP in 8/12 start at County Stadium. Came away with a no decision, as Cards pulled out a 2-1 win in 12 innings.
- Notched his eighth win of the year and first in six starts with a 5-2 victory over PIT on 8/23. Allowed two runs on six hits in seven innings of work. Threw six shutout innings before giving up solo homers to Osik and Wilson.
- Made his first career appearance in his native South Florida and allowed only two runs on three hits in six innings at FLA on 8/28, but did not earn a decision. The Cards scored four runs in the eighth for a 5-2 win.
- Notched his ninth win on 9/13 at PIT. Struck out 11 batters and walked none in a 9-5 victory. Allowed four runs (two earned) in 6.2 innings of work.
- Earned his 10th win on 9/20 in Cardinals' 11-6 Division-clinching win over HOU. Matched his career high with 7.0 IP, allowing just four hits and two earned runs. He became the Cardinals' fifth 10-game winner with the victory.

2000 POSTSEASON - Got his first taste of postseason action and appeared in three games for the Cardinals...was tabbed as the Redbirds' starter for Game 1 of the Division Series against ATL...worked through the first two innings without harm before running into trouble in the third; with the Cards staked to a 6-0 lead, Rick retired just two of the eight batters he faced in the inning and left after allowing four runs and a major league-record five wild pitches in the frame...St. Louis went on to win the game 7-5...started Game 2 of the National League Championship Series against the Mets at Busch Stadium and lasted just 0.2 innings...faced just six batters and retired only two, while walking three and allowing a double and two wild pitches...made one relief appearance, that coming in Game 5 at NY...went 0.2 innings and allowed one run (and two more wild pitches).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1997 - Was the 72nd overall pick in the June amateur draft and signed a minor league contract on 8/28...was a member of the USA Junior National Team, which captured the bronze medal at the International Baseball Association's World Junior Championship...named to the All-Tournament team as a lefthanded starter...tossed a two-hit shutout against South Korea in the quarter-final round, fanning 15 batters and walking just two...finished the tournament with a 3-0 record in five starts, including one complete game, struck out 48 and walked 12 in 29.2 innings; allowed only six earned runs (1.82 ERA), and opponents batted just .189 against him...also played 13 games in the outfield; batted .387 (24-62) with three home runs, 16 RBIs and a .955 fielding average in the tournament.

1998 - Split his first professional season between Class-A Peoria and advanced Class-A Prince William, posting a combined 12-6 record, 2.63 earned-run average and 222 strikeouts in 161 innings...was honored as the Cardinals' Minor League Pitcher of the Year after twice receiving organization Pitcher of the Month honors, in May and June...honored as the Carolina League's Pitcher of the Year and as a postseason league All-Star, named to Howe Sports' Minor League All-Star team and All-Teenager team, and selected to Baseball America's Minor League All-Star team and Class-A All-Star team...also voted by Baseball America as the best pitching prospect in both the Carolina and Midwest leagues, and named No. 18 on the publication's list of top 100 prospects (one of two Class-A minor leaguers to make the top 20)...among all minor league pitchers in 1998, Rick ranked first in strikeouts...among all minor league starting pitchers, he ranked second in strikeouts per nine innings (12.41) and third by limiting opponents to a .191 batting average...led the Carolina League in strikeouts per nine innings (12.93), ranked second in strikeouts (a Prince William-record 181) and opponents' batting average (.205), and finished fourth in ERA (2.79)...started the year with Peoria in the Midwest League after participating in the Cardinals' major league spring camp...in seven starts at Peoria, was a perfect 3-0 with a 2.06 ERA, allowing just 15 hits in 35 innings...won his pro debut on 4/10 vs. Kane County, allowing just one hit in five scoreless innings as the Chiefs prevailed, 8-3...pitched back-to-back hitless starts on 5/1 and 5/6, stretching his hitless innings streak that began 4/26 vs. Burlington to 15.2 IP...on 5/1 vs. Quad City, fanned seven in six hitless innings of a 7-1 win; on 5/6 at Fort Wayne, retired the first 11 batters en route to 6.2 no-hit innings, fanning 10...pitched a minor league-best 17.2 consecutive hitless innings, with the streak ending 5/11 vs. Lansing with a third-inning leadoff single, though he allowed only one other hit in seven innings, winning 7-1...made his Carolina League debut on 5/22, striking out seven in 5.2 IP; lost, 3-0, though he pitched five scoreless innings before surrendering a pair of runs in the sixth...gained his first win with the Cannons on 6/1, allowing just one hit (a fifth-inning single) in seven scoreless innings; struck out 11 as Prince William beat Winston-Salem, 7-0...became the first pitcher in the minors in '98 to strike out 10 or more batters in three-straight games (6/1- 6/11) by fanning 12 in a 6-2 win at Salem on 6/11; struck out seven of the first eight batters he faced and nine of the first 12...recorded his fourth double-digit strikeout game in seven Carolina League starts by striking out 12 batters over seven innings in a 5-4 win over Kinston on 6/21...posted his second streak of three consecutive games with 10 or more Ks (6/21-7/2)...pitched seven scoreless innings, allowing one hit, in a 1-0 win at Lynchburg on 8/4...earned Midwest League Pitcher of the Week honors 5/3-9 for Peoria and Carolina League honors 5/28-6/3 for Prince William.

1999 - Considered by many to be baseball's top pitching prospect, he did nothing in his second professional season to dismiss such high regard...was tabbed Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Year for the second consecutive season; also received Minor League Player of the Year selections from USA Today, Baseball America and Howe Sports, and was named Minor League Pitcher of the Year by USA Today Baseball Weekly...was also named to Topps Class-AA All-Star team...combined for a 13-3 won-loss mark and 2.35 ERA during his minor league stops with Arkansas (AA) and Memphis (AAA); led the Cardinals farm system in victories (tie, with Larry Luebbers), strikeouts (194), strikeouts per nine innings (12.7) and starter's ERA...he was honored as Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Month in both April and May...he and teammate Adam Kennedy were both tabbed for the Future Stars game which took place at Boston's Fenway Park in July...began the season at Arkansas of the Texas League where he was nearly unhittable...in eight starts for the Travelers, Rick was a perfect 6-0 with a league-leading 0.91 ERA...fanned 75 batters in 49.1 IP and walked just 16...was 3-0, 0.46 ERA in three May starts and was brilliant in his five starts at Ray Winder Field, going 4-0, 0.29 ERA (31.0 IP/ 1 ER)...struck out 10 or more in five of his starts for Arkansas, including 12 in a two-hit complete game shutout vs. Shreveport on 4/24...allowed just one hit in 7.0 IP on 5/16 vs. Midland, his final start before promotion to Memphis...batted .400 (4-for-10) with a HR at Arkansas...made his first Triple-A start on 5/21 at Salt Lake, posting a win with 5.1 IP; completed his 16-game stint at Memphis with a 7-3 mark and a 3.16 ERA...he whiffed 14 in 6.0 IP on 6/20 vs. Iowa and fanned 13 in six innings work vs. Tucson on 5/26...made his final start for the Redbirds vs. Oklahoma on 8/16, when he tossed six scoreless innings, allowing just one hit and striking out nine...earned promotion to the majors on 8/23, drawing the starting assignment in the Cards' series opener with MON at Olympic Stadium; allowed three runs in 5.0 IP, taking a no-decision in the 11-7 defeat...his Busch Stadium debut came vs. ATL on 8/29, when he had another no-decision, allowing two runs on five hits in six innings pitched; left with game tied 2-2, but the Braves went on to win, 4-3, in 12 innings...struck out nine in 9/8 start at ATL; suffered his first major league loss as well, losing 5-4 to the Braves...made a total of five starts for the Cardinals, going 0-1 with a 3.86 ERA...his final four appearances came in relief...did not allow a run, and only two hits, in 5.0 IP out of the bullpen...struck out six in 2.0 innings of relief vs. SD in nightcap of 9/29 twinbill...was credited with his first professional save in season finale vs. Cubs; worked out of a bases loaded no-out jam to preserve 9-5 win in rain-shortened contest on 10/3...finished the year 0-1 with a 3.27 ERA in nine games (five starts) for the Cardinals...struck out 39 and walked just 14 in his 33.0 IP...held opposing batters to a .215 average, including a .133 mark as a reliever...collected his first major league hit with a single off the Brewers' Scott Karl on 9/14 at Busch Stadium.

MISC: Attended Port St. Lucie (Fla.) High School...was named the 1997 High School Player of the Year by USA Today...went 11-1 with a 0.47 ERA during his senior season, striking out 162 batters in 74.0 innings pitched...was offered a baseball scholarship at the University of Miami...was named to Howe Sports All-Teenager Teams in both 1998 and 1999...in 1999, was voted Best Pitching Prospect by both Pacific Coast League and Texas League team managers in Baseball America's Best Tools survey...lives in Fort Pierce, Fla.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

2000 SEASON:

- Pitched in 30 games for the Cardinals and saw his most action since the 1997 season, when he had his sophomore campaign cut short by an injured shoulder. Has had two operations to repair rotator cuff injury -- in Sept. '97 & Sept. '98.
- Opened the year at Triple-A Memphis, but joined the Cardinals full-time on 5/28.

- Was used exclusively out of the bullpen in St. Louis. Finished 16 of the 30 games in which he appeared.
- Allowed 30 runs and seven HRs in his last 22 appearances (32.0 IP) after allowing just three runs and no HRs in his first eight games (14.0 IP).
- Opened the year at Memphis, where he posted a 1-2 record with a 5.95 ERA in nine games. Pitched 39.1 innings and allowing 45 hits and 21 walks while notching 26 strikeouts.
- Made one relief appearance (4/14 at COL) in April before returning to Memphis.
- Was recalled from Memphis prior to 5/28 game. He worked 2.0 innings, allowing one run, to close out that afternoon's game vs. NY.
- Fired 2.0 scoreless innings on 6/5 vs. KC and did so again on 6/9 at DET.
- Blanked the SF Giants for the final 2.0 innings on 6/20, fanning three.
- Earned his first major league win since 7/15/97 on 6/24 in a 3.0 inning relief effort vs. LA.
- Hurled 2.0 scoreless innings on 6/30 vs. HOU and was credited with Win #2.
- Matched his 2000 season high with 3.0 IP on 7/27 vs. ARI.
- Struck out three in 2.0 innings on 9/13 at PIT.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1993 – Allowed just two home runs in his 37 innings...posted a 2.01 ERA in four home starts, but had a 6.14 mark in three starts on the road.

1994 – Made a rapid rise through the Cardinals' farm system, posting a combined 17-3 record with a 2.28 ERA...led all of minor league baseball with his 205.2 innings pitched, and his 2.28 ERA was 9th among all minor league hurlers...finished third among minor league pitchers with 184 K's, and his .197 opponents average was second...hurled a two-hitter in his first AA start, and a four-hitter in his first AAA start.

1995 – Started out strong, but season was shortened due to injury...began the year 2-0 with a 1.74 ERA in his first five games at Louisville (AAA) before elbow injury put him on the shelf following five scoreless IP in 4/29 start vs New Orleans...missed nearly four months due to inflammation and tightness in his right elbow and forearm...returned to active roster on 8/9 in start vs Iowa...was held to two innings of work as he was working off a pitch count...was stretched out to 4 IP in 8/14 start vs Omaha and went to 6 IP on 8/19 vs Indy...Alan was 2-2 with a 3.24 ERA (25 IP/9 ER) in his six starts following return to the active roster...he was 2-0 during post-season, helping Louisville to opening round series sweep of Indy with a CG shutout in Game #3 of playoff series...earned 2nd post-season win in Louisville's Game #3 win over Buffalo on 9/13 in the American Association Championship series...was 4-2 with a 2.41 ERA in 11 starts at Louisville, his first full year at the triple-A level...held opposing batters to a .185 mark and fanned 54 in his 56 IP...was purchased from Louisville on 9/16 & was 1-2 in three starts for the Cardinals...made his ML debut on 9/19 at PIT, working four innings...lasted just 3.1 IP in 9/25 start at CHI...earned his first ML win on 9/30 vs PIT...fanned 10 in his 8.2 IP, equaling the Cards single-game strikeout high for the year...fanned a total of 20 batters in his 16 IP with the Cards...won Arizona Fall League top honors for pitching with 6-1 mark and a 1.78 ERA...also established AFL record for strikeouts with 62.

1996 – Rookie right-hander put together one of the finest frosh seasons ever by a Redbird pitcher...finished the year with 13 wins, the most by a STL rookie since 1967 (Dick Hughes -16)...his 131 strikeouts were the most by a Cardinal rookie since 1971 (Reggie Cleveland -148)...he and Expos' Ugueth Urbina were only rookie pitchers in the NL to post a double-digit win total...the Cards were 14-18 in his starts and averaged 4.9 runs/game support (158 runs)...Alan owned a 2.21 ERA (85.2 IP/21 ER) in the 12 starts he won, but a 6.99 mark (104.1 IP/81 ER) in his 20 starts without a win...10 of his 13 wins came in night games...suffered tough stretches in May (1-2, 7.67 ERA) & July (3-2, 6/98 ERA), but was a solid 3-1, 2.65 ERA in June...his longest win streak was three games (4/10-20 & 7/6-19)...Alan made two relief appearances, the first ever of his professional career...suffered 4-2 defeat in relief on 9/11 at SF, as Barry Bonds tagged him for a 2-run homer in the 8th, breaking a 2-2 tie...he allowed two unearned runs in 4.2 IP during his start 9/6 vs Padres, before leaving the game after being hit by Steve Finley's line drive off his right wrist in the 5th...was used in relief for first time in his professional career on Labor Day (9/2) and gained win vs Astros in 8-7 extra-innings affair...became Cards' winningest rookie since 1971 (R. Cleveland) as he gained a 2-1 win over the Rockies on 8/31 for win #12...dropped a 4-1 decision at HOU 8/25, allowing three runs in 6 IP...won for the first time since July 19 when he tossed a CG 6-1 win over the Dodgers on 8/14, allowing just five hits...made his longest start (7 IP) since June 15, but had no-decision in Cards' 5-3 loss to the Giants on 8/8, allowing just one run on six hits...Terrell Wade & two Braves' relievers held the Cards in check, as Alan's 3-game win streak came to an end in 4-1 loss to ATL on 7/24...became Cards' first 10-game winner, as he battled Cubs and rain delays for a 9-1 win on 7/19...earned his first career win in three tries against the Cubs on 7/14, as he and Cards held on for a 7-6 win at the "Friendly Confines"...Redbirds provided 11 runs and 17 hits in support of his 11-7 win over the Braves 6/26 at ATL...allowed two runs (one earned) in 6 IP on 6/21 at MTL before departing with game tied at 2-2...the Expos went on to win 4-3 in 12 innings...Alan supplied Cards' first two runs with bases-loaded 2-run double in the 5th...won at home for the first time since 4/15, as he posted a 4-2 win over the Mets on 6/15 at Busch...lowered his ERA below the 5.00 mark for the first time since the end of April...earned his first ML shutout with a 3-0 CG effort on 6/3 at San Diego...it was his second CG effort of the season...recorded wins in each of his first three decisions and finished the month of April with a 3-1, 4.89 mark...fanned a career-high 11 batters in complete-game win vs MTL on April 10...the 11 K's were the most by a Cards' pitcher since 1992...worked 8 scoreless innings in a 1-0 at PHI on April 20...his first and only loss for the month came on April 25 vs NY...he and brother Andy became the first Cardinals' brother pitching tandem since Lindy and Von McDaniel teamed together in 1957-58...they were the first brothers to share 10-win seasons since Joe and Phil Niekro did so in 1985...made postseason debut in fourth game of N.L. Championship Series 10/13 vs ATL, retiring all four hitters he faced to keep deficit at 3-0 before Cards came back for 4-3 win in game started by older brother Andy...held Braves to two runs and three hits in five innings in Game Six start, a 3-1 loss.

1997 – Had his brilliant sophomore campaign cut short by a shoulder injury in late July, which eventually led to season-ending surgery to repair a partially torn rotator cuff, damaged cartilage and looseness in his right shoulder...was placed on the DL 7/31 and remained there for the rest of the schedule...at the time of his injury, ranked third in the N.L. in strikeouts (160) and opponents' batting average and sixth in ERA (2.89)...because of the injury, fell one-third inning short of the 162 necessary to qualify for N.L. pitching honors...would have tied for sixth in ERA and ranked third by limiting opponents to a .219 batting average...surpassed his rookie '96 season strikeout total by 29...fanned batters in 17 consecutive innings (21 batters total) from 5/16-27...the Cardinals were 11-12 in his 23 starts but averaged just 3.6 runs per start, the least support given the Redbirds' regular starters...averaged seven innings per start; worked eight or more innings in nine starts, including two complete games...was 7-7 with a 2.55 ERA and 136 strikeouts in 127 innings before the All-Star break...was 0-2 with a no-decision in his final three starts...notched his ninth, and final, win in a 7/15 start at CIN, winning 7-4...in a 6/27 duel against B. Tomko at CIN, led 3-1 entering the sixth but was beaten on a Willie Greene grand slam, 5-3...earned his seventh win, vs. CIN on 6/22 at Busch Stadium, 5-2, holding the Reds to one earned run and four hits in eight innings...had no decision in his 7/2 interleague start vs. MIN...struck out 10 in eight innings, surrendering only a solo homer by S. Stahoviak before giving way to Petkovsek...Cards won, 2-1, on a McGee solo homer in the bottom of the 10th inning...was brilliant in his 6/16 interleague start at MIL, but lost when J. Burnitz homered in the ninth for a 1-0 Brewers win...Benes matched his career high with 11 strikeouts, the third time he'd fanned 11 batters in '97...also struck out 11 in an 8-3 win at San Diego on 6/11 and in a 5/16 no-decision at Atlanta...blanked the Braves on no hits for 8.2 innings 5/16 at ATL. Did not earn a decision in the game, which the Cards eventually lost, 1-0, in 13 innings...posted a complete-game 2-1 win over the Padres in the nightcap of a 4/19 DH at Honolulu, allowing only three hits and a lone ninth-inning run.

1998 – Was placed on the disabled list on 3/30 after missing the entire exhibition schedule while recovering from shoulder surgery performed in September 1997....underwent additional surgery on his right shoulder on 9/3...Dr. James Andrews performed the arthroscopic procedure to repair "residual underlying laxity."

1999 – Completed long journey back to majors after missing nearly two full years due to right shoulder injury that twice required surgery...began the season on disabled list before returning to game action in early August, after completing a variety of simulated game workouts...saw his first professional game action since 1997 on 8/5 vs. Shreveport when he made an injury rehab start for Arkansas (AA)...worked 1.1 scoreless innings...combined to make seven rehab appearances with Potomac (A), Arkansas (AA) and Memphis (AAA). Final rehab start was with Memphis on 9/4 vs. Nashville...had a pair of three inning outings -- his longest of the year...worked three innings vs. Jackson on 8/25 and did the same vs. Kinston on 8/30...was activated from the disabled list on 9/5 and made his return to the Busch Stadium mound on 9/10 vs. PIT; worked one scoreless inning, striking out two, in his first major league game appearance since 7/30/97...made his final appearance of the season on 9/18 vs. HOU; allowed one hit before inducing a game-ending doubleplay.

MISC: Graduated in 1990 from Lake Forest High School, where he played football, basketball and baseball, earning all-conference honors in each sport...attended Creighton University, where he was team captain and a first-team preseason All-America in 1993...named Missouri Valley Conference Pitcher of the Year and second-team All-America in 1992...named to Baseball America's Freshman All-America team in 1991...enjoys fishing and golf...brother of teammate Andy Benes and Cardinals' minor leaguer Adam Benes...was signed by Cardinals' scout Mike Roberts...was named Cardinals Rookie of the Year for 1996 by the St. Louis Chapter of the BBWAA and by Hamilton Jewelers...resides in Town & Country, Mo. with his wife, Mary Beth and their son Sean Christopher (11/6/00)...name is pronounced BEN-es.

2000 SEASON:

- Rejoined the Cardinals as a free agent in 2000 after a two-year stint with Arizona.
- Owns a 40-26 record with a 3.91 ERA in 92 games (87 starts) as a member of the Redbirds.
- Andy ranks 10th among all active pitchers in career strikeouts (1,858) and 13th in wins (143).
- Posted a double-digit win total for the sixth-straight year and the 10th time in his career.
- Went 9-3 with a 4.47 ERA before the All-Star break and had a 3-6, 5.65 mark after the intermission, marking a reversal of his usual career pattern. His career ledger after the break stands at 76-53 with a 3.73 ERA, while his pre-break work has resulted in a 57-75, 3.98 record.
- Made 25 starts before going on the disabled list with right knee inflammation on 8/19 (retroactive to 8/15). At the time of his injury, ranked among the N.L. leaders in strikeouts per 9 IP (8.0).
- Was on the disabled list until 9/3. Made two relief outings and three starts after his return, going 2-2 with a 5.09 ERA.
- The Cards scored a combined 28 runs in his eight losing starts, but outscored the opposition 54-14 in his last five wins.
- Sixteen of his 27 starts came on the road.
- Posted nine strikeouts and collected his first base hit of the year in a 4/23 victory (6-3) over COL.

- Was a victim of low run support in his start at CIN on 5/5, as the Cards dropped a 3-2 decision to the Reds. Went six innings and allowed three runs. Didn't record a walk or strikeout, marking the first time since 5/29/96 that he went without a strikeout.
- Collected his third win on 5/16 at PHI, allowing two runs on 10 hits in seven innings of work. Also clubbed his seventh career home run (and his second clout at Veterans Stadium).
- He won six straight decisions from 6/6 to 7/13.
- Gained fifth win on 6/6 in a 5-4 decision over KC. Allowed four runs in the third inning, but blanked KC over his last 4.1 innings pitched, as the Cards came back from four runs down.
- Won at SD on 6/12, downing the Padres, 7-3. Fanned 10 batters in his six-inning effort.
- Garnered his third straight win 6/17 at LA. Allowed two runs in six innings in a 4-3 Cards victory.
- Did not earn a decision in his 6/23 start vs. LA. Went seven innings and allowed just two runs in a 9-6, 12-inning win for St. Louis. Notched 10 Ks for the third straight game.
- Posted a 12-3 win at CIN on 6/29. Allowed only four hits in 7.0 IP, including back-to-back triples to Barry Larkin and Dmitri Young in the third and a solo HR to K. Griffey Jr. in the fifth. It was Andy's first win over CIN since 1998.
- Received his highest run support of the season in a 14-3 Cards victory on 7/4 vs. CIN - his second straight win over the Reds. Struck out eight in six innings of work to improve to 9-3.
- Went 2.1 innings and earned a hold in his fifth career relief outing 7/9 vs. SF.
- Notched a 13-5 win over CWS on 7/13, holding the majors' highest-scoring offense to two runs in 7.0 innings of work.
- Had his personal six-game winning streak snapped with a 3-2 loss at MIN on 7/18. Went the distance for his 20th career complete game, allowing three runs (two earned) on seven hits.
- Made the wrong kind of history 7/23 at HOU, as he became the 17th pitcher (second of 2000) to allow four home runs in an inning. Lasted just 1.2 innings and allowed a career-high nine runs, as St. Louis lost 15-7 at Enron Field.
- Walked a career-high seven batters in his 7/29 start at NY, taking a no-decision in the Cards' 4-3 loss.

2000 POSTSEASON – Did not appear in the Division Series vs. the Braves, but garnered the Cardinals' lone win in the N.L. Championship Series vs. the Mets...went 8.0 innings and allowed two runs on six hits in Game 3, lifting St. Louis to a 8-2 victory...also went 1-for-3 at the plate and scored a run...the win marked his first career postseason victory.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1989 – Began his professional career at Double-A Wichita, where he went 8-4 with a 2.16 ERA in 16 Texas League starts...allowed two earned runs in his first five starts (0.44 ERA), including three straight shutouts that featured strikeout totals of 16, 12 and 11...was promoted to Las Vegas (AAA) in July, going 2-1 in five starts, before getting the call to the majors...made his big league debut on 8/11 vs. ATL, fanning seven in a 6-5 loss...collected first major league hit on 8/18 at MON, then added first big league homer on 9/3 off the Phillies' Dennis Cook...posted first major league victory 8/23 at PHI, a 7-3 win that triggered a six-game winning streak...the streak featured a pair of 1-0 wins over Orel Hershiser and the Dodgers...honored by The Sporting News as N.L. Rookie Pitcher-of-the-Year by recording 66 strikeouts in 66.2 innings during brief big league stint...was named the Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Year despite spending only just half the year at Wichita.

1990 – Made 32 appearances (31 starts) in his first full big league season...fired first major league complete game with a two-hitter on 5/14 vs. PHI...Padres went extra-innings in six of his 11 no decisions, winning five...fanned 11 batters on 7/5 vs. STL.

1991 – Established a then career high with 13 strikeouts on 4/13 vs. CIN...hit second career home run on 4/27 at PHI off Danny Cox...started a career-best 10-game winning streak with 2-0 win on 7/28 vs. NY, allowing five hits over 8.0 innings...winning streak spanned 12 starts and was the longest in the N.L. since Dennis Martinez won 11 in a row in 1989...tossed first major league shutout with 2-0, two-hitter at STL on 8/29.

1992 – Tossed two shutouts, a three-hitter on 5/22 vs. CHI, then a four-hitter on 6/17 at HOU, winning 2-0 and 5-0, respectively...hit his third career home run on 8/13 at ATL off Charlie Liebrandt...won six of last seven decisions at SD, allowing 11 earned runs in 55.2 innings (1.78 ERA).

1993 – Lost Opening Day start vs. PIT, then went 12-6 with 2.29 ERA over next 22 starts, working into seventh inning 17 times, and holding the opposition to two or fewer earned runs in 15 of those 22 games...hit fourth career homer on 5/12 at CIN off Jose Rijo...made lone career All-Star Game appearance, working 2.0 frames in BAL, fanning a pair and allowing a run...earned N.L. Player of the Week honor after back-to-back starts at CHI (7/27) and at CIN (8/1), allowing no earned runs over 16.0 innings in a pair of wins.

1994 – Won the N.L. strikeout title with 189 strikeouts in strike-shortened season, becoming the first Padre to lead the league in Ks...recorded 10 or more strikeouts in seven games, including career-best 14 strikeouts on 7/15 at NY...pitched lone career one-hitter on 7/3 vs. Mets, recording 13 whiffs, while contributing a three-run double…had the three highest strikeout games in the N.L. with 12, 13 and 14.

1995 – Was a double-digit winner while splitting time between San Diego (19 starts) and Seattle (12 starts)...went 4-7 with San Diego, then was dealt to Seattle for the pennant drive on 7/31, posting a 7-2 record and assisting the Mariners to postseason play…recorded career strikeout #952 on 5/31 at NY, breaking Padres' club record…had a season-high 11 strikeouts on 6/5 at PHI…ranked second in N.L. with 19 starts and 126 Ks at time of trade to Seattle, leaving San Diego as club's all-time strikeout leader with 1,036…won A.L. debut on 8/3 at CAL, a 10-7 victory allowing two runs with nine strikeouts over 6.0 innings…won five straight decisions from 8/29 to 9/26…included was a 6-2 win vs. KC on 9/9, featuring 19 consecutive batters retired. 1995 POSTSEASON – Started Game 2 of Division Series vs. Yankees, allowing three runs in 5.0 innings, a game the Mariners dropped 7-5 in 15 innings…started Game 5, allowing four runs in 6.2 innings, but Seattle rallied for 6-5 win to qualify for ALCS vs. CLE…struggled vs. Indians, allowing six runs in 2.1 innings.

1996 – Established a career high with 18 wins, the second-best tally in the N.L...after nightmarish 1-7 beginning (5.92 ERA through 10 starts), he had a dramatic turnaround, finishing with a 17-3 record and 3.11 ERA over his final 26 appearances, lowering his season ERA to 3.83, a drop of 2.09 from the beginning of the season…won 10 straight decisions from 6/19 to 8/16, the longest winning streak for a Cardinal pitcher since John Tudor won 11 in a row in 1985…Andy won 15 of last 17 decisions…posted his only career save on 5/29 vs. COL, recording final out of 6-5 Redbird win…his win on 9/9 was 17th of year, giving Andy and brother Alan 31 combined wins, the most by a St. Louis brother tandem since Dizzy (28) and Paul Dean (19) combined for 47 in 1935…was the winning pitcher in Cards division clincher on 9/24 at PIT. 1996 POSTSEASON – Fanned nine in 7.0 innings vs. SD in lone Division Series start, a 5-4 St. Louis win in Game 2…allowed two runs in 6.0 frames at ATL in the opener of the NLCS.

1997 – Season started late due to left rib cage injury...made three rehab starts before winning 4/28 debut at Busch over SF…upon recovering from the injury, the durable Benes worked into the 7th inning in 18 of 26 starts…recorded 10 or more strikeouts on five occasions, including a pair of 12-strikeout games…fanned a dozen over 7.0 innings in 9-3 win at SF on 5/24, then struck out 12 in a no decision at CHI, working 9.0 innings of an eventual 2-1 Cards win…also had a pair of 11-strikeout outings (6/4 at PIT and 6/14 vs. CLE)…posted 100th major league win 6/24 vs. CHI, a 7-2 triumph…season ended on 9/7 at COL, when he was hit by Pedro Astacio pitch while batting in seventh inning, suffering broken finger on his pitching hand…despite injury-shortened campaign, Andy finished 10th in the N.L. with 175 strikeouts, while his .230 opponents' batting average was the seventh-best mark in the league.

1998 – Posted a phenomenal late-season run to tie Tampa Bay's Rolando Arrojo for most wins ever by an expansion pitcher, finishing the year with a 14-13 mark...tied his career best with 231.1 IP (1992), working into the seventh inning in 25 of his 34 starts, including his first 11 of the year...was 8-4 with a 3.00 ERA in 15 starts after the All-Star break...won seven of his last nine decisions and closed the campaign by not allowing an earned run in his last 27.1 innings, establishing a club record...threw the first pitch in Diamondbacks' franchise history, his fifth career Opening Day start, vs. COL on 3/31 (a 9-2 loss)...poked his fifth career home run on 4/10 at SD (off Kevin Brown)...recorded a season-high 10 Ks in a no-decision at PIT on 9/2...pitched a near no-hitter at CIN on 9/13, when he went 8.1 innings before allowing a line drive to right by Sean Casey on a 3-2 pitch; Andy left the game with the bases loaded before Gregg Olson induced a game-ending double play to preserve a 5-0 win...finished September with a 3-0 record and a 0.42 ERA, allowing just two runs on 17 hits while fanning 34 over 38.1 IP.

1999 – In a career full of late-season surges, the 1999 campaign was no different for Benes, as he won six of his last seven decisions and posted a 7-2 record in his last 10 starts to finish the year with a 13-12 record...went 8-3 with a 3.92 ERA after the All-Star break...posted a 4-1 mark in the month of September...entered the All-Star break with a 5-9 record and a 5.51 ERA...his last appearance in Houston's Astrodome was a memorable one, as he clubbed his sixth career home run off Jose Lima on 7/22; allowed just one run on six hits in 6.0 innings in the 2-1 win...received a scare at SD on 7/27, when he was nailed in the right arm by a line drive; came out of the game to take x-rays, which were negative...his longest win streak of the year was four games, from 8/18 to 9/11...got the best of Curt Schilling at PHI on 8/7; allowed just one earned run over 6.2 innings, while matching his D'Backs best with 10 strikeouts...blanked the Phillies with an eight-inning, five-hit perfomance at Bank One Ballpark on 9/11, a 4-0 D'Backs win...his final appearance of the year was out of the bullpen on 10/3 vs. SD...worked two innings and allowed one run (a solo homer to Ruben Rivera) with two strikeouts in the D'Backs' 10-3 win.

MISC: Graduated from Evansville (Ind.) Central High School, where he lettered in baseball basketball and football...attended hometown University of Evansville and earned All-America and Midwestern Collegiate Conference Player of the Year honors as a junior, when he went 16-3 with a 1.42 ERA and a nation-leading 188 strikeouts...led the Purple Aces to the NCAA Tournament, where he knocked off Arizona State 1-0 and was named to the West II Regional All-Tournament squad...was drafted by the San Diego Padres as the first overall pick in the 1988 draft, but did not pitch, opting instead to pitch for the U.S. Olympic Team that traveled to Seoul...Benes won his lone Olympic start, working 6.2 innings vs. Australia, allowing one earned run on three hits...is highly involved in community work...he and his wife Jennifer have two sons, Andrew Charles II (11/4/88) and Shane Ryan (2/16/96) and two daughters, Bailey (12/20/94) and Brynn (11/1/93)...Andy is the eldest brother in the Cardinals system, joining Alan and Adam.

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates in a trade for minor league shortstop Jack Wilson, July 30, 2000.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

2000 SEASON:

- Came to the Cardinals on 7/30 in a trading-deadline deal with the Pirates, for minor league shortstop Jack Wilson. Appeared in 21 games for St. Louis and 44 games for Pittsburgh in 2000.
- Ranked third in the National League with 22 holds. Permitted just eight of 37 (22%) inherited runners to score, which placed him fifth in the circuit, and retired 47 of 65 (72%) first batters faced, the eighth-best mark in the league.
- Fanned 53 batters in 48.0 innings pitched. Over the course of his career Jason has averaged 9.1 strikeouts per nine innings pitched (287 Ks/284.2 IP).
- Owns a 2.70 ERA in 27 career outings (16.2 IP) at Busch Stadium.
- Allowed only three home runs in 2000 and has surrendered just 21 in his career.
- Recorded nine holds for the Cardinals and 13 for the Pirates.
- Held lefthanded batters to a .246 average (16-for-65), with three HRs allowed; for his career, lefties are hitting just .229 (84-for-367) with nine HRs. Righthanders batted .225 (25-for-111) off him in 2000.
- Did not allow an earned run in his last 16 games (7.1 IP), including his last 10 games at home. Boasted a 0.00 ERA in 11 September contests (4.1 IP).
- Earned holds in seven of his last 10 games.
- Faced just one batter in 10 of his 21 STL games and never faced more than five batsmen (twice).
- Struck out 12 batters in a four-outing (5.2 IP) stretch with the Pirates, 4/12 to 4/20.
- Earned his first Cardinal win on 8/18 vs. PHI, recording the final two outs in the ninth inning of a 7-6 win.
- Lost a career-high seven straight decisions 4/8-6/18.
- Fanned three batters in 1.0 inning pitched on 8/30 at FLA.

2000 POSTSEASON – Pitched in three of the Cardinals eight postseason contests...retired the only batter he faced in Game 2 of the Division Series vs. Atlanta...finished Game 1 and 4 in the League Championship Series against New York...worked 2.0 perfect innings with one strikeout.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1991 – Split first professional season between Bradenton (Rookie) and Welland (A)...went a combined 1-1 with one save and a 1.84 ERA with the two clubs...made lone start with Welland on 8/12.

1992 – Began the season with Augusta (A)...was promoted to Salem in early May and led the staff in appearances (38)...went a combined 4-1 with four saves and a 2.82 ERA in 48 games with the two clubs.

BORN: 9/9/61 at Newton, Massachusetts

OPENING DAY AGE: 39 (Turns 40 on September 9) M.L. SERVICE: 9.098

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

2000 SEASON:

- Began the season at Tucson, the Triple-A affiliate of the Arizona Diamondbacks.
- Was 4-3 with two saves in 30 relief appearances.
- Picked up the win in two innings of relief on 6/6 vs. Nevada, striking out four.
- Finished the season with Baltimore's Triple-A Rochester club.
- Worked 4.1 innings in his five games and picked up one save on 8/13.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1982 - After being selected by the New York Yankees in the June draft, began his professional career with Oneonta (A) of the New York Penn league, pitching in just one game...spent the remainder of the season with Paintsville (R).

1983 - Split the season between Greensboro (A) and Oneonta (A)...used mainly as a starter, he was 5-8 in 23 games (17 starts) between the two clubs.

1984 - Out of organized baseball.

1985 - Played the entire year at Greenboro (A)...was used in relief and collected nine saves...struck out a career-high 84 batters in just 78.2 innings pitched.

1986 - With the Boston Red Sox organization, played 29 games at Double-A New Britain, all in relief...had a 2.28 ERA, as he allowed 13 runs in 51.1 innings.

1987 - Signed with Oakland in April and was assigned to Modesto (A)...in 19 games was 3-1 with six saves before moving on to Huntsville (AA)...continued to pitch well, gathering eight wins and just one loss in 28 relief appearances, picking up four saves along the way.

1988 - Opened season with Tacoma (AAA), then made his big-league debut on 6/28 vs. MIL...made his first and only major league start on 8/7 vs. SEA.

1989 - Made 23 relief appearances for Tacoma (AAA) before 5/25 recall to Oakland...earned his first major league win in final regular season game on 10/1 vs. KC...held opponents to a composite .194 average (26-for-134).

1990 - Missed the entire year with a right elbow injury, though he made five rehab appearances with Tacoma from 6/29 to 7/25.

1991 - Signed with Houston on 3/19 and opened the year with Tucson (AAA)...made only two appearances for the Toros before earning a promotion to the Astros on 4/19.

1992 - Re-signed with Oakland on 3/16 and opened the season as Tacoma's (AAA) closer...he earned nine saves and had a 1.44 ERA in 22 outings before being promoted to A's on 6/6...spent only eight days with the parent club before returning to Triple-A until 6/30...did not allow an earned run in final 14 appearances for A's. 1992 POSTSEASON: Made three appearances in the League Championship Series vs. TOR, allowing two hits and three walks in 2.0 innings.

1993 - Was a second round pick of Florida in the expansion draft...began the year on the 15-day disabled list with shoulder inflammation, then made three rehab starts for High Desert (A)...was activated by the Marlins on 4/30, but was limited to 15 appearances before succumbing to tear in labrum of right shoulder on 7/6.

1994 - Returned to Florida, but began year on the DL with shoulder stiffness...was activated on 7/5 and sent to Brevard County (A), making six appearances...was promoted to Edmonton (AAA) on 7/21.

1995 - Signed with Oakland on 1/20 and earned three saves in as many outings with Edmonton (AAA) to open the season...went to late-opening camp with the A's on 4/22 and was recalled to OAK two days later...did not allow a run in first 15 outings, spanning 18.1 innings, while holding opponents hitless in first 35 at-bats with men on base, including an 0-for-20 stretch with men in scoring position...finished third among A.L. relievers with a .137 (10-for-37) average when men were aboard, and .130 (6-for-46) mark with runners in scoring position...posted his first major league save on 5/13 at MIN...earned win on 5/24 vs. Baltimore, a victory that ended with Dennis Eckersley's 300th career save... was disabled from 6/22 to 8/8 with tendinitis in his right shoulder...for the season, opponents hit just .203 (31-for-153).

1996 - Broke camp as Oakland's closer, but spent the majority of the year in a set-up role...his 6-0 ledger marked the most wins by an A's pitcher without a loss since Joe Pate (9-0) with the Philadelphia A's in 1926...was 2-0 with a save through seven outings before pulling a groin muscle while warming up on 4/27 at DET...missed 17 games on the DL from 4/28 to 5/18...allowed five earned runs in 0.1 inning in first game active on 5/19 at BOS, the most he's ever surrendered in a relief appearance...gave up just two earned runs in next 16 outings, spanning 22.2 innings (0.79 ERA).

1997 - Opened the year with Pawtucket (AAA), but was recalled to BOS on 4/10...allowed a home run to BAL's Chris Hoiles on 4/24, the only roundtripper Corsi surrendered in 52 appearances...was placed on 15-day DL on 6/2 with a left rib cage strain, then reinstated on 7/1...earned save his first night back vs. FLA, his first rescue since 7/23/96...had a team-high streak of 17.1 consecutive scoreless innings from 5/10 to 7/19...allowed just two earned runs in a 33-appearance stretch from 5/10 to 9/13 (38.0 innings).

1998 - Led Red Sox bullpen with a 2.59 ERA, ranking third on the staff with 59 relief appearances...held lefthanded hitters to a .211 average (24-for-114), while righties hit at a .256 clip (10-for-49)...stranded 27 of 37 runners inherited. 1998 POSTSEASON: Made a pair of appearances against CLE in the Division Series, totaling 3.0 innings, allowing just one hit and one walk with two strikeouts.

1999 - Began season in Boston and ended in Baltimore with a stop in Rochester (AAA) along the way...appeared in 23 games for the Red Sox, then was designated for assignment on 6/15 and eventually signed as a free agent with the Orioles' organization on 7/2...after working 10 times for Rochester, contract was purchased by BAL on 8/1...was not scored upon in his first five outings for the Orioles and allowed runs in just three of his 13 appearances...retired the first man he faced in all 13 outings, while none of his eight inherited runners scored...was 0-for-4 in save situations overall, 0-for-1 with BAL...worked a season-high two innings on three occasions...had a stint on the DL (8/25-9/9) with BAL due to a right hamstring strain.

MISC: Graduated from Newton (Mass.) North High School in 1979...attended St. Leo (Fla.) College, earning a B.A. in management...while pitching at St. Leo, tossed 8.2 innings of perfect ball against Rollins College before finishing with a one-hitter, the lone hit was by Diamondbacks catching coach Glenn Sherlock...Jim and his wife Diane make their home in Natick, Mass., with their three children, Julianne (11/2/90), Mitch (8/13/92) and Jenna (2/2/94).

OUTFIELDER

FULL NAME: David Jonathan Drew

HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 195 BATS: Left THROWS: Right

BORN: 11/20/75 at Valdosta, Georgia

OPENING DAY AGE: 25 M.L. SERVICE: 2.020

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the first round (fifth overall) of the June 1998 free-agent draft.

2000 SEASON:

- In just his second full season in the big leagues, J.D. posted a fine campaign in which he batted .295, with 18 home runs, 57 RBIs, 73 runs scored and 17 stolen bases. Made 108 starts, including 78 in RF, 17 in CF and 13 in LF.
- Each of his 18 HRs came off righthanded pitchers.
- Twenty-four of his 57 RBIs came with two outs.
- Finished second on the club with six outfield assists (Jim Edmonds had 10).
- J.D.'s four bunt hits were second on the club to Fernando Vina's 10.
- Was solid against the other three N.L. playoff teams in 2000, batting a combined .344 (21-for-61) with two home runs and eight RBIs vs. NY (.409; 9-22), SF (.333; 6-18) and ATL (.286; 6-21).
- Hit safely in 49 of his last 62 starts (70-for-225, .311, 7 HRs), raising his batting average from .270 on 6/20 to .295.
- Batted only .227 (20-88) in June, but had six home runs and 15 RBIs in that month.
- Batted .321 (26-for-81) in August and .280 (26-for-93) in September.
- Had a career-high 10-game hitting streak (15-for-37, .405, 2 HR), 6/22 to 7/2.
- Hit two home runs on 4/6 vs. CHI, including his first career grand slam (off Brian Williams). Also collected a career-best five RBIs that game.
- Garnered three hits on 5/9 at SF.
- Homered twice on 6/6 vs. KC.
- Enjoyed a spectacular game 6/24 vs. LA, homering (#12), throwing a runner out at the plate, tying the game with a two-out hit in 11th and making a diving catch in 12th.
- Suffered a sprained left ankle on 7/7 vs. SF and was on the disabled list from 7/8 to 7/27. Missed 15 games, but went 2-for-4 with a double in his first game off the DL on 7/27 vs. ARI.
- Drove home the game-winning run in 11th inning on 8/7 vs. FLA.
- Had a career-high four hits on 8/13 at MIL.
- Walked career-high four times 8/18 vs. PHI and tied the game with a two-run single in eighth inning.

- Sparked a win on 9/2 vs. NY with a leadoff double in the ninth inning.
- His pinch double delivered the winning run in a 7-6 victory vs. CHI on 9/16.

2000 POSTSEASON – Received his first taste of postseason competition by playing in seven of the Cardinals' eight contests...batted .278 (5-for-18) with one RBI and two stolen bases overall...went just 1-for-6 in the Division Series vs. the Braves, but went 4-for-12 in the League Championship Series vs. NY...had a pinch double in Game 2 of the LCS...collected two hits and scored a run in Game 3.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1995 (College) – Named to Baseball America's and Collegiate Baseball's Freshman All-America teams and to the College World Series All-Tournament team...helped Florida State to a 53-16 record and an Atlantic Coast Conference tournament title...ranked second on the Seminoles in home runs (17) and RBIs (63) while hitting .325, third among Florida State's regulars...tied a College World Series record for most homers in a Series, four, and became the first player to hit three home runs in a Series game, 6/6 vs. USC, a 16-11 loss that eliminated Florida State from the tournament...also homered against Oklahoma, 6/2.

BORN: 6/27/70 at Fullerton, California

OPENING DAY AGE: 30 (Turns 31 on June 27) M.L. SERVICE: 7.027

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Anaheim Angels in a trade for pitcher Kent Bottenfield and infielder Adam Kennedy, March 23, 2000.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2006, with a club option for 2007.

2000 SEASON:

- In his first year in a Cardinals uniform, established career highs and paced the club in home runs (42), RBIs (108), runs scored (129), walks (103) and strikeouts (167).
- Finished fourth in voting for the National League's Most Valuable Player.
- Was named to the Associated Press All-Star team and was chosen the Cardinals' Man of the Year by the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA.

- Was selected to his second All-Star team (1995) and started in CF for the N.L.
- Became just the fourth player and first outfielder in Cardinals history to hit 40 home runs in a season. His 42 homers tied Rogers Hornsby (1922) for fourth on St. Louis' all-time single-season list.
- Set a Cardinals record for HRs by an outfielder. Hit 41 of his homers as a CF and one while he was playing first base. Bested Ray Lankford's 1997 club record of 31 HRs by a CF.
- Led the Cardinals with 19 game-winning RBIs and tied for first in multi-homer games (4).
- His 167 strikeouts established a club record and ranked third in the N.L in 2000. They were the most ever by an N.L. lefthanded batter.
- Reached base safely via hit, walk or HBP in 124 of his 144 starts. He and teammate Mark McGwire homered in the same game nine times, including three times back-to-back.
- Was just one homer shy of the club mark for a lefthanded batter (Johnny Mize - 43 in 1940).
- Had 16 RBIs in his last 20 starts and hit 10 HRs in his last 35 starts.
- Led the club with 19 RBIs in September and tied for the team lead with six homers.
- Batted .324 (11-for-34) with two homers and seven RBIs in nine games vs. SF.
- Four of his 10 hits vs. NY went for HRs, including two game-winners (9/1 & 9/3).
- Matched a career best with a 4-for-4 game 4/10 at HOU.
- Tied a club record (Chick Hafey - 1929) on 4/12 by reaching base safely in his 12th consecutive plate appearance. Hit safely in nine-straight at-bats, just one shy of the franchise record, before being fanned in the seventh inning.
- Had a nine-game hitting streak, 4/5-13.
- Homered in three-straight games, 4/11-13.
- On 5/12, signed a six-year contract extension, with a club option for 2007.
- Pounded a 442-foot homer into the upper deck at PHI on 5/16. It marked only the 16th time in Veterans Stadium history that a player hit one into the RF upper deck.
- Scored four runs and batted .364 (4-for-11) in three-game series vs. CLE on 6/2-4.
- Smacked two solo homers on 6/16 at LA (#19 & 20) for his ninth career multi-homer contest.
- Hit HR #21 on 6/20 vs. SF and made a spectacular catch to rob E. Burks of a HR.
- Enjoyed a two-HR game (#23 & 24) 7/4 vs. CIN with four RBIs.
- Hit 30th HR on 7/29 at NY, becoming just the fourth Cardinal player to hit 30 HRs in his first full season with the club (Dick Allen-1970, Ron Gant-1996, Mark McGwire-1998).
- Hit just .188 in August and batted .232 (41-177) from 7/6 to 9/2 (while Mark McGwire was out of the lineup with patella tendinitis).
- Parked a pair of HRs (#31 & 32) on 8/2 at MON, his third multi-HR game of 2000 and 11th career. Also matched a career high with five RBIs (third time).
- Posted his fourth multi-homer (12th career) on 8/24 at ATL, with four RBIs.
- Delivered a pair of game-ending HRs in 9/1-3 weekend series vs. NY, including a solo blast in the 11th inning on 9/3. He won 9/1 game with a ninth-inning solo HR.
- His 40th homer (39th as outfielder) was also his 100th RBI on 9/15, making him just the second Cards outfielder to hit 39 HRs (Stan Musial - 39 in 1948).

2000 POSTSEASON – Enjoyed a fine postseason and was instrumental in leading the Cardinals to a three-game sweep over the Braves in the Division Series...overall, hit safely in six of eight postseason games and led the club in most statistical categories, including batting average (.361), hits (13), doubles (5), homers (3) and RBIs (12)...despite not playing in the World Series, Jim still tied the Yankees' David Justice for the 2000 postseason lead in RBIs and he led all postseason batsmen with a .750 slugging percentage...had there been a Division Series MVP award, Jim would have been a good candidate, as he batted .571 (8-for-14) with four doubles, two homers and seven RBIs...went 3-for-5 with a home run, two runs and three RBIs in Game 1 of the D.S., his first career postseason contest...clubbed his first postseason HR off Greg Maddux leading off the fourth inning...also homered off Kevin Millwood in Game 3...batted .227 (5-for-22) in the League Championship Series vs. the Mets...homered off Bobby J. Jones in Game 4.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1988 – Was selected by California in the seventh round of the June draft and appeared in 35 games for Rookie-level Bend in his first professional season.

1989 – Appeared in only 31 games for Quad City (A), the result of a season-ending shoulder injury that forced him onto DL 6/19 until the completion of the campaign.

1990 – Played 91 games at Palm Springs (A) and batted .293 with 56 RBIs...hit .469 (30-for-64) in July and won California League "Player of the Week" honors for 7/15-21, when he hit .571 (12-for-21).

1991 – Played second season at Palm Springs, hitting .294 in 60 games, with two home runs and 27 RBIs...was placed on disabled list twice during season (4/10-5/7) with contusion of right knee and 7/23 until season's end with a strained right knee.

1992 – Began the campaign at Midland (AA), hitting .313 (77-for-246) with eight home runs and 32 RBIs in 70 games...connected for three solo home runs vs. Wichita on 7/7...registered 19 multiple-hit games, including two four-hit contests and one five-hit performance...the five-hit game was the last in a season-best 12-game hitting streak...was promoted to Triple-A Edmonton on 7/14, and posted a .299 batting average with six home runs and 36 RBIs in 50 games.

1993 – Appeared as a member of California's 40-man roster in spring training...in eight spring contests, batted .429...was returned to minor league camp for reassignment, 3/19 and optioned to Triple-A Vancouver the same day...spent entire the campaign with the Canadians, batting .315 with 28 doubles, four triples, nine home runs and 74 RBIs in 95 games.. led the club in batting and RBIs and ranked second in doubles and triples...was 6-for-6 with three runs, a double and two RBIs 4/22 vs. Calgary...also posted a pair of five-hit games (6/17 & 8/12)...was recalled from Vancouver on 9/7 and made his M.L. debut 9/9 at DET as left fielder...in his first M.L. at-bat, struck out swinging against Bill Gullickson and finished the game 0-for-4...recorded his first career outfield assist by throwing out Tony Phillips at home plate in first inning on his first M.L. chance...collected first big-league hit, a pinch-hit double off Toronto's Duane Ward, 9/10 at SkyDome...collected first career RBI in seventh inning off Seattle's Roger Salkeld, 9/14 at Kingdome.

- Snapped a season-high four-game losing streak, which ran from 7/25 to 8/16, when he downed LA on 8/21. Nearly went the distance, allowing one run on eight hits and two walks in 8.2 innings of work in a 4-1 final.
- Allowed six unearned runs in a 9/16 loss to the Mets.
- Tossed his second complete game of the season on 9/21 vs. FLA (10-3). Allowed three runs (two earned) on seven hits, including a solo HR to Derrek Lee in the seventh.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1994 - Started his professional career in Double-A Wichita and made his debut 6/25 vs. San Antonio...allowed one run and two hits in 2.0 innings of work...struck out all five batters he faced on 6/27 at Midland, his second pro appearance, earning his first save...started a stretch of 15 outings (19.0 IP) where he was unscored upon, walking just four and striking out 30...earned one win and eight saves in those games...was promoted to Las Vegas (AAA) on 8/20 and made his first appearance the following night...went four outings without allowing a run or hit...combined to go 1-0 with 11 saves and a 1.88 ERA in his first pro season...was voted the third-best major league prospect in the Texas League by Baseball America.

1995 - Started the season at Triple-A Las Vegas before being summoned by the Padres on 5/8...made his major league debut and earned his first big league victory 5/9 vs. LA...pitched 1.0 inning, retiring all three batters faced, including one via strikeout...was 3-0 with a 1.23 ERA in his first six N.L. appearances, allowing just one earned run and five hits in 7.1 innings of work...returned to Las Vegas 6/12 after six rough outings, allowing 10 earned runs in 4.2 IP...made several trips between Triple-A and the Padres in August and September.

1996 - Joined Padres from Las Vegas on 8/1 and appeared in six games before being optioned back to Las Vegas 8/24...was recalled to majors 9/7 and stayed with the big league club through the end of the year...was not on San Diego's playoff roster...picked up the win vs. PIT on 9/9 in first appearance after return from AAA...led Las Vegas pitchers in saves (21) and finished second in games (42)...was selected as Pacific Coast League's #10 Major League prospect in vote taken among league managers...was chosen by Baseball America as having the best fastball in the PCL.

1997 - Was traded to the Florida Marlins during the 1996-97 off-season and then was dealt to the Expos during spring training 1997...played a large role in the Expos' starting rotation after starting the season as Ugueth Urbina's set-up man...pitched 5.0 innings or more on 20 occasions and 6.0 or more 16 times...recorded eight wins after collecting a total of four in his two previous seasons combined...struck out 136 batters, 121 of them in 149.2 IP as a starter...showed his immediate potential by striking out five batters in 2.0 innings of work in his Expos' debut 4/4 vs. COL...his powerful arm prompted manager Felipe Alou to move him to the starting rotation, where Dustin found himself in the starting role for the first time since his sophomore and junior seasons at Kent State University (1992-93)...made 28 starts spanning 32 appearances...homered in his first major league plate appearance on 4/16 at HOU, taking a 1-1 offering from Shane Reynolds over the left-field fence...became the first pitcher to homer in his first appearance since Cubs' Jim Bullinger on 6/8/92 (against Rheal Cormier and the Cardinals), and became just the 13th pitcher in history to do it...made his starting debut in his 39th career major league game and defeated CHI 5-1 at Montreal on 4/22, holding Cubs to one run in 5.0 IP...won four straight games from 7/31 to 8/16...was 5-1, 2.94 ERA (22 ER-67.1 IP) in 11 starts between the All-Star Game and 9/13...the bullpen blew three winning decisions in his last six starts...his first career complete game was a shutout, as he held the Marlins to five hits on 7/15 at FLA...struck out a career-high nine and was working on 13 days rest due to a strained muscle in his back...was sidelined for 10 days after his 8/27 start with a strained rhomboid muscle in his upper back...beat the Dodgers on 8/6 at Montreal, tying a career high with nine strikeouts...won his last game on 8/16 and went winless over his last seven starts of the season despite allowing just 14 earned runs in 40.1 IP (3.12 ERA) during that span...had a 29.0-inning scoreless streak from 8/16 to 9/13, the longest in the National League.

1998 - Finished the 1998 campaign seventh in the N.L. in ERA (3.13) and sixth in opponents batting average (.234)...began the season as the second man in the Expos' rotation behind Carlos Perez...was quickly regarded as the club's most consistent pitcher, stepping up and leading the Expos' staff in wins (14)...recorded a decision in 25 of his 30 starts...was 2-8 when opponents scored first and 12-3 when the Expos scored first...kept his ERA below 3.00 well into the month of September before surrendering four earned runs in 5.1 IP on 9/20 at PHI...the Philly start snapped a run of 10 consecutive starts of pitching 7.0 innings or more from 7/29 to 9/14...tossed the second complete game of his career, allowing a career-low two hits in a 4-1 win on 5/3 vs. ARI; allowed last hit in the fourth and retired 17 of the last 18 batters he faced, including the last 13...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/17 (retroactive to 5/15) with a strained intercostal muscle in the left side of his back...was activated 5/30 after spending 22 days on the DL....went 3-4 with 3.94 ERA in eight starts before the injury and 11-7, 2.87 ERA (45 ER-141.1 IP) in 22 starts (24 games) afterwards...took charge as the ace of the staff in the second half, going 8-4 with a 2.95 ERA (34 ER/103.2 IP) in 16 starts...won four straight decisions spanning five starts from 7/29 to 8/19, allowing five earned runs in 29.2 IP for a 2.12 ERA...was 7-2 in his last 12 starts, allowing 22 ER in 81.2 IP (2.42 ERA)...picked up the win on 8/29 at SD, allowing one run on just three hits in 7.2 innings of work...helped his own cause by hitting his second career home run in the third- a solo shot off Sterling Hitchcock.

1999 - Was tabbed as Expos' No. 1 starter at spring training and began the season where he left off the previous campaign by winning his first two decisions...however, his season was highlighted by a series of peaks and valleys...finished the year tied for fourth in the N.L. with 14 losses...the workhorse of the rotation led the staff in innings pitched (216.1) and starts (34), setting career-highs in both categories...a major contributor to his losing slate was his 2-9 record and 5.49 ERA at home compared to his 7-5, 3.09 mark on the road...was the Expos' opening night starter at PIT on 4/5...lost 10 of 11 decisions from 4/23 to 7/27, including losing seven straight from 5/14 to 7/27...his record dropped below .500 (3-4) for good on 5/14, after a 5-3 loss at PIT..was fortunate to come out with a ND on 5/19 vs. PHI after allowing a career-high nine runs on seven hits in 4.1 innings of work, tying an Expos record for most runs allowed in a game...surrendered a career-high 12 hits on 6/12 vs.TB...showed the make-up of an ace as he turned his fortune around in the second half...allowed just 24 earned runs in his last 91.0 innings of work (2.37 ERA), spanning 13 starts after 8/2, to lower his ERA from 5.53 to 4.20...was 6-7, with an impressive 2.95 ERA (36 ER-109. 2IP) in 16 starts during the second half...won his first four starts in September, tying a career-best winning streak for the third time...snapped his seven-game losing run (which spanned 14 starts) on 8/2 at CHI...had a 6.33 ERA (56 ER-79.2 IP) in those 14 outings...was 4-2 with a 2.44 ERA in September...collected his second straight win on 9/7 vs. COL after pitching 8.0

innings and striking out a season-high eight...underwent laser eye surgery on 8/25...the surgery was performed by Dr. A. Gordon Balazsi at the Rene Laennec Medical Clinic in Montreal...collected fourth straight wins and final "W" of the season with a 4-3 win on 9/18 at ATL vs. Greg Maddux, allowing three runs on 11 hits and two walks in 8.0 innings of work.

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the San Diego Padres with minor league 2B Nate Tebbs in a trade for RHP Heathcliff Slocumb and minor league OF Ben Johnson, July 31, 2000.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002.

2000 SEASON:

- Split the season between San Diego and St. Louis. Was acquired by the Cardinals in a trading-deadline deal on 7/31.
- Played through back problems most of the season and was limited to just 76 games.
- Batted .275 in 17 games for the Cardinals and .251 in 59 games for the Padres.
- Threw out 30% (24-for-80) of attempted base stealers on the year, including 28% (7-for-25) for St. Louis.

- Clubbed a seventh-inning, two-run pinch-homer off John Burkett at ATL on 5/20.
- Hit safely in a season-high nine straight games, 5/24 to 6/5. Batted .448 (13-for-29) during the streak.
- Suffered a sprained lower back on 8/27 at ATL and missed 22 games before returning to action on 9/21.
- Made five starts after his back injury and went 6-for-18 (.333) with two doubles, a homer and six RBIs.
- Went 2-for-3 with an RBI and two runs scored in a 6-5 win at CHI on 9/23.
- Hit his third homer of the year and his first as a Cardinal with a three-run shot on 9/30 vs. CIN.

2000 POSTSEASON – Made his second postseason appearance and started behind the plate in all eight of the Cardinals' games...posted a .259 batting average with six runs scored, a home run and two RBIs...threw out four of seven (57%) would-be base stealers...clubbed his first career postseason homer off the Braves' Tom Glavine in Game 2 of the Division Series.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1985 – Was signed by the Dodgers as a non-drafted free agent...began his professional career at Rookie-level Bradenton, where he was an infielder and batted .245 in 22 games.

1986 – Converted to catcher and tied for the Gulf Coast League lead with three double plays...ranked third in the circuit in batting (.312) and seventh in RBIs (31).

1987 – Played at Class-A Bakersfield and stole a career-best eight bases.

1988 – Named Bakersfield's team MVP after batting .309 with 15 doubles, five home runs and 52 RBIs in 92 games...was voted the California League's Best Defensive Catcher by league managers and coaches...his .309 batting average was tops among Cal League backstops...got his first taste of Triple-A ball by playing three games at Albuquerque.

1989 – Moved up to San Antonio (AA) and was named to the Texas League All-Star team...led the league's catchers with 737 total chances...batted .300 with eight homers in 99 games (after hitting just nine in his previous four seasons)...earned another late-season promotion to Albuquerque (AAA).

1990 – Opened the season at Albuquerque...was promoted to Los Angeles and made his major league debut on 4/20 vs. HOU...went 1-for-3 as the Dodgers' starting catcher and stroked his first big league hit (a double) off Jim Deshaies in his second at-bat...collected his first RBI in his next start on 4/28 vs. CHI...batted .315 in 52 games at Albuquerque and .200 in 10 games for Los Angeles.

1991 – Again opened the year at Albuquerque and posted a fine season...batted .345 with eight homers in just 95 games and was named to Baseball America's Pacific Coast League All-Star team...led all Dodgers farmhands and all Triple-A catchers with his .345 batting average, but fell one at-bat short of qualifying for the PCL batting crown...was presented with the Jack Perconte Award for inspirational play by the Albuquerque Dukes' front office...nailed 41 of 99 would-be base stealers...his 684 total chances paced all PCL catchers...played 15 games for the Dodgers and batted .215.

1992 – Spent his first full season in the majors and made 47 starts behind the plate...played in 69 games overall and batted .260 with three homers and 17 RBIs...belted his first major league homer off Kyle Abbott, 7/18 at PHI...posted two eight-game hitting streaks, 6/6-25 (.435, 10-for-23) and 7/29-8/10 (.440, 11-for-25)...made just one error in his final 35 games.

1993 – Played in 50 games for the Dodgers and batted .253...his 7/18 homer off Expos' Jeff Shaw was his first off a righthander...had postseason arthroscopic surgery to repair a partial tear to the labrum in right shoulder

1994 – Batted .219 in 32 games for the Dodgers...hit .300 (9-for-30) against righthanders and just .147 (5-for-34) against lefties...threw out seven of 21 (33%) attempted base stealers, including Mets' Jose Vizcaino three times at second base.

1995 – Nailed 48% (11-for-23) of would-be base thieves...had a career-best five RBIs at CIN on 7/8, when he went 3-for-5 with two doubles and homer...slugged his first career pinch home run, a three-run shot off Dave Lieber, on 9/2 vs. MON...underwent postseason surgery on his right knee.

1996 – Was on the Dodgers' Opening Day roster for the fifth straight season...appeared in 13 games before going on the 15-day disabled list on 5/17 with a strained lower back...was reinstated on 6/15 and optioned to Albuquerque (AAA)...played in 66 games at Triple-A, starting 50 at catcher.

1997 – Spent his first season with the Padres and batted a career-best .313 in 50 games...pounded his second career pinch-homer 5/19 at CIN off Stan Belinda...hit safely in a career-best 10 straight games, 6/24 to 8/25...was on the 15-day disabled list with a strained right calf, 7/13 to 8/15, and made injury rehablitiation assignments to Rancho Cucamongo (A) and Las Vegas (AAA).

1998 – Saw his first action as an everyday catcher and helped the Padres to the National League pennant...established career highs in games played (129), at-bats (390), hits (102), doubles (15) home runs (9) and RBIs (52)...made a career-high 102 starts behind the plate and threw out 19 of 77 (25%) base stealers...hit safely in the first seven games of the season...became the 19th player ever to reach the left field second deck at Qualcomm Stadium, with a 414-foot homer off the Rockies' Jamey Wright on 7/3...clubbed his first career "walk-off" homer when he took the Marlins' Justin Speier deep with one out in the 13th inning for a 6-3 win on 8/7 at SD. 1998 POSTSEASON: Batted .325 (13-for-40) in the postseason and led the Padres with a .417 (5-for-12) average in the Division Series vs. HOU...went 2-for-4 in both Games 1 and 2 at the Astrodome...tied Steve Finley for the Padres' team lead with a .333 (6-for-18) batting average in the NLCS vs. ATL...went 2-for-4 in the series opener...went 2-for-10 in the World Series vs. NY...had a pinch-single in Game 2 and posted a 1-for-2 effort in Game 3.

1999 – Missed the entire season due to a ruptured left Achilles' tendon suffered in a 3/17 spring training game against the White Sox...underwent surgery to repair the tendon on 3/18...returned from the injury and appeared in 16 games for Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League...made four starts behind the plate for the Leones and batted .213 (13-for-61) with four RBIs.

MISC: Followed Bo Diaz as only the second Venezuelan catcher in major league history...graduated in 1985 from Escuela Tecnica Industrial in San Felix, Bolivar, VZ, where he played baseball and volleyball and also ran track...was a high school javelin champion...he and his wife, Jaqueline, have one son, Carlos Jr. (6/29/86).

FULL NAME: Darryl Andrew Kile

HEIGHT: 6-5 WEIGHT: 212 BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: 12-2-68 at Garden Grove, California.

OPENING DAY AGE: 32 M.L. SERVICE: 9.112

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from Colorado Rockies with pitchers Dave Veres and Luther Hackman in exchange for pitchers Jose Jimenez, Manny Aybar and Rick Croushore and infielder Brent Butler, November 16, 1999.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2003, with a club option for 2004.

2000 SEASON:

- Made a strong bid for Cy Young honors in his first season with the Cardinals, establishing himself as one of the majors top starting pitchers in 2000. He and Braves' Tom Glavine (21 wins) finished as the NL's lone 20-game winners.
- Capped off brilliant season with his career-high 20th win in final start of the season, 9/28 at SD. Darryl became the first Cardinals pitcher in 15 years to win 20 games. Joaquin Andujar & John Tudor each won 21 games for the Cardinals in 1985.
- Won each of his final six decisions and seven of his last eight.
- Owned a 2.82 ERA (51.0 IP/ 16 er) and allowed just 12 walks and four home runs during his season ending six-game winning streak.
- His strikeout-to-walk ratio for the year was better than 3:1 (192-58) and he worked seven or more innings 21 times while averaging 6.2 IP per start.
- Ranked among NL leaders in wins (20), strikeouts (192), day ERA (2.57), complete games (5), innings pitched (232.1), home runs allowed (33) and hit batsmen (13).
- 53 of his 101 earned runs allowed came in his nine losses (9.35 ERA; 51.0 IP). His ERA in his other 25 games was 2.38 (48 ER/ 181.1 IP).
- His season ending ERA stood at 3.91, but if you took out his dismal performance from 4/13 at COL (1.2 IP/8 ER) it reduced down to 3.63.
- His walk total (58) was the lowest of his career, and he surpassed the 200 innings pitched marker for the fourth time in five years.
- Fashioned a season best string of 24.2-straight walkless innings from 8/22 to 9/7.
- Was 11-5, 3.67 ERA in his18 starts at home. The 11 wins at Busch tied Darryl for the 2nd-highest single-season total in stadium history.
- Had his shortest outing (6.0 IP) in over a month on 9/12 at PIT after waiting out a 1:44 rain delay, but earned his 18th win of the year. Allowed five hits and one unearned run in the Cards 11-1 win.
- Fanned 10 batters in 7.0 innings work on 9/7, as he posted his 17th win with a 6-1 decision over Montreal in which he allowed just five hits and walked one.
- Posted his team-leading fifth CG of the season on 9/2 vs NY, with a 2-1 win. Allowed just five hits and no walks in his 26th-career CG.
- Threw his fourth complete game of the year in a 7-2 win at ATL on 8/27. Allowed two runs on eight hits, with no walks and five strikeouts. Gave up three straight hits (and two runs) in the third inning before retiring 21 of the last 25 batters.
- Allowed three hits through four shutout innings vs. PIT on 8/22, but ended with six runs allowed on a season-high 11 hits in 6.2 innings of work for his ninth loss, 6-2. Allowed a two-run HR to B.Giles in the 5th and two more homers in a four-run 7th.
- Collected his third complete game 8/16 at CHI, allowing one run on six hits. His 6th-inning strikeout of Sammy Sosa was No. 1400 for Darryl's career. Allowed the Cubs' lone run in the 7th inning, but then retired the final eight batters.
- Was a 6-2 loser 8/11 at MIL, giving him back-to-back losses for just the second time.

- He had a two-game winning streak ended on 8/6 in a 6-4 loss to the Braves.
- Tossed his eighth career shutout and 23rd career complete game with a 4-0 blanking of the Expos on 7/31 at Olympic Stadium. Threw just 106 pitches and allowed six hits, as only one Expo batter reached third base on the night.
- Facing the Diamondbacks for the 2nd time in six days, earned his 12th win with an 8-4 victory on 7/26 at STL, allowing just one earned run in 8.0+ innings pitched.
- Matched up against Randy Johnson in an outstanding pitching dual at Bank One Ballpark on 7/20, but did not earn a decision in the 3-2 loss. Darryl faced the minimum number of batters and allowed just one hit through five innings before giving up a one-out solo HR to Hanley Frias in the sixth to knot the score at 1-1. Went eight innings and allowed just the one run on three hits, with nine strikeouts and no walks, as Tony Womack hit a two-run homer in the ninth off Dave Veres for the 3-2 decision. Darryl collected a base hit and walk off Johnson.
- Suffered his sixth loss and went just 4.2 innings at Comiskey Park on 7/15, as the Pale Hose posted a 15-7 win. Darryl allowed six runs on eight hits in a game that the Sox led 6-4 before a nine-run seventh inning.
- Was selected for the third time in his career to the NL All-Star team and posted a two-inning, two-hit, scoreless stint. Was the only NL hurler to go two innings.
- Had no-decision on 7/7 vs. SF, allowing 2 runs in 7.0 IP in a 4-2 loss to the Giants.
- Lost his fifth game of the year 7/2 vs. HOU. Struck out 10 batters for the fourth time, but allowed five runs on seven hits (3 HRs) in seven innnings in a 6-3 loss.
- Won a 4-3 decision at CIN on 6/27. Allowed three runs on eight hits, with no walks and five Ks in 7.1 IP. Allowed a pair of HRs to K.Griffey for Cincy's only runs.
- His start vs. LA on 6/24 was cut short due to rain. Pitched two scoreless innings in a game that had three delays totaling nearly five hours (a 6-1 Cards win).
- Suffered his fourth loss on 6/18 at LA, 6-3. Allowed six runs in six innings, including home runs to Eric Karros and Adrian Beltre.
- Won his 3rd-straight start 6/13 at SD with an 8-3 win over the Padres. He allowed nine hits and three walks, but the Padres stranded 10 runners.
- Tossed the 22nd complete game of his career in a 4-2 win over the Royals on 6/7 at Busch Stadium. Fanned 10 in the complete-game perfomance. Allowed just one run on four hits through the first 8.0 innings.
- Posted his 8th win of the year and 100th of his career with an eight-inning, three-hit performance against CLE on 6/2. Allowed one run (solo HR by Jim Thome) on the night in a 5-1 win. The win was his 1st in seven interleague decisions.
- Was victimized by three NY Mets home runs in 6-2 loss on 5/28. Worked seven innings and allowed five runs on seven hits.
- Won his seventh game on 5/23 vs. FLA, 10-3. Went eight innings, allowed two runs and had a season-high 11 strikeouts. Also collected his first base hit of the year with a two-run single off Ryan Dempster.
- Had a no-decision 5/17 at PHI. Went 6.0 inn. and allowed four runs and 10 hits in a Cards 5-4 loss.
- Had his four-game winning streak snapped on 5/12 vs. LA, losing 13-0. Surrendered five runs in the first inning and another in the second, as the Cards were shut out for the first time in 2000.
- Fired 6.2 innings of shutout ball in his 5/6 start at CIN. Collected his fourth-straight win and allowed five hits and two walks while striking out five.
- Earned his fifth win 4/30 at PHI vs. Curt Schilling. Went seven innings and allowed three runs on seven hits in a 4-3 Cards' win.
- Notched his fourth win 4/25 vs. MIL. Allowed two runs on six hits in seven innings and struck out 10 batters while walking just one.
- Posted a 4-3 win over SD on 4/19 at Busch Stadium. Worked 8.0 innings and allowed three runs on five hits while striking out seven and walking none. He blanked the Padres on just two hits over the first six innings.
- Suffered his first loss of the year and went just 1.2 innings while allowing 11 runs (8 ER) 4/13 at COL. Allowed eight hits and hit three batters in the 12-6 loss.
- Allowed four runs on six hits in 5.1 innings work 4/8 vs. the Brewers, but gained his 2nd win, 10-8. He fanned six, but hit two batters and walked three.
- Made his third-straight Opening Day start on 4/3 vs. the Cubs and posted a 7-1 win. Went 6.0 innings & allowed just 2 hits with 4 strikeouts and 2 walks.

2000 POSTSEASON – Was Game 2 starter vs. ATL in Division Series and turned in a 10-4 win, allowing just two runs on four hits in his 7.0 innings of work...dropped both of his starts in NLCS vs. NY Mets...was a 6-2 loser to Mike Hampton in Game

1, allowing three runs in his 7.0 IP...was also saddled with a loss in Game 4 start, as Mets touched him up for seven runs in just 3.0 IP...four of the runs allowed came in his first inning of work when he allowed four consecutive doubles to begin the inning.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1988 – Signed with Houston on 5/15 after the Astros drafted him in the 30th round of the June 1997 draft...began his professional career in the Gulf Coast League.

1989 – Split his first full professional season between Columbus (AA) and Tucson (AAA)...won 11 of his final 15 decisions at Columbus to earn late-season promotion to Tucson.

1990 – Spent the entire season at Triple-A Tucson.

1991 – Made the major league club as a non-roster invitee out of spring training...made his big-league debut on Opening Day at CIN, tossing one scoreless inning of relief...first start came 4/24 vs. CIN, a six-inning, no-hit, no decision effort...earned his first victory in his fifth start, 6/23 at PHI...compiled a 7-9 record with a 3.07 ERA in 22 starts while going 0-2 with a 6.93 ERA in 15 relief appearances.

1992 – Split the season between Houston and Tucson, posting a combined 9-11 record...went 5-10 for the Astros, who scored a total of only seven runs in his 10 losses...tossed the first complete game of his career in a 1-0 loss 4/29 at NY...was optioned to Tucson on 6/12 for a nine-game stint...returned to the majors 8/9...struck out 11 batters on two occasions, 4/29 at NY and 10/2 vs. LA.

1993 – Went 15-8 with a 3.51 ERA for the Astros...pitched the ninth no-hitter in club history 9/8 vs. NY, facing just 28 batters in the 7-1 victory...was Houston's lone representative at the All-Star Game in Baltimore...led the league with 15 hit batsmen...made six relief appearances in his first 11 outings before moving into the rotation to stay on 6/8 at PHI...picked up N.L. Pitcher of the Month award for June, winning all four starts and one relief appearance with an ERA of 1.16...won nine straight decisions between 5/29 and 7/31...earned his first major league shutout and hit his first home run in the same game, a 6-0 victory 7/3 vs. STL.

1994 – Finished second on the Astros' staff with nine wins...led the N.L. with 82 walks, tied for the league lead with 10 wild pitches and was third in hit batsmen with nine...worked six or more innings in 16 of his 24 starts and allowed three or fewer earned runs in 15 of the 24.

1995 – Went 4-12 in 21 starts before being optioned to Tucson on 8/12...was recalled on 9/8 after four starts in the minors...pitched in three games after his recall, all in relief.

1996 – Reached the 200-strikeout plateau for the first time in his career while compiling a 12-11 record...became the first Houston pitcher to fan 200 or more (219) in a season since Nolan Ryan in 1988...worked six or more innings in 26 of his 33 starts...tied for the league lead with 16 hit batsmen, including an N.L. record-tying four hit batters in a 2-0 loss 6/2 at STL...appeared twice in relief, 4/14 at CIN and 8/19 vs. PIT...made two appearances as a pinch runner.

1997 – Finished fifth in the National League Cy Young Award balloting and made his second All-Star appearance while setting career bests in wins (19), complete games (6), shutouts (4), innings pitched (255.2) and ERA (2.57)...compiled a 5-0 record with a 1.20 ERA in six May outings and was 6-0 with a 1.59 ERA in July...earned his second career N.L. Pitcher of the Month honors for July output...the 19 victories tied him with Greg Maddux (ATL) and Shawn Estes (SF) for second in the league and he finished third behind Pedro Martinez (MON) and Maddux in ERA...finished fifth in the N.L. in strikeouts (205) and opponents batting average (.225)...worked seven or more innings in 31 of 34 starts and allowed three or fewer earned runs in 27 of those games...went 16-1 with a 2.07 ERA (169.2 IP, 39 ER) over a string of 22 starts from 5/4 to 8/22...won a career-high 10 straight decisions (13 starts) from 6/20 to 8/22...tossed a career-best four shutouts and combined on two others...fanned a then-career-high 13 batters in 8.0 innings 9/13 vs. LA. 1997 POSTSEASON: Was Houston's starting pitcher in Game 1 of the Division Series vs. ATL...lost that game 2-1 to Greg Maddux, despite allowing just two runs and two hits over 7.0 innings.

1998 – Signed with Colorado in the off-season and worked a club-record 230.1 innings and tied the team record with a personal-best 35 starts...it marked the third straight year he had made 30 or more starts and worked 200 or more innings...also set team records for strikeouts in a game (14), consecutive scoreless innings by a starter (17.0, broke his own record in '99), most innings pitched in one start (10.0) and fewest hits allowed in a complete game (2)...tied club marks for hitless innings to start a game (5.1) and longest losing streak (eight games)...went 6.0 or more innings in 29 of 35 starts and lasted at least seven innings 19 times...went exactly two months (11 games/10 starts) between victories, from 5/10 to 7/10...allowed two or fewer runs in five of his 10 starts over that span and the Rockies were held to one run in four of his losses and were shut out in another...went 6-3 with a 3.60 ERA, 16 walks and 67 strikeouts in his final 10 games...started on three days rest twice in 1998, losing both games and allowing 13 runs over 9.0 innings...tied Tom Glavine for the league high among pitchers and set a Colorado single-season record with 18 hits...made third pinch-running appearance of his career (two in 1996)...earned first victory in a Colorado uniform on Opening Day (3/31) at ARI with 7.0 innings of one-run ball...picked up a career-high three hits 4/10 vs. CIN...hurled complete-game shutout 4/30 at NY, fanning pinch-hitter Craig Paquette in the sixth for his 1000th career strikeout…tossed 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings 4/30 to 5/10…left 5/5 game at PHI after taking a line drive off the right knee, but made his next start 5/10 at MON…made first relief appearance since 1996 at SD on 7/5…first win at Coors Field as a Rockie came in his first start after the All-Star break, an 11-2 victory over SF on 7/10…matched his career low for innings pitched in a start 8/4 at PIT, surrendering seven runs in 1.2 innings…set the club record for strikeouts in a game and established a new career high with 14 at MON on 8/20…allowed just a ninth-inning run in a 3-1, two-hit win 9/10 vs. FLA…beat Kevin Brown and the Padres 1-0 with 10.0 innings pitched 9/20 at SD, where he allowed only one runner past first base and retired 19 of the final 20 batters he faced in the victory; Dave Veres pitched a scoreless 11th to preserve the win.

1999 – Went 8-13 in his second season with Colorado...finished the season with 190.2 innings pitched, failing to reach 200 innings for the first time since 1995...issued a career-high and club-record 109 walks, with 35 of those runners (32 percent) coming around to score...went 5-3 with a 7.33 ERA at home, 3-10 with a 5.89 ERA on the road...was 1-0 with a 1.20 ERA in two starts against HOU...made second straight Opening Day start, holding the Padres to two runs in 6.2 innings in Monterrey, Mexico on 4/4...dropped a 2-0 decision to Kevin Brown 4/10 at LA, surrendering two solo home runs in 7.0 innings...allowed two runs on eight hits, one walk and four strikeouts in a complete game win 4/29 at STL, tying Roger Bailey for first on Colorado's all-time complete game list with five...broke his own club record when he compiled a string of 17.2 consecutive scoreless innings pitched from 5/20 to 6/5...extended his Veterans Stadium shutout streak to 13.2 innings with 7.2 scoreless frames 5/30 at PHI...reached the 1,500-inning milestone 6/5 vs. MIL...tossed 7.1 innings and allowed two earned runs in a no-decision 6/11 at TEX, the eighth time in 13 starts that he had allowed three or fewer runs...saw the Rockies relinquish the largest lead in club history when the Cubs rallied from a 9-1 deficit for a 13-12 victory 6/22 at Coors Field; left with a three-run lead after allowing seven runs in 5.2 innings...his outing vs. CHI marked the first time in 232 career starts that he failed to record a strikeout...avenged an earlier loss to Kevin Brown and the Dodgers with an 8-4 victory at home on 7/5...experienced a tired arm in September and was shut down for the remainder of the season after his 9/17 start vs. LA.

MISC: Graduated from Norco (Calif.) High School...attended Chaffey Junior College in California, where he compiled a 10-2 record with 125 strikeouts in 110 innings in 1988...Darryl and his wife Flynn reside in Englewood, Colo., with their twins, son Kannon and daughter Sierra (1/15/97)...sponsors "Kile's Kids" program once a home stand providing kids a chance to meet he and his teammates and watch batting practice and enjoy dinner and a game...was honored by St. Louis Chapter of BBWAA in 2000 with Stockton/Broeg Award for outstanding achievement.

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Montreal Expos with pitcher Dustin Hermanson in a trade for third baseman Fernando Tatis and pitcher Britt Reames, December 14, 2000.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002, with a club option for 2003.

2000 SEASON:

- Posted a fine season for Montreal and finished the year as the major league co-leader in appearances (83) with the White Sox Kelly Wunsch. His 83 games pitched rank second in Expos history (Mike Marshall had 92 in 1973).
- Despite being used sparingly in the final weeks of the season (only five appearances after 9/16), finished with a career-high in games, one more than his 82 in 1999.
- Ranks fifth on the Expos' all-time games list with 269.
- Had 11 saves and a 2.10 ERA (12 ER-51.1 IP) before the All-Star break. Notched three saves, and a 5.81 ERA (20 ER-31.0 IP) after the break.
- Was the Expos' nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award, given annually for excellence in community involvement.
- Appeared in five straight games twice (4/18-22 and 6/1-5).
- Set a club record by saving five games in as many days, 6/1-5.
- Had a career-high 15.2 inning scoreless streak, spanning 16 games, from 4/25 to 5/23. The streak was snapped on 5/27 at SD after allowing one walk before closer Dustin Hermanson allowed a three-run homer in eighth.
- Inherited the closer role after the loss of Ugueth Urbina and Dustin Hermanson's return to the rotation on 5/31. Assumed the role for June, July and August and finished the season with 14 saves, just three shy from tying the club record for most saves by a lefty (17 by Woodie Fryman in 1980).
- Steve was the Expos' first lefty closer since Fryman in 1982.
- Recorded his 14th and final save on 8/26 vs. HOU. Entered the season with just one career rescue.
- Had already appeared in 71 games by the end of August and had an effective 2.95 ERA.
- Blew his fourth and final save of the season on 8/13 vs. COL, allowing two inherited runners to score on a ninth-inning triple by Neifi Perez.

- September was not kind to his ERA, as he surrendered eight runs in his last 8.0 innings of work to raise it to 3.50.
- Was ejected on 9/16 vs. the Mets after arguing a double-play call at first base in the eighth by Ian Lamplugh.
- Took the loss 9/26 at FLA after allowing one run on two hits and a walk in the 10th. It was his fifth straight losing decision.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1993 - Started the season at Burlington in the Appalachian League before being sent to Class A-Watertown on 6/29...led the team with two complete games...tossed a complete-game shutout vs. Auburn on 9/5, his last start of the season.

1994 - Was named the winner of the Bob Feller Award as Cleveland's best minor league pitcher...his 18 wins broke the Columbus (A) record and tied for the most wins in the minors...led the South Atlantic League in wins, innings pitched (185.2), and strikeouts (174) and tied for first in starts (28)...went 10-1 between 6/28 and 8/2.

1995 - Spent the season at Canton-Akron (AA)...was limited to just 14 starts due to a mid-season arm injury that sidelined him for two and a half months...was 1-2 with 3.50 ERA through his first eight starts before going on the disabled list on 5/23 with a sprained UCL ligament in his left elbow...was activated on 8/5...posted a 1-1 record with a 1.02 ERA in six starts after coming off the disabled list...pitched in the Arizona Fall League with the Tempe Rafters, where he pitched exclusively in relief for the first time in his career...was 1-3 with a 4.88 ERA in 14 outings.

1996 - Played the entire season at Canton-Akron (AA)...allowed a team-high 16 homers...made 24 starts in the Eastern League with his only relief appearance coming on 7/28 at Binghamton (4.2 IP)...started the season on the disabled list after a spring training illness (flu and food poisoning)...was activated on 4/20 to start that night vs. Norwich...went 3-1 with a 2.58 ERA over his first eight starts through 5/30...struck out a Canton franchise-record 13 batters on 8/9 vs. New Britain...was voted Eastern League Pitcher of the Week for the effort (8/5-11)...pitched for the Oriente Caribbeans of the Venezuelan Winter League and was 3-0 with a 0.36 ERA in 14 games.

1997 - Opened the year with the Indians, but was traded to the Expos on 8/1...was pitching at Triple-A Buffalo at the time of the trade...pitched a career-long 4.2 innings of relief at SEA on 4/9, allowing two runs on seven hits...made only start of the season on 5/24 vs. BAL, allowing three runs (two earned) on three hits in 1.2 innings...was optioned to Buffalo on 5/25 after 19 appearances, one start, and a 5.01 ERA...was recalled by the Indians for one appearance on 6/29, pitching 3.0 innings of relief against the Yankees, allowing four runs on seven hits...his only wild pitch of the season came on 9/22 at ATL; with the bases loaded in the 11th inning, he struck out Mike Mordecai on a wild pitch, allowing the winning run to score as the Braves celebrated the N.L. East title...collected his first N.L. win on 9/25 vs. FLA, pitching 2.0 scoreless innings of relief in a 3-2 win...with Montreal, made 26 appearances, striking out 20 batters in 26.1 innings...was 0-2, 9.00 ERA in 12 appearances in August and 1-1, 2.92 ERA in 14 appearances in September.

1998 - Was the best revelation on the Expos' staff...was used as a left-handed specialist as well as a set-up man for closer Ugueth Urbina...set the team record for most appearances by a lefthanded reliever (78), surpassing Dan McGinn's 30-year-old mark of 74 in 1969...was optioned on 3/30 to Ottawa (AAA), where he made two appearances before his recall on 4/10 when Mike Maddux was placed on the disabled list...despite missing the first nine games of the season while at Ottawa, finished second in the N.L. with 78 appearances, tied with Robb Nen of the Giants and Chuck McElroy of the Rockies...did not allow an earned run in 15 appearances, spanning 14.2 IP from 5/11 to 6/12...only run allowed came in the 11th inning on 6/7 at TB, costing him a loss...recorded first major league save 8/9 vs. ARI, striking out a then career-high four batters...tossed 2.0 scoreless innings on 9/5 at FLA, striking out four for the second time in his career...retired 16 batters in a row from 9/2 to 9/8 before hitting the Braves' Tony Graffanino with a pitch in the seventh inning on 9/8 at home...could have led the league in appearances if not for suffering a sprained left knee in a fluke accident while warming up in the bullpen at PHI on 9/19...his spike got caught in the wet clay and he lost his balance behind the mound...the injury sidelined him for the last eight games of the season...at the time of the injury, he was leading the N.L. in appearances, three more than Beck...did not allow a run in his last nine appearances, spanning 9.2 innings pitched...allowed four hits while striking out 11 during the run.

1999 - Once again was the work-horse in the Expos' pen as he led the National League with 82 appearances, two more than the Mets' Turk Wendell...eclipsed his own record for most appearances by an Expos' lefty and finished second all-time for games pitched by an Expo in a season, one more than Dale Murray (1976)...the only lefty in the Expos' pen, he struck out 69 batters in 69.2 innings while holding opposing batters to a .218 average...allowed only 12 of 68 (17.6%) inherited runners to score...was not given a save opportunity in 1999...was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 4/11 to 4/26 with inflammation in his left elbow...picked up first win of the season on 5/19 vs. PHI after tossing 2.0 scoreless innings...struck out five batters in 2.2 innings of work on 5/23 vs. MIL, his longest outing of the season...was 2-0 with a 1.59 ERA in 20 appearances in August, allowing three earned runs in 17.0 innings while striking out 26...made history on 8/17 at SF when he became the 14th pitcher in ML history to strikeout the first four batters in an inning; retired Brent Mayne, Shawn Estes (wild pitch), Marvin Benard and Ramon Martinez in the seventh frame...also fanned Barry Bonds and J.T. Snow to bring his K total to a career-high six in 1.2 innings of work, one shy of the club record for consecutive strikeouts held by Steve Renko (1972) and Pedro Martinez (1997)...was the Expos' representative for the Branch Rickey Award, handed out annually to honor MLB's outstanding individual who personifies "Service Above Self."

MISC: Graduated from Lewisburg (Pa.) High School and attended West Virginia University, where he was Atlantic 10 Conference Pitcher of the Year in 1993...enjoys playing basketball and football...spends the off-season as a high school wrestling coach...he and his wife, Martine, were married on 10/16/99 in Motreal.

1992 – An outstanding sophomore season proved that he was on the verge of becoming one of the premier players in the league...led Cards in 13 offensive categories, while posting one of the best all-around seasons by a Cardinal in recent years...hit his 20th homer in the final game of the season, becoming the first Cardinal to post a 20-homer/20-steal season since Lou Brock in '67...his 20-homer total was one off the pace of Stan Musial's club-record 21 for a Cards centerfielder (1952)...also became the first Cardinal left-handed batter since Brock (1967) to hit 20 homers in a season...66 of his 175 hits (38%) went for extra bases...Ray finished among N.L. top-10 in hits (175), total bases (287), multi-hit games (52), doubles (40, T-2nd), stolen bases (42), slugging percentage (.480) and extra-base hits (66)...had a league-high 22 road doubles...surpassed career-highs for BA, runs, hits, doubles, homers, RBI, walks and strikeouts...he, Marquis Grissom and Barry Bonds were only players among N.L. top-10 in both total bases and stolen bases...hit .314 with 16 homers vs. RHP, .255 with four homers vs. lefties...hit .327 with runners in scoring position...led N.L. outfielders in putouts (438) and finished third in fielding percentage (.996) with just two errors in 445 chances...had a club-record 147 strikeouts breaking the previous season-high of 139 set by Jack Clark in 1987...put together a season-high 12-game hit streak, 7/9-24...hit his first career grand slam 9/13 vs. CHI...posted a .309 BA with 13 HRs and 54 RBIs at Busch Stadium...finished 6th in the N.L. in stolen bases; however, was caught stealing a league-leading 24 times...grounded into just five double plays (one every 120 at-bats).

1993 – Wrist and shoulder injuries slowed his season and was never able to regain the form he displayed in '92...had a team-high 81 walks (8th in N.L.) and 111 strikeouts...hit each of his seven HRs vs. RHP...was 3-for-6 (.500) with bases-loaded...had top fielding percentage among Cards' outfielders (min. 100 games) with .978 mark...suffered strained left shoulder on 4/9 and had slight separation of same shoulder after banging into outfield wall on 8/29 at LA...was disabled 6/24 to 7/9 due to injured right wrist...stole 14 bases, but was also caught 14 times.

1994 – Jump-started the season with a lead-off homer in the season opener 4/3 at CIN and carried the Cardinals for the first few months with timely hitting...batted .352 with five homers and 16 RBIs in April...tied for the club high with 19 homers, one under his career high, and was the leader in runs scored (89), walks (58) and total bases (203)...led off five games with home runs and won three games with homers in Cards' final at-bat...hit three lead-off homers in a five-game span 4/26 to 5/3...belted a 400-foot 10th-inning homer to beat PIT, 4-3, on 5/18...recorded 500th career hit 5/21 at FLA with single in the 5th...had a career-best 15-game hitting streak 4/19 to 5/7 and scored in 13-straight games 4/19 to 5/5...had nine-game hitting streak when season ended...matched a career-high with two home runs 6/27 at NY...was the only N.L. batter (min. 200 at-bats) not to ground into a double-play...tied for third in league with 89 runs scored...ranked second in N.L. with 113 strikeouts, one fewer than Reggie Sanders...batted .293 with 16 homers and 48 RBIs vs. righthanders.

1995 – Enjoyed an incredible run over the season's final two months and once again proved to be one of the club's top performers...appeared in a team-high 132 games and paced the club in home runs (25), RBIs (83), doubles (35), extra base hits (62), slugging average (.516), on-base average (.360), walks (63) and stolen bases (24)...became just the seventh Cardinal since 1966, when Busch Stadium opened, to hit 25 or more home runs...batted .308 and finished with 16 home runs at Busch, one short of tying the single-season record for home runs at the stadium...his 25 HRs were the most ever by a Cards' center fielder, surpassing Stan Musial's 1952 total of 21...ten of his 25 round-trippers came in September and he took home N.L. Player-of-the-

Week honors for 9/4-10 when he batted .619 with three home runs and 8 RBIs...was just the fifth Cardinal (first since 1948) to lead the team in both home runs and stolen bases and the first to ever lead with totals of 10 or more for both HRs and steals...had a career-best 16-game hitting streak from 8/29 to 9/17...he homered in four straight games, 9/8-12, one shy of tying the club record for consecutive homer games...bombed a 441-foot HR into the upper deck in RF on 9/8 vs. SD, the longest HR of the year at Busch...power supply came in bunches, as he homered on back-to-back days eight times...23 of his 25 home runs came vs. RHPs...matched his career high with four RBI on four occaisions and finished with a team-high 25 multi-RBI games...matched his single-game high for hits with four on both 6/10 at ATL and 5/26 vs. CIN...topped Cards' outfielders in both putouts and total chances and had a .990 fielding pct...his steal of home on 6/16 vs. SF was first by a Cardinal since 1990.

1996 – Led the club with 100 runs, 265 total bases, 79 walks, 35 steals, and eight triples, and tied for club lead with 36 doubles...equalled career high with 86 RBI and his 100 runs were most by a Cardinal since Vince Coleman in 1987...hit 20-plus homers for third time, finishing with 21, including three two-homer efforts, giving him five for his career...placed ninth in N.L. with 35 stolen bases ..played center field without error for first 108 games and 278 chances before miscue 8/13 vs LA...finished as N.L. outfield fielding champion with .997 percentage, one error in 366 chances...drove in 20 runs in April with seven homers and .573 slugging average...hit in seven straight games, 4/8-15 (.393, 11-for-28), highlighted by third career two-homer game 4/12 vs PHI...hit one of the longest Cardinal homers ever at Busch, a 468-foot shot into RF upper deck 4/17 vs. PIT...fourth career two-homer game came 4/30 at CHI, including game-tying shot in ninth...posted 25-game on-base streak, 5/5 to 6/2, batting .330 (29-for-88) with .440 OBP (18 walks, one HBP, two sac flies)...5/19 at COL ninth inning HR was first ever into Coors Field RF upper deck 483 ft....good on 18 consecutive steal attempts 7/4 to 9/6, last caught 6/19 vs. PHI, next caught 9/8 vs. SD...popped 100th career homer in first inning 7/15 at CIN, then hit another four-bagger three innings later for his third multi-HR game of season, and tallied career-high five RBI...started week during which he hit .407 (11-for-27) scored eight runs, drove in seven, and was named N.L. Player-of-the-Week...scored 500th career run 8/22 at COL...hit in season-high 10 straight games, 8/28 to 9/7, batting .417 (15-for-36)...highlighted streak and matched career high 8/30 vs. COL, with four hits, the sixth time he had done so in the majors...suffered a torn rotator cuff in his left shoulder while making diving catch 9/27 vs. CIN...ailment limited Ray to six postseason appearances and three N.L. Championship Series starts vs. ATL...singled and scored lead run in seventh inning of Division Series Game Three 10/5 at SD, first of two go-ahead rallies in finale of three-game series sweep...only postseason RBI was game-winner in second game of the NLCS on 10/10 at ATL, sacrifice fly that snapped 3-3 tie in seventh inning.

1997 – Missed the season's first three weeks while recovering from off-season shoulder surgery but returned to enjoy his most productive offensive year...led the team in home runs (a career-high 31), RBIs (a career-high 98), runs scored (94), walks (95), slugging average (.585) and on-base average (.411)...finished among the N.L. Top 10 in homers (T-ninth), slugging average (T-fourth), on-base average (seventh), extra-base hits (eighth) and walks (fifth)...was named to the N.L. All-Star team for the first time...set a club record for most home runs by a Cards center fielder, eclipsing the mark of 25 he set in 1995...became only the 17th Cardinal to hit 30 homers in a season; hit the most by a Redbird since Jack Clark hit 35 home runs in 1987...led the team in multi-RBI games (27) and game-winning RBIs (12)...ranked second on the club with 36 doubles...came close (.585) to becoming the first Cardinal to post a .600 slugging average since Stan Musial had a .612 average in 1957...blasted two upper-deck homers on 7/15 at CIN, becoming the first player in Riverfront Stadium history to reach the upper tier twice in one game...tied career highs for most hits (four) and home runs (two) in a game on 4/29 vs. SF...matched his single-game high with four walks on 9/18 at CHI...matched a career high for most runs scored in a game (four) on 5/7 vs. PHI...batted .462 (12-for-26) in April and .333 with17 homers and 61 RBIs prior to the All-Star break...batted .515 (17-for-33) when hitting the first pitch, including six doubles and four homers...swiped 21 bases, increasing his career total to 199 steals...moved into 10th place on the Cards' all-time home run list with 135.

1998 – Set a career high with 105 RBIs and equaled his 1997 career best with 31 home runs...led the club with 37 doubles...tied for the team lead and for eighth place in the National League with 26 stolen bases...moved into fifth place on the Cardinals' all-time steals list with 225 career thefts...succeeded on 84 percent of his stolen-base attempts (26-for-31), the best percentage on the team among players with 10 or more attempts and tied for sixth in the N. L. among players with 20 or more attempts...ranked ninth in the National League with 86 walks...was the third-toughest player to double up in the league, averaging 133.3 at-bats per GIDP (533/4)...raised his batting average 30 points after the All-Star break, from .263 to .293, while hitting .321 (87-for-271) after the recess...had 20 homers, 67 RBIs and 20 doubles in the second half...became the all-time home run leader at Busch Stadium with 87 homers, clouting 20 at home to surpass Ted Simmons' total of 81...became the third Cardinal to hit more than 30 homers twice, joining Stan Musial (six times) and Rogers Hornsby (two)...finished second on the team in multi-hit (42) and multi-RBI (27) games...set a club record for most strikeouts by a lefthander with 151 whiffs — his eighth straight season with 100 or more strikeouts...paced Cardinals outfielders with 137 starts, 338 putouts, 350 chances and a .986 fielding average...stole his 200th career base in the 3/31 season-opener vs. LA...played his 1,000th career game 4/8 at COL, reaching base five times...collected his 1,000th career hit 4/15 vs. ARI...signed a five-year contract extension (through 2003) on 4/15...hit a grand slam and matched his career high with five RBIs on 7/20 at SD...hit his fifth career grand slam on 7/28 vs. MIL, his second slam in an eight-game span...belted a three-run homer (No. 18) off Greg Maddux in a 3-2 win 7/31 at ATL...equaled Richie Allen's 1970 single-game team strikeout record when he fanned in his first five at-bats 8/8 vs. CHI; wound up the game's hero by hitting a game-tying homer in the 11th inning and an RBI single through a five-man infield in the 13th...equaled a career high with three steals 9/8 vs. CHI.

1999 – Moved from center field to left field for the first time in his career after undergoing offseason surgery on his left knee...posted a .306 batting average, with 15 home runs and 63 RBIs, despite opening the season on the disabled list and being slowed much of the year by the surgery...played in 122 games — his lowest total since 1994 (109)...in only 106 games played in the field, garnered six outfield assists — the third highest total on the club...failed to post a 20-20 (HRs and stolen bases) season for the first time since 1995...hit .320 with 12 home runs in 60 games before the All-Star break...his batting average after the break dipped to .292 (in 62 games), despite batting .340 in August and .306 in September; batted just .213 in July...posted three multi-homer games, 36 multi-hit games and 14 multi-RBI games...his 10 game-winning RBIs ranked second on the club only to Mark McGwire's 12...finished third on the squad with 23 two-out RBIs...batted .344 (66-for-192) with runners on base and was 3-for-10 with the bases loaded...five of his 15 home runs came against the Dodgers...batted .320 at night and .265 in daylight...was successful in 14 of his 18 stolen base attempts, including 2-of-3 at third base...hit safely in 21 of 28 games in August and in 11 of 18 in September...his knee surgery limited him to just two spring contests (both as a DH)...missed the first 16 games of the season before coming off the DL on 4/24 and making his '99 debut that night at LA...made his first start 4/27 vs. COL and went 2-for-3 with a home run...notched a 10-game hitting streak 5/10 to 5/23...crushed two home runs 5/16 vs LA; his ninth-inning, two-run shot off Jeff Shaw was the game-winner in a 5-4 Cards win...posted another two-HR game 5/21 at LA...clubbed a pair of homers at CHI on 5/31, his third multi-homer contest in a 12-game stretch...compiled a 12-game hitting streak (6/5 to 6/17) in which he batted .392 (20-for-54)...had three consecutive three-hit games 6/9 to 6/12...went 9-for-17 (.529) with eight RBIs in those three contests (one at KC, two vs. DET)...collected a season-high four RBIs vs. DET on 6/12...missed nine games in early July with tightness in his rib-cage...went 3-for-4 with two doubles and four RBIs on 9/1 vs. FLA...equaled a career high when he drew four walks at MIL on 9/5...scored three runs and reached base all six plate appearances by collecting base hits in his two official at-bats, as the Cardinals won 13-9.

1997– Began the season by making five starts for Class-AAA Buffalo, but was returned to Akron on 5/14 after going 0-2 with a 7.71 ERA...pitched well after joining Akron, finishing second on the club in wins (six), complete games (three) and innings pitched (113.0) despite joining the team six weeks into the season...was a combined 6-10 with a 4.43 ERA in 24 starts for the year...tossed back-to-back nine-inning complete games in late July...tossed a five-hit complete game shutout at Norwich on 7/21...also had complete game efforts on 7/26 vs. New Haven and 7/31 vs. Harrisburg, but lost both games...earned Eastern League Pitcher of the Week honors, 7/21-27...was 1-4 with a sparkling 2.48 ERA in seven July starts...played for Aragua during the Venezuelan Winter League season.

1998 – Enjoyed his first full season of Triple-A action, finishing second on the Buffalo team in wins (nine), starts (23) and innings pitched (130.1)...did not lose from 7/17 to 8/22, winning four-straight decisions over a span of eight games...made his lone relief appearance, the first of his pro career, on 8/22 at Rochester -- tossed five shutout innings while yielding four hits...was 3-1 with a 3.51 ERA in six July starts...allowed a team-high 19 home runs, including 16 by righthanded batters...was 1-0 with a 3.07 ERA in three postseason outings for the Bisons...his win was lone victory for Buffalo in the Triple-A World Series vs. New Orleans...pitched for Licey in the Dominican Winter League, going 3-0 with a 1.13 ERA.

1999 – Pitched for four different teams and three organizations, including Buffalo (AAA) and Akron (AA) of the Cleveland organization, Trenton (AA) of the Boston organization and Arkansas (AA) of the Cardinals organization...made 25 relief appearances for Buffalo (1-2, 7.59 ERA) before being sent to Akron (AA) on 6/21...he made six starts for the Akron Aeros, going 0-5...was traded to the Red Sox organization on 8/3 in exchange for minor league shortstop Jose Olmeda, and was assigned to Trenton (AA) of the Eastern League...after just three starts for the Trenton Thunder, he was again traded, this time to the Cardinals along with minor league catcher David Benham in a deal for pitcher Kent Mercker on 8/24...he was then assigned to Arkansas (AA) of the Texas League...made two starts for the Travelers and tossed a one-hitter in his final start, a 4-0 shutout at Shreveport in the opening game of 9/1 DH...he allowed a second inning single to Pedro Feliz, whom he promptly picked off first base...following the pickoff, he retired the next 16 batters in order as he extended his scoreless innings streak to 12 following the trade from Trenton...allowed just three hits and one walk in his 12 shutout innings pitched for Arkansas...he struck out 10 while earning the win in each of his two starts.

MISC: Graduated in 1991 from Woodbridge (Va.) Senior High School where he played baseball...played one year of baseball in 1992 for Montgomery Junior College in Rockville, Md., before being drafted by the Indians...enjoys fishing and golf...resides in Woodbridge, Va.

BORN: 3/16/70 at Wilmington, North Carolina

OPENING DAY AGE: 31 M.L. SERVICE: 4.066

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a free agent, December 22, 2000.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001, with a club option for 2002.

2000 SEASON:

- Coming off major knee surgery in 1999, he split the 2000 season between Durham (AAA) and Tampa Bay.
- Had four tours of duty with the Devil Rays (4/3-7, 5/13-28, 6/18-7/2 and 8/7-18), but was limited to just 15 games and 31 at-bats.
- Batted .260 in 85 games at Durham.
- Made his first major league start vs. OAK on 5/25, a year and a day (5/24/99) after tearing the ACL in his right knee.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1992 – Was the 711th player selected in the June free agent draft...injury to regular second baseman Craig Counsell gave Quinton a chance at Bend in the Northwest Rookie League...the natural righthanded hitter first tried switch-hitting at Duke, but abandoned the idea...tried switch-hitting again late in his first year of pro ball...doubled his first time up and immediately went on a two-week tear, hitting .531 and winning consecutive league player of the week honors...was hitting just .212 at the time he started switch-hitting.

1993 – Earned the Rockies' Minor League Player of the Year honor while making the switch from second base to center field...raised his batting average from the .220s in June to season-ending .292...finished the season on a 13-game hitting streak.

1994 – Received an invitation to major league camp...recorded a 21-game hitting streak for New Haven (AA) in June...led the club in runs, hits, doubles and steals.

1995 – His combined .359 average at Double-A New Haven and Triple-A Colorado Springs was third in all of minor league baseball and the best in all of professional baseball by a switch-hitter...was promoted to Colorado Springs on June 25 and went 15-for-30 in his first nine games...batted .396 (44-for-111) in August, then hit safely in all nine postseason games as Colorado Springs won the Pacific Coast League crown.

1996 – Made 58 starts in CF and two in RF...at .290, had the fourth-best batting mark among N.L. rookies (min. 300 PAs) behind FLA's Edgar Renteria (.309), PIT's Jason Kendall (.300) and LA's Todd Hollandsworth (.291)...didn't steal a base until 5/25, but finished with 17, second among N.L. rookies bettered only by Hollandsworth's 21...his 12 sacrifice bunts were ninth in the N.L....had only 41 at-bats and eight hits through May while starting just five games, but began to get more playing time when Larry Walker went down with broken clavicle...batted .306 (74-for-242) the rest of the season, including .322 (67-for-208) in his last 55 starts...his pinch-hit double off SD's Trevor Hoffman on 4/16 was his first major league hit...first home run came on 7/27 at home off White Sox's Amaury Telemaco.

1997 – Although he opened the year as Colorado's fourth outfielder, had 71 starts, all in CF...28 starts came when Ellis Burks missed most of July with an injury...was hitting .265 on 8/1, but batted .397 (27-for-68) in August and September to raise his overall mark to a career-high .292...his .386 average in August was second best in the N.L. (min. 50 PAs)...hit .318 with runners in scoring position...tied a Rockies club record with 13 successful steals to open the season before FLA's Charles Johnson gunned him down on 6/1...finished third on the club with 28 stolen bases.

1998 – Was named Devil Rays' first-ever Most Valuable Player in voting by the Tampa Bay chapter of the BBWAA...his 179 hits were the most ever for a player on a first-year expansion team, topping Charlie Hayes' 175 hits for the '93 Rockies...broke the record with his 176th hit off BOS's Tom Gordon on 9/13...his 38 doubles were third-most by a player on an expansion team and his .292 average was seventh-best...his 179 hits were third among A.L. switch-hitters behind Jose Offerman's 191 and Ray Durham's 181...led TB in hits, games (155), at-bats (614), runs (76), total bases (252), doubles (38) and sac. flies (8)...made 148 starts (101 in CF and 47 in LF)...his .992 fielding pct. was fifth among A.L. qualifying outfielders...made only one error in his first 147 games...also set an expansion record with 18 outfield assists, which ranked second in the A.L. behind CLE's Kenny Lofton...broke expansion mark of 16 held by Rusty Staub of the 1969 Expos...hit a career-high seven home runs, including two on 6/15 vs. TOR...didn't homer again the rest of the season (349 ABs)...Devil Rays were 6-0 when he homered...his solo blast off BAL's Alan Mills on 5/10 broke a 3-3, eighth-inning tie in D-Rays' 4-3 win...his batting average was over .300 until 6/20...only once all season did he go three consecutive starts without a hit (6/3-4-5)...hit safely in 30 of hit last 35 games (.347, 50-for-144) after his average hit a season-low of .274 on 8/17...had club-high 52 multi-hit games including 13 three-hit games and a four-hit contest on 9/8 at SEA...his 18-game hitting streak 8/18-9/9 was a club-best and tied for the longest by a player on a first-year expansion team (Tommy Davis, 1969 Pilots)...the day after the streak ended he went 3-for-4 with a walk against TEX and 20-game winner Rick Helling...batted .396 (21-for-53) with the count full, the fourth-best mark in the majors...was named A.L. Co-Player of the Week the season's first week, hitting .483 (14-for-29)...had multi-hit games in six of the first seven games of the season...ranked ninth in the A.L. with 614 at-bats, T-8th with seven triples, T-9th in A.L. with 127 singles...was credited with the first run in Devil Rays' history when he scored ahead of Wade Boggs after Boggs' two-run homer on Opening Day, 3/31, against DET.

1999 – Season ended abruptly 5/24 in the D-Rays' 45th game when he tore the Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) in his right knee, a result of a sixth-inning collision with Tropicana Field's left-centerfield wall while chasing a Juan Gonzalez (TEX) home run...it was the same knee he sprained working out just prior to spring training (did not see game action until 3/25 in a minor league game)...underwent successful reconstructive surgery 6/3 by Dr. James Andrews at the Alabama Sports Medicine and Orthopedic Center in Birmingham...had appeared in 40 games (36 starts - 20 in CF, 16 in LF)...hit everywhere in the lineup except cleanup and ninth...registered a pair of seven-game hitting streaks in his month and a half: 4/28-5/5 and 5/14-22....stole two bases for the sixth time in his career on 4/23 vs. SEA, tying the club record for thefts in a game...enjoyed his best offensive game of the season 4/21 vs. BAL, going 3-for-5 with a triple and his lone HR, a three-run shot off Doug Linton...his four-RBI tied his career high.

MISC: Graduated from South Brunswick (NC) High School, where he was the starting point guard, track standout, starting quarterback and free safety, and shortstop...his senior-year baseball squad went 29-0 and won the 1988 state championship...scored 1,200 on his college SAT and attended Duke University, where he earned his degree in four years while majoring in political science and history...was a .349 career hitter at Duke with 263 hits and 98 stolen bases while starting every game of his career...in addition to playing second base for the Blue Devils, he was a defensive back on the football team under coach Steve Spurrier...with Quinton at defensive back, the Blue Devils won the 1989 ACC Championship...Quinton recently donated $5,000 to the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation...grew up in Southport, NC, a town of 2,000, 25 miles west of Wilmington...resides in Scottsdale, Ariz....hopes to go into law after playing career...his mother, Saundra, was an elementary school teacher for 28 years.

CATCHER

FULL NAME: William Keith McDonald

HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 215 BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: 2/8/73 at Yokosuka, Japan.

OPENING DAY AGE: 28 M.L. SERVICE: 0.024

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the 24th round of the June 1994 free-agent draft.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

2000 SEASON:

- Served as the regular catcher for Memphis (AAA) and enjoyed a brief two-week stay at the big league level during which he wrote his name into the record books by hitting home runs in each of his first two Major League at-bats.
- Rookie backstop was purchased from Memphis on 7/2, and he made his major league debut with a pinch-hitting appearance 7/4 vs. CIN, belting a one-out solo homer for his first big-league hit. He became only the third Cardinal to homer in his first ML at-bat.
- McDonald made baseball history on 7/6 vs. CIN when he became the second player, and first National Leaguer, to homer in each of his first two at-bats (the St. Louis Browns' Bob Nieman did it 9/14/51 at BOS).
- Stroked his third homer of the year, second pinch-hit round-tripper, in just his sixth major league at-bat on 7/15 at CWS. Each of his three hits as a Cardinal were home runs.
- He was optioned to Memphis on 7/21 and completed the season batting .263 with 5 HR's and 30 RBIs for the Redbirds.
- Batted .435 during the Pacific Coast League playoffs and championship series and he hit .412 during the Triple-A World Series.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1994 – Opened his career at Johnson City and batted .246 with six home runs in 59 games...threw out 16 of 54 (30%) would-be base stealers...did not commit an error in 25 games (119 chances) in August...went 1-for-3 with a home run as a pinch-hitter...participated in the Cardinals' Winter Instructional League.

1995 – Played at Class-A Peoria and batted .268 in 65 games...hit .333 at home, but just .227 on the road...posted a .341 batting average after 8/1...hit .438 with a homer in seven games vs. Burlington.

1996 – Played at Class-A St. Petersburg and batted .271 with 52 RBIs in 114 games...tied for seventh in the Cardinals farm system with 25 doubles...swatted three doubles and drove in two runs in a 4-3 win at Sarasota on 5/29...went 3-for-5 with five RBIs vs. Dunedin on 7/22...went 4-for-4 and drove in both runs in a 2-1 win vs. Dunedin on 8/2.

1997 – Moved up to Class-AA Arkansas...batted .240 with five homers and 30 RBIs...collected two hits and drove in a pair of runs in a win vs. Wichita on 7/3.

1998 – Spent the entire season at Class-AAA Memphis and batted over .300 (.318) for the first time in his career...was limited to just 58 games after two stints on the disabled list (4/7 to 4/17 and 5/16 to 5/29)...batted .423 (33-for-78) in 27 games through the end of June, but batted just .200 (11-for-55) in July and .240 (6-for-25) in August...played 14 games as designated hitter and hit .382 (21-for-55) in that role...caught in 32 games and batted .300 (30-for-100) with five homers and 11 RBIs...put together two nine-game hitting streaks...boasted 16 multihit games, including four three-hit efforts.

1999 – Split season between Class-AA Arkansas and Class-AAA Memphis...batted over .300 at both stops, including a .307 mark for the Travelers...caught 40 games for Arkansas and 25 for Memphis...was disabled, 4/25 to 6/1, because of back soreness...hit safely in 14 straight games (20-for-46; .435) for Arkansas from 4/17 to 6/12, raising his BA from .300 to .394...batted .364 with five HRs in a 19-game span with Memphis from 7/27 to 8/18...belted a grand slam on 7/30 vs. Nashville. He hit .419 with runners in scoring position while at Memphis.

MISC: Graduated from Esperanza High School in Anaheim, Calif...captained the baseball and football squads...was named all-county in baseball...attended Pepperdine University, where he played baseball...also played baseball and football at the University of Utah...resides in Anaheim Hills, Calif., with his wife, Elizabeth...was signed by Cardinals scout Chuck Fick.

MARK McGWIRE

FULL NAME: Mark David McGwire

HEIGHT: 6-5 WEIGHT: 250 BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: 10/1/63 at Pomona, California

OPENING DAY AGE: 37 M.L. SERVICE: 14.047

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Oakland Athletics for pitchers T.J. Mathews, Eric Ludwick and Blake Stein, July 31, 1997.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2003.

2000 SEASON:

- After spending the past two seasons in a constant spotlight, back and knee injuries limited the game's most celebrated slugger to less than a half season of play as a regular. He started just 70 games at first base, the last coming on 7/6 vs. CIN.
- Early season back spasms kept him out of the lineup for nine of the team's first 15 games, including the season opener.
- Was batting .303 with 30 HR's and 69 RBIs at the time of his final first base start on 7/6. Left that game after three innings when right knee discomfort would not allow him to continue.
- At the time of his knee injury, Mark was leading the majors in walks with 75 (11 intentional) and his combined on-base (.483 - 2nd in NL) + slugging pct. (.749 - 1st) was tops in the majors at 1.232, 29 points ahead of the Rockies' Todd Helton (1.203).
- He was also leading the N.L. in both AB/HR ratio (7.3) & AB/RBI ratio (3.2).
- Was voted starting N.L. first baseman for the All-Star game, his eighth start and 12th selection overall. He was forced to miss the Mid-Summer Classic due to knee injury & was replaced on the roster by teammate Edgar Renteria.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 7/13, retroactive to 7/7, due to patella tendinitis in his right knee. He would remain on the DL until 9/8, and he never returned as a regular as injury limited him to just one at-bat a game.
- Returned to action on 9/8 at MIL, appearing in each of the three games of that weekend series as the team's starting 2B. He never took his place in the field once he completed his first inning at-bats. He made a total of five "starts" on that roadtip, four as a second baseman, one in left field & one as a shortstop.
- HR'd (#31) on 9/11 at PIT for the first time since 7/1 with a drive to dead CF.
- He hit his 7th career pinch-HR (#32) in 9/15 win over CHI with a go-ahead solo blast in the 8th inning of 3-2 win. It was his 32nd and final HR of the season. He batted .333 (5-for-15) with two HR's, three HBP's and one walk (intentional) following his return from the DL.

- He surpassed the 30 HR mark for the 11th time in his career, doing so for the fifth straight season. His 32 HR's rank 15th on the teams' all-time single season HR list.
- He finished the year ranked 7th on baseball's all-time HR list (554), just nine back of Reggie Jackson (6th- 563). McGwire is currently 5th (191) on the Cardinals all-time HR list, trailing 4th place Rogers Hornsby (193).
- Passed Jimmie Foxx (10th-534), Mickey Mantle (9th-536) & Mike Schmidt (8th-548) on baseball's all-time HR list during the 2000 season.
- Became the majors' first player to hit 30 HR's prior to the All-Star break in four different seasons when he homered on 7/1 vs. HOU.
- Became Busch Stadium all-time HR leader (105) on 6/30, passing Ray Lankford. He finished the year with 106 career HR's at Busch Stadium, seven back of Lankford (113), who has regained the lead.
- Had a season best 10-game hitting streak (.343, 5 HRs) snapped on 6/27 at CIN.
- He homered for a 3rd-straight game on 6/24 vs. LA, belting career HR #550 while taking over the majors HR lead with 28 & tying R.Lankford (103) for the Busch Stadium all-time mark.
- Joined Mike Piazza on 6/12 as the only visiting players to have HRed twice into the loge level at San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium.
- Homered in record 37th ballpark on 6/11 at DET, passing Fred McGriff on all-time list. He also tied Jim Bottomley (181) for 5th on the Cardinals all-time HR list. McGriff later tied the ballpark record.
- Had pair of singles on 6/10 at DET & stole his12th career base (1st since 8/20/98).
- Cracked HR #21 on 5/31 at ARI giving Cards an NL-record 100 HRs in 52 games. The HR ended his longest (20 AB's) dry spell of the season.
- Hit 20th HR in his 35th game played. Became the fastest to 20 HR, bettering both he (1998) & Mickey Mantle's (1956) prior mark of 41 games.
- His 32 homers for the year set a new standard for a player with less than 100 games played in a season. Kevin Mitchell (30 HR's in 95 games in 1994) was prior record holder.
- Posted 5th career 3-HR game on 5/18 at PHI, his 64th career multi-HR game. He finished the game with a career-high 7 RBIs.
- Had a pair of HR's on 5/14 vs. LA, the 2nd traveling an estimated 487 ft.
- Pounded a 473-ft HR (#11) to the red seats on 5/5 at CIN, the longest HR on record at Cinergy/Riverfront Stadium.
- Underwent surgery, performed by Dr. George Paletta, following the playoffs and had the diseased portion of his right patella tendon removed.

2000 POSTSEASON – Although limited to pinch-hitting duty, still made his presence known...belted a pinch-HR off Mike Remlinger in Game 2 of Division Seres versus ATL...was 0-for-2 with a walk in NLCS versus NY Mets...he appeared in six of the Cardinals eight postseason games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1984 – Selected by the Oakland A's in the first round (10th player overall) of the June amateur draft...played 16 games for Modesto, batting .200 in 55 plate appearances.

1985 – Spent the full year as Modesto's starting third baseman...showed exceptional power...batted .274 in 138 games, and slugged 50 extra-base hits in 489 at-bats (23 doubles, 3 triples and 24 homers)...also had 106 RBIs and 108 strikeouts...earned the California League's Rookie of the Year Award.

1986 – Started the year at Double-A Huntsville but moved up to Tacoma June 6th and then up to Oakland on August 20th...finished his minor league season with a .311 average, 148 hits, 23 home runs and 112 RBIs...picked up his first major league hit on August 24th vs. the Yankees Tommy John...belted his first homer the next day off Walt Terrell at Detroit...never really found his groove with Oakland, batting .189 with 10 hits and three homers in 53 at-bats...fielding was a problem at third as he made six errors and fielded .833.

1987 – Was the consensus American League Rookie of the Year...selected unanimously by the BBWAA, only the second rookie to earn that distinction (after Carlton Fisk in 1972)...his 49 homers led the league and tied for the major league high with the Cubs' Andre Dawson...homer total also set a new major league rookie record...set a new Oakland single-season standard, eclipsing Reggie Jackson's 47 hit in 1969...also topped the major leagues with a .618 slugging percentage, which was an A's record at the time...had at least 12 RBIs in each month of the season and 20 or more in four months...his RBI total was the third best in the AL...finished sixth in the AL MVP voting...had a five-homer spree in Detroit May 8-10th...in a three-game series at Cleveland June 26-28, hit five homers, knocked in seven runs and scored runs in nine consecutive at-bats...named to the AL All-Star team for the game in Oakland...had 33 homers with 68 RBIs at the break...tied major league rookie homer record of 38 August 11th at Seattle with a solo shot off the M's Mike Moore...set the new mark with his 39th homer in Anaheim August 14th, a two-run homer in the 6th inning off the Angels' Don Sutton.

1988 – Finished second on the club to Jose Canseco with 32 homers and 99 RBIs...homer total of 32 was third-best in the loop and RBI total was eighth best...back stiffness caused Mark to miss nine of the A's last 16 games and his chance at 100 RBIs for the second consecutive season...named as the AL's starter at first base in the All-Star Game at Cincinnati...more than a third of his RBIs pulled the A's into a tie or put them ahead. 1988 POSTSEASON – Hit .333 in the ALCS vs. Boston with a homer and three RBIs...recorded one of his greatest career moments when he homered off Jay Howell in the ninth inning of Game 3 in the World Series...the blast gave the A's a 2-1 victory...it was Oakland's only win in the Series and Mark's only hit in 17 at-bats.

1989 – Led the A's and ranked third in the AL with 33 homers...finished second to Parker on the A's and tenth in the league with 95 RBI's...led the league with a homer every 14.8 at-bats and was second with an RBI every 5.2 at-bats...all this despite spending 15 days on the DL in early April with a herniated disc in his back...after returning missed just five games the remainder of the season. 1989 POSTSEASON – Hit safely in seven of the A's nine postseason games...overall hit .343 in the postseason with a homer and four RBIs...amazingly was the only A's regular not to homer in the Series vs. San Francisco.

1990 – Topped the A's in RBI's (108) and games played (156) and led the major leagues in walks with 110...was second on the A's to Rickey Henderson in runs scored with 86...post season numbers were not up to his standards...wound up with five hits...all singles...earned his first Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence at first base...made just 5 errors in 1,429 total chances for a .997 fielding percentage...selected by the fans for the third consecutive season as the AL's All-Star starting first baseman...finished 11th in American League MVP voting. 1990 POSTSEASON – Hit .154 in the ALCS vs. Boston with 2 RBI's...and .214 in the Series with no RBI's.

1991 – Had his consecutive streak of 30 or more homers end at four years...his .201 average was a career low by 30 points...was again among the top fielding first basemen in baseball...made just four errors in 1,297 chances for a .997 fielding percentage...22 homers was the third best total on the club and his 75 RBIs was fourth best...with 93 walks he finished second to Rickey Henderson on the A's and sixth in the league.

1992 – Led the major leagues by averaging one homer every 11.1 at-bats but a muscle strain in August forced him to miss 20 games and cost him a chance to win his second major league homer title...McGwire's 42 homers were second only to the Rangers' Juan Gonzalez who homered on the final day of the season to finish with 43...Mark did lead the AL with a .585 slugging percentage...finished fourth to teammate Eckersley in the AL MVP balloting and was named to The Sporting News and UPI All-Star teams...also named by UPI as the Comeback Player of the Year...finished the year with a .268 average, 67 points above his 1991 figure...led the A's with 104 RBIs as he also topped the club with 29 multi-RBI games...spring training was a good indication of what kind of year McGwire was set for as he led the major leagues in hitting with a .453 Cactus League average...June 10th in Milwaukee a big day in Mark's career as his 22nd home run of the 1992 season off the Brewer's Bosio was the 200th of his career...only four men in baseball history, Kiner, Ruth, Killebrew and Mathews have reached the 200 mark faster than Mark who hit his 200th in his 2,852nd at-bat...that homer also tied his total for 1991...reached the All-Star break with 28 homers and was named to the AL All-Star squad for the sixth consecutive year...it was the fifth straight year he was named a starter by the fans...in the All-Star home run hitting contest belted 12 homers to top everyone and lead the AL All-Stars to an easy win...with 38 homers on August 21st had a six-homer bulge over Gonzalez but strained a rib muscle on the right side of his rib cage that night at Camden Yards and went on the disabled list...when he came back 20 games later had lost the homer lead...with one swing at Chicago 9/21 reached the 40-homer and 100-RBI plateaus...second time he had reached the 40-homer mark and third time for 100 RBIs. 1992 POSTSEASON – In the playoffs vs. Toronto belted a two-run homer off Morris in his first at-bat but then finished the post season 2 for his last 19 with one RBI.

1993 – Appeared in just 27 games due to an injured left heel...made just two pinch-hitting appearances after 5/14...eventually underwent surgery in September to repair the damage...was off to a great start with 28 hits, including 15 extra-base hits, and 24 RBI in his first 25 games before the injury shut him down...originally injured the heel during the A's series in New York 5/3-4...played in another nine games before he went on the DL 5/14...missed the next 100 games before he was activated 9/3...after grounding out in a pinch-hitting role vs. Baltimore at the Coliseum on 9/3 had to miss the A's next 3 games as he served a suspension for his part in the 8/24 rhubarb at Milwaukee...his last 1993 appearance was as a pinch-hitter at Toronto 9/9...underwent surgery on the heel September 24th in Houston as Dr. Donald Baxter corrected a partial tear of fascia in his left heel and also shaved a small bone spur...his season total of nine homers was the second-best figure in major league history for a player with 100 or fewer at-bats...Ted Williams hit 13 in 91 at-bats for Boston in 1953.

1994 – Had his second consecutive injury-shortened season...after off season left heel surgery, came to spring camp healthy but the injuries arrived almost as soon as camp started and persisted through much of his season...a stiff back kept McGwire out of the first three weeks of spring games but not out of the A's opening day lineup for the seventh consecutive year...stress fracture of the left heel was his second significant injury of the year and it landed him on the disabled list from 4/30-6/18 (43 games)...belted one of the most dramatic homers of the year 7/10 at Baltimore off Lee Smith, a two-run shot with the A's down a run in the 9th inning...but just a little more than two weeks later, on 7/26 in Anaheim, he re-injured his left heel...was placed on the disabled list the next day, missed the remainder of the season and eventually underwent surgery for a second time on the heel...Dr. Donald Baxter, who performed the first surgery on McGwire's heel to "release" the medial part of the fascia 9/2493, performed the second surgery to "release" the lateral aspect of the fascia on 8/30...on the year McGwire wound up appearing in 47 games, making 37 starts at first base which tied him with Troy Neel for the most starts on the A's at the position.

1995 – Despite having the schedule shortened to 144 games and missing 33 games because of two separate stints on the disabled list, McGwire hit 39 home runs in just 317 at-bats...became one of just seven players in ML history to hit 30 homers with fewer than 400 at-bats and his 39 HRs are the most ever by a player with fewer than 392 at-bats (Hank Aaron, 40 HRs in 392 at-bats in 1973)...most of the power came against lefthanded pitching as he hit 14 HR off southpaws in just 79 at-bats (1 per 5.6 at-bats)...his average distance of 418 feet per homer was the best in the majors...also topped the A's with 90 RBIs...had more home runs than singles (35)...started the year 4-for-18 but then put together a career-high 18-game hitting streak (23 for 64, .359) from 5/3-21...had his first two-homer game of the season on 6/10 at Boston and followed that up by blasting three the next day to tie his career high (6/27/87 at Cleveland)...the five HR in consecutive games tied a major league record (18 times) which he already shared...he and Ralph Kiner are the only two players who have done it twice...had five multiple HR games for the season...belted his sixth career grand slam vs. California on 6/30 in the bottom of the ninth off Lee Smith to give the A's an 8-5 win...21 of his 39 HR and 31 of his 90 RBI either tied the game or put the A's ahead...was tied with Mo Vaughn for the major league lead with 24 HR and 59 RBI when he was hit in the helmet by a David Cone pitch on 7/8 vs. Toronto...was hit by a pitch 11 times for the season which tied for 4th in the league...was named to his seventh All-Star Game but did not play because of the injury...missed five games following the Cone beaning and returned for three games before suffering a deep bruise in his left foot on 7/17 which landed him on the DL the next day...missed 12 games, was activated 8/2, played in three games, and then went back on the DL with a sore lower back...missed another 21 games before returning 8/26...finished the season by hitting 11 home runs in his last 18 games...included in that span was the 269th of his career on 9/14 vs. Kansas City (Gubicza) which broke Reggie Jackson's Oakland career record...stole second base as a part of a double steal at California on 9/30, his first steal since 8/6/91.

1996 – Hit an Oakland record and major league-leading 52 home runs, becoming the 14th player (21 times) in major league history to hit 50 home runs...the 52 homers tied for 11th most in major league history, were the most in the majors since Foster hit 52 in 1977 and the most in the A.L. since Maris (61) and Mantle (54) in 1961...is the only player to hit 50 HR and play in fewer than 140 games...did it at a major league record rate of one home run every 8.13 at-bats, matching his figure from 1995...in addition to leading the majors in home runs, he also ranked first in slugging percentage (.730) and on-base percentage (.467)...became the 10th player (18 times) to lead the majors in all three categories, the fourth since World War II (Mays in 1965, Yastrzemski in 1967 and Schmidt in 1981)...both figures also set Oakland records and the slugging percentage was 14th best in major league history...batted a team leading .312 which was 60 points above his career average and 23 points above his previous best of .289 in his rookie season of 1987...also had career highs in runs (104) and walks (116), falling two walks short of Bando's single season Oakland record...had his fourth career 100 RBI season (113) and reached the century mark in runs, walks and RBI in the same season for the first time in his career...named to the Silver Slugger Team, the Associated Press All-Star Team and finished seventh in the BBWAA MVP voting...missed the first 18 games with a foot injury before he was activated April 23...reached base via hit, walk or hit by pitch in each of his first 48 games and 62 straight dating back to 9/16/1995, setting an Oakland record...hit his first of two grand slams on 5/1 vs. California (other came on 9/22 at Seattle)...went 24 at-bats without a homer from 5/7-14, his longest homerless streak of the season...began his home run tear on 5/17 at Boston and including that blast, he hit 21 home runs in a 36 game span through 6/27...hit .333 (41 for 123) over that span with seven doubles for a .902 slugging percentage...during the streak he hit the 9000th home run in Athletics history on 5/28 vs. Boston and drove in his 790th career run on 6/16 at Milwaukee to break Sal Bando's Oakland career record...had three doubles in the latter contest, tying an Oakland record...belted his 300th career home run on 6/25 vs. Detroit (Olivares) to become the 73rd player in major league history to reach that plateau...finished June with 14 home runs, one shy of his club record for home runs in a month (May, 1987) and the major league record for home runs in June...was named American League Player of the Month in June, hitting .329 with 25 RBI, six doubles, a .915 slugging percentage, 31 walks, a .513 on-base percentage and 26 runs in 26 games...was named to the American League All-Star Team for the eighth time in his 10-year career on 7/ 2 and celebrated by hitting his 303rd career home run that night in Seattle, breaking Jimmie Foxx's Athletics career record...hit his 30th home run on July 13 at Texas, giving him seven 30-homer seasons, tying Foxx's all-time A's record...recorded his 1000th career hit on 7/22 at Chicago off Tapani, becoming the eighth Oakland player to reach the plateau...homered in four consecutive games from 7/23-26...also homered in three straight twice...he hit the longest home run ever by an opponent at the new Comiskey with a 470 foot blast 7/24...then on the 25th in Toronto he homered into the fifth deck for a 488 foot home run, the longest in the five years that all major league home runs have been measured...he homered at least once in every series during the latter streak for a major league record of 20 consecutive series with a home run...that streak ended when he missed five games with back spasms, 7/27-8/1...hit his 40th home run on 8/12 vs. Minnesota, his third 40 homer season, making him and Foxx the only two Athletics with three 40-homer seasons...hit his 40th in his 294th at bat, breaking Ruth's record for fewest at-bats to 40 homers (316 in 1928)...homered the next day to increase his 162-game total dating back to 6/2/95 to 70...hit his 145th career home run in the Coliseum on 8/18 vs. Baltimore (Yan) breaking Reggie Jackson's Coliseum career home run record...hit his 50th home run in the second game of a doubleheader at Cleveland on 9/14 off Ogea...reached 50 in 390 at-bats, breaking Ruth's record of fewest at-bats to 50 homers (438 in 1921)...hit his final two home runs on 9/22 at Seattle, and both came in the fifth inning to tie a major league record for home runs in an inning (28th player, 30th time)...that gave him 28 home runs on the road, tying the franchise record which he already shared with Canseco...homered at least twice against every team; hit six vs. Boston, Cleveland and Detroit...hit at least .321 each month from May through August, including .356 in May, his highest batting average ever in a full month...average improved to .359 with runners in scoring position, which ranked fourth in the league, and his .373 average off southpaws was seventh-best.

1997 – Tied the major league record for most home runs in one season by a righthanded batter with 58 round-trippers, the most in the majors since Roger Maris hit a record 61 homers in 1961...broke Jimmie Foxx's record for most home runs by a righthanded batter in two consecutive seasons (106 in 1932-33) with 110 home runs...became only the second major leaguer, after Babe Ruth, to hit 50 or more homers in consecutive seasons...concluded the season with a career average of one home run every 11.94 at-bats (387/4622), second in major league history to Ruth's ratio of one homer every 11.76 at-bats...had eight multihomer games in 1997 (four with Cards) and concluded the season tied for 14th on the all-time list with 43 multihomer games...became the first player to hit 20 home runs with two different teams in one season...after arriving in a July 31 trade from Oakland, hit 24 homers as a Cardinal, including a club single-month record 15 home runs in September. Overall, 24 of his 44 hits as a Redbird were homers...homered once every 7.3 at-bats as a Cardinal and wound up second on the team in home runs behind Ray Lankford (31)...went deep 11 times in April, eight in May, 10 in June, five in July, nine in August and 15 in September. Homered in 12 consecutive series to finish the year...established career highs with 123 runs batted in (topping his best of 118 RBIs as a rookie in 1987) and three stolen bases, and finished one short of his career best in doubles (28 in '87)...homered against every opponent except BAL in 1997...hit home runs in a record 17 ballparks...matched his previous single-season high for home runs (52) on 9/16 vs. LA, when he launched a 517-foot blast off the facade above the left-center field scoreboard — the longest estimated homer at Busch Stadium. McGwire's longest as a Cardinal and his fifth 500-foot effort of the season; earlier in the day, he'd signed a contract extension with the Cardinals through the year 2000...homered in the second at-bat of his Busch Stadium debut on 8/8 vs. PHI — a 441-foot drive off the left-field foul pole at the Stadium Club level; the homer ended a 71 at-bat homerless drought, the second-longest such streak of his career after his 102 consecutive homerless at-bats spanning the 1990 and '91 seasons...in his first game against the Marlins on 8/22, became the first player to hit two upper-deck homers at Florida's Pro Player Stadium...hit his second-longest homer as a Cardinal (and 44th of the season) on 9/2 against the White Sox, a 504-foot blast off Busch's left-field scoreboard...matched a career high with four hits 9/5 at COL, including two home runs...hit a game-tying, two-run homer off Tom Glavine in the ninth inning 8/15 vs. Atlanta, setting up the Cards' 3-2, 12-inning victory...was named the National League's Player of the Week 8/11-17, when he hit .421 with four homers and eight RBIs...was named the National League Player of the Month for September, when he blasted 15 home runs and recorded a .729 slugging average...left Oakland as the Athletics' franchise leader with 363 home runs, 941 RBIs, 563 extra-base hits and a .551 slugging average. Ranks second in runs scored (773), walks (847), total bases (2,451) and on-base average (.380)...ranks No. 1 in franchise history, with Jimmie Foxx and Sam Chapman, with nine career grand slams...in four months with the A's, McGwire's 34 homers ranked as their season high and he tied Jason Giambi for the team lead with 81 RBIs...tied an Oakland record with his fifth career pinch-homer on 4/16, equaling the mark held by Mike Aldrete, Jeff Burroughs and Terry Steinbach...concluded the season with one homer and an .800 (4-for-5) average in pinch-hit appearances...his 11 homers in April were the most ever hit during the month by an Oakland player...reached base in all seven plate appearances 4/26 vs. KC to tie an A.L. record for most times reached base in an extra-innings game without being retired; his five walks in the game (three intentional) tied an A's club record...hit his longest homer to date and the longest in Seattle Kingdome history (538 feet) off Randy Johnson on 6/24...became the fourth player (after Harmon Killebrew, Frank Howard and Cecil Fielder) to clear the left-field roof at Tiger Stadium with a 514-foot home run on 4/20...had two four-game homer streaks with the A's: 4/19-23 and 5/24-28...named to the American League's All-Star Game team for the ninth time...was named 1997 Sportsman of the Year by The Sporting News and was selected by his peers as the Players Choice Man of the Year for leadership and commitment on and off the field.

1998 – Inspired a renaissance of the National Pastime as he blasted his way to a major league record 70 home runs, eclipsing Roger Maris' 1961 record of 61 homers...received a bevy of postseason awards and honors...named The Sporting News Sportsman of the Year (co-winner with the Cubs' Sammy Sosa), Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year (co-winner with Sosa), Associated Press Player of the Year, Players Choice Player of the Year (chosen by major league players), Baseball America Major League Player of the Year, Baseball Weekly Player of the Year, ABC Wide World of Sports Man of the Year, Time Magazine Hero of the Year, St. Louis Baseball Man of the Year (selected by St. Louis BBWAA chapter), the Missouri Athletic Club Personality

1998 ADDITIONAL MILESTONES & HIGHLIGHTS:

- Became the first Cardinal (and 20th major leaguer since 1901) to hit a grand slam on Opening Day, connecting for a fifth-inning blast off LA's Ramon Martinez on 3/31 at Busch. The slam was the 10th of his career.
- Homered in the season's first four games, tying Willie Mays' 1971 major league record for most consecutive games homered in to start a season.
- Named N.L. Player of the Week for the season's first week after batting .400 (8-for-20) with four homers and 12 RBIs.
- Collected his 1,000th career RBI on a bases-loaded walk 4/11 at SF.
- Became the ninth Cardinal to belt as many as three home runs in one game and the first Redbird to do so at Busch with a 3-for-3 performance 4/14 vs. ARI. Became the ninth major leaguer to have a three-homer game in each league (see chart).
- Hit his first career homer at Montreal's Olympic Stadium, a two-run shot off Trey Moore on 4/21.
- Hit his first career homer at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium, a two-run homer off Jerry Spradlin on 4/25.

- Hit career homer 400 in the fewest at-bats in major league history (4,726) on 5/8 at NY, a two-run blast off Rick Reed in the third inning (his first career homer at Shea Stadium). Became the 26th player to reach the 400-homer plateau.
- Crushed what could briefly be called the longest homer ever hit at Busch Stadium, a 527-foot bomb off Milwaukee's Paul Wagner on 5/12. The ball landed in Sec. 389, Row 4, Seat 4, above the left-center field scoreboard.
- Launched the longest estimated home run in Busch Stadium history, a 545-foot moonshot off Florida's Livan Hernandez on 5/16. The ball caromed off the Post-Dispatch sign in dead center field before falling into the shrubbery below.
- Belted three homers on 5/19 at PHI, becoming the 12th player (13th time) to record two three-homer games in one season. The third homer was No. 20 for the season, breaking Ken Griffey Jr.'s record for reaching 20 in a calendar year (May 20, 1997) and tying Mickey Mantle's record for reaching 20 in the fewest games played (41). Also matched a career high with six RBIs.
- Became the first player to hit a home run into Busch Stadium's "Big Mac Land" on 5/22 vs. SF, entitling 47,549 ticket holders to a free Big Mac hamburger at McDonald's restaurants the following day.
- Recorded his third multihomer game of the season by belting Nos. 22 and 23 on 5/23 vs. SF.
- Named N.L. Player of the Week for the week ending 5/24. Batted .423 with eight homers and 15 RBIs in six games.
- Became the first player to hit 25 homers before June 1 and tied a club record for most homers (17) at Busch Stadium with a first-inning solo shot on 5/25 vs. COL.
- Set a Cardinals club record for most home runs (16) in a month on 5/30 at SD, tying Mickey Mantle's 1956 major league record for most home runs in May.
- Established a single-season club record for most homers (18) at Busch Stadium on 6/5 vs. SF, breaking the mark shared by Richie Allen (1970), Ted Simmons (1979), Jack Clark (1987) and Ron Gant (1996). The homer, No. 28 of the season, came in his first at-bat after missing three games with back spasms.
- Reached the 30-homer plateau in the Cardinals' 64th game, sooner than any other player except Babe Ruth (63 games in 1928), on 6/9 at CWS.
- Hit his first homer at Arizona's Bank One Ballpark when he connected for his 11th career grand slam, 6/12 against Andy Benes.
- Recorded his first-ever Astrodome homer, 6/17 off Houston's Jose Lima.
- Hit his 33rd homer on 6/18 at HOU (the 11th to reach the Astrodome's upper deck) to break Ken Griffey Jr.'s major league record for most homers before July 1.
- Homered in both of the Cardinals' interleague games at Cleveland, 6/24-25, including a 461-foot homer (No. 35) on 6/25 — the second-longest in Jacobs Field history after his 485-foot blast in April '97 while with Oakland.
- Belted homer No. 37 into the left-field upper deck (472 feet) 6/30 vs. KC, tying Reggie Jackson's 1969 record for most homers before the All-Star break.
- Pounded a dramatic 11th inning, two-run homer into Busch's upper-deck (485 feet) off Houston's Billy Wagner on 7/11, capping a 4-3 win. The homer was his 38th, but his first home run and RBIs of July.
- With a two-homer game 7/12 vs. HOU, reached 40 homers in the fewest at-bats (281) and games (90) in major league history.
- Posted his second two-homer game in less than a week on 7/17 vs. LA, tying Rogers Hornsby's 1922 club record for homers by a righthanded batter (42) while breaking Babe Ruth's and Jimmie Foxx's major league record for most homers before August 1. The first homer traveled an estimated 511 feet.
- Tied Johnny Mize's 1940 club record with his 43rd homer on 7/20 at SD. Also matched a career high with four hits.
- Established a single-season club home run record with No. 44 on 7/26 at COL, ending an 0-for-16 skid at the plate.
- Snapped a 29 at-bat homerless drought and set a single-season club record for most homers at home (26, breaking Mize's 1940 record) with No. 46 on 8/8 vs. the Cubs.
- Hit No. 47 on 8/11 vs. NY, eclipsing Hack Wilson's N.L. record for home runs before Sept. 1 (46 in 1930).
- Drew his 27th intentional walk on 8/12 vs. NY, breaking Stan Musial's 1958 club record for intentional walks in a season.
- On 8/19 at CHI, less than an hour after Sammy Sosa hit his 48th homer to take over the N.L. lead in the fifth inning, McGwire tied the game with his 48th homer in the eighth, then hit a game-winning shot (No. 49) in the 10th to reclaim the lead.
- Hit No. 50 in the first game of an 8/20 doubleheader at NY, becoming the first player to hit at least 50 homers in three successive seasons and the oldest player to hit 50 (34 years, 324 days, compared with Mize's previous mark of 34 years, 256 days). Tied major league records for fewest at-bats (390, which he set in 1996) and games played by team (125, set by Ruth in '21 and matched by Maris in '61) to reach 50 homers.

- Hit No. 51 in the second game of an 8/20 doubleheader at NY, setting a club record for most homers (24) hit on the road in one season.
- Hit No. 52 on 8/22 at PIT, setting major league records for most homers before Sept. 1 and most homers in three consecutive seasons (162), an N.L. record for home runs by a first baseman (breaking Mize's 1947 mark), and a club record for most homers in two consecutive seasons (76).
- Hit No. 53 and walked twice on 8/23 at PIT, breaking Jack Clark's 1987 club record of 136 walks in one season. Also broke his own major league record for most homers by a righthanded batter in consecutive seasons with his 111th since the start of play in 1997 (110 in 1996-97).
- Became the first N.L. player since Ralph Kiner in 1949 and only the third National Leaguer to hit as many as 54 homers in one season, blasting a 509-foot smash off the hitter's backdrop on 8/26 vs. FLA.
- Hit Nos. 56 and 57 on 9/1 at FLA. The second homer breaks Hack Wilson's 1930 N.L. record for most home runs in one season and Ruth's major league record for homers in consecutive seasons (114 in 1927-28).
- Smashed Nos. 58 and 59 in a 9/2 win at FLA, his second-straight two-homer game. The second homer enables him to surpass Jimmie Foxx, Hank Greenberg and his own 1997 total for most homers by a righthanded batter, and Greenberg's major league record for most homers by a first baseman.
- Belted a two-run, first-inning home run off Cincinnati lefty Dennis Reyes on 9/5 at Busch, reaching 60 homers in the team's 142nd game — in 12 fewer games than Ruth (154) and 17 fewer than Maris (159).
- Tied Maris' mark of 61 homers with a first-inning solo homer off the Stadium Club against Cubs righthander Mike Morgan on 9/7. Hits 61 in 19 fewer games than Maris (144-163).
- Connected for historic No. 62 at 8:18 p.m. Central Time on Tuesday, 9/8 vs. CHI. With nobody on, two outs and the Cards trailing, 2-0, in the fourth inning, McGwire lined the first pitch from Cubs righthander Steve Trachsel an estimated 341 feet over the left-field wall — his shortest homer of the year. The ball cleared the wall 15 feet to the right of the foul pole and was retrieved under the stands by grounds crew worker Tim Forneris. The home run came in the Cardinals' 145th game and McGwire's 451st at-bat. The game was delayed 11 minutes by the ensuing celebration.
- Drew walk No. 152 on 9/12 at HOU, breaking Barry Bonds' 1996 N.L. record.
- Poked his 63rd homer (450th career) and his only pinch homer of '98 (sixth career) in the ninth inning of the first game of a 9/15 doubleheader vs. PIT.
- Pounded his 65th homer in the first inning 9/20 at MIL and had another apparent homer ruled a double due to fan interference. Tied Ruth's 1927 major league record for most homers on the road (32) and broke George Foster's 1977 N.L. mark.
- Kept pace with Sosa on 9/25 by belting his 66th HR, off Montreal's Shayne Bennett at Busch, just 45 minutes after Sosa hit No. 66 at HOU.
- Regained the homer lead with Nos. 67 and 68 on 9/26 vs. MON. No. 67 was his 35th homer at Busch, breaking Ted Kluszewski's 1954 N.L. record for most homers at home.
- In the 9/27 season finale vs. MON, singled in the first inning, hit a solo homer (No. 69) off Mike Thurman in the third, walked in the fifth and blasted No. 70 off Carl Pavano in the seventh — a three-run shot to left in his final at-bat of the year.

1999 – Hit 65 home runs to lead all major leaguers for the fourth straight season...finished two homers in front of Chicago's Sammy Sosa, the only other major leaguer to reach 50 homers, and became the first player since Dale Murphy (in 1984 and '85) to lead the N.L. in home runs for two consecutive seasons...homered in six of his last seven games to conclude the season with 522 career home runs, 10th on baseball's all-time list...led the National League with 147 RBIs, matching a career high established in 1998. Became the first Cardinal to top the league in RBIs since Joe Torre drove in an N.L.-high 137 runs in 1971...hit his 60th homer of the season on 9/26 at CIN, joining Sosa as the only other player to hit 60 or more home runs in consecutive seasons...the home run was McGwire's 400th of the 1990s, making him only the third player to hit as many as 400 in one decade, after Babe Ruth (467 in the 1920s) and Jimmie Foxx (415 in the 1930s)...finished the decade with 405...with a home run in the first game of an 8/22 DH at NY, extended his record for consecutive 50-homer seasons to four...also joined Ruth as the only other player to hit 50 or more homers in four different seasons...concluded the year with an average of 61 homers over the last four seasons, an all-time high...set major league records for home runs over a two-season (135), three-season (193), four-season (245) and five-season (284) span...joined the exclusive 500 career home run club on 8/5 vs. SD, clouting a pair of homers off Andy Ashby: No. 500 was a 451-foot solo blast to center field; No. 501 was a 479-foot solo drive — his longest of 1999 — to left-center...became only the second player, after Harmon Killebrew, to have a multihomer game while reaching 500 homers...reached 500 homers in the fewest at-bats, 5,487, in history...also became the first player to hit his 400th and 500th career homers in back-to-back seasons...hit his 494th career homer as a first baseman on 9/1 vs. FLA, breaking Lou Gehrig's all-time record for first-sackers...finished the season with 507 career homers while in the lineup as a first baseman...posted his 62nd career multihomer game (ninth of the season) on 9/19 vs. HOU, tying Hank Aaron for third on the all-time list...became the first player in big-league history (min. 100 RBIs) to have more RBIs (147) than hits (145) in one season. (Seattle's Jay Buhner came close in 1995 with 121 RBIs and 126 hits.)...hit his 13th career grand slam on 9/17 vs. HOU...the blast was the first of three consecutive home runs the Cardinals hit during a nine-run fourth inning...became the 15th player to hit at least 100 home runs in both the American and National leagues when he connected for a grand slam off Greg Maddux on 5/4 at ATL...tripled on 8/2 vs. SD (off Trevor Hoffman), ending his record span of 4,618 at-bats without a triple, dating to 6/20/88...clubbed a pair of three-run homers on 7/16 vs. CWS to equal a career high with six RBIs...became just the third player (after Willie Stargell, twice, and Mike Piazza) to hit a ball out of Dodger Stadium with a 484-foot blast over the left-center field pavilion on 5/22.

ADDITIONAL 1999 MILESTONES & HIGHLIGHTS:

- Homered on Opening Day for the second straight season, connecting off the Brewers' David Weathers on 4/5.
- Hit his 55th career homer at Busch Stadium on 5/12 vs. PHI, tying George Hendrick for third on the all-time Busch Stadium home run list.
- Blasted a 427-foot homer into Big Mac Land on 5/27 off the Giants' Mark Gardner; it marked the second straight year he homered into Big Mac Land, both off Gardner.
- Scored his 1,000th career run with a solo homer off Russ Ortiz on 7/10 at SF.
- Hit his first career homer at Atlanta's Turner Field on 5/4, his first regular-season homer at Dodger Stadium on 5/22 and his first at Cincinnati's Cinergy Field on 7/22, increasing the number of ballparks he's homered in to 34.
- Voted the starting first baseman on the N.L. All-Star team for the second consecutive season, his 11th career All-Star selection and fifth in a row.
- Staged an eye-popping extravaganza during the Home Run Derby festivities before the All-Star Game; clubbed 13 first-round homers, eclipsing Cal Ripken's one-round record from 1991. McGwire's home runs traveled a combined 5,692 feet, including a 488-foot blast high over Fenway Park's Green Monster to conclude the first round.
- Averaged one home run every 6.3 at-bats (37 HR/232 ABs) following the All-Star break.
- Homered in four straight games, 7/30-8/2, a club high he shared with Craig Paquette.
- Set an N.L. record and tied a major league mark for most home runs (16) in July. Earned N.L. Player of the Month honors with a .295 average, 16 homers and 30 RBIs.
- Tied Sosa for the N.L. home run lead with his 61st homer on 9/27 at CIN. Took the lead on 9/29 vs. SD by homering in both games of a doubleheader (Nos. 62 and 63). It was McGwire's first time on top since 8/18, when he led 48 homers to 47.
- Blasted his final home run, No. 65, in a rain-shortened season finale on 10/3 vs. CHI -- his first homer on a 3-0 count as a Cardinal.
- Increased his Busch Stadium career totals to 88 homers and 191 RBIs in 182 games (one homer every 6.9 at-bats).
- Finished second on the team in games played with 153. Leads the team over the last two seasons with 308 games.
- Despite another record-setting performance, finished fifth in N.L. Most Valuable Player voting and was left off the postseason All-Star and Silver Slugger teams.
- In an announcement at the World Series, was named to baseball's All-Century Team, joining Cal Ripken Jr., Roger Clemens and Ken Griffey Jr. as the only active players to receive such honors.
- Selected as St. Louis Baseball Man of the Year for second straight season by St. Louis BBWAA Chapter; was also named to Cardinals All Half-Century team that was selected by St. Louis BBWAA.
- On 11/18, he and the Cardinals agreed to exercise his mutually held option for the 2001 season.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

2000 SEASON:

- Returned to majors after missing the entire 1999 season following elbow injury in the spring of 1999 that required "Tommy John" surgery.
- Made five injury rehab starts during May following a stint with the Cardinals Extended Spring Training team. He was 1-2, 7.98 at Memphis in 14.2 IP and was 0-0, 6.43 for Arkansas in 7.0 IP.
- Was recalled from injury rehab assignment & activated from DL on 5/28.
- Finished second on the team among relievers with his 53.0 innings pitched and 4 saves.
- Closed out 9/23 win at CHI with 1.2 IP & was credited with his 4th save.
- Fanned four of five batters faced to finish out 9/7 win vs. MON with 2.0 scoreless innings. The four strikeouts matched his season high (6/4 vs.CLE).
- Won 8/12 at MIL for 1st time since 9/22/98.
- Struck out three batters on 9/17 vs. CHI and was credited with Sv #3.
- Went 3.1 innings at HOU on 7/23 - his longest outing of the season.
- Was saddled with his 2nd loss on 7/7 vs. SF, allowing 2 runs in his 2.0 IP.
- Worked 1.1 scoreless innings 7/5 vs. CIN, earning his 3rd hold.
- Allowed three runs (Shawn Green 3-run HR) on 6/23 vs. LA during his 2.0 IP, suffering his first blown save.
- Allowed just 3 HR's. Each time he allowed a home run during 2000, Matt also suffered a blown save.
- Was credited with Sv #2 on 6/14 at SD when he worked 1.2 scoreless innings.
- Blanked the Tigers over the final 2.0 innings on 6/11 in a 7-3 win at DET.
- Allowed 8th inning run in 3.0 IP on 6/3 vs. CLE & suffered loss.
- Worked 3.0 scoreless inn. 5/30 at ARI for his first professional save. It marked his 1st ML relief outing & 1st game appearance since 9/27/98.

2000 POSTSEASON — Worked a scoreless inning of relief in both Game 2 and Game 3 of the Division Series vs. ATL...made two relief appearances during NLCS versus NY Mets, including 2.2 innings of work in Game 2.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1995 — Made an impressive professional debut, allowing just two hits in five innings, while striking out six in a 1-0 win over Pittsfield on 7/12...was promoted to St. Petersburg after his second win at New Jersey...faced the minimum 21 batters and struck out eight in a seven-inning, one-hit shutout over Sarasota in Game 1 of a doubleheader on 8/21...named Florida State League Pitcher of the Week for 8/21-27 after throwing six scoreless innings with nine strikeouts in a 3-1 win over Tampa...pitched for Cards' Winter Instructional League club, posting a 1.17 ERA with four walks and 20 strikeouts in 23 innings.

1996 — The workhorse of the organization, Morris led all Cardinals minor leaguers with 175 innings pitched, mostly at Class-AA Arkansas with one start for Class-AAA Louisville...his four shutouts for Arkansas led the Texas League and helped earn him a spot on the league's All-Star team...tied for second in the league with four complete games and 12 wins, tied for third with 27 starts, ranked fourth with 167 innings, fifth with 120 strikeouts and 10th with a 3.88 ERA...in the Cardinal organization, he tied for fourth in wins and tied for fifth with 129 strikeouts...his four complete games were all four-hit shutouts...in his first start of the season, tossed three-hit ball over six innings with seven strikeouts, earning an 11-2 victory 4/6 at Shreveport...struck out a season-high eight batters in an 8-2 triumph 4/26 vs. Tulsa...issued 10 walks in 64.2 innings (1.39 BB/9IP) over 10 starts, 6/5 - 7/26...won three consecutive starts, two by shutout, 6/29 - 7/11...promoted to Louisville in the season's final week...in his only Class-AAA start, struck out nine over eight innings in a 3-0 loss 9/1 vs. Indianapolis.

1997 — Turned in one of the top rookie seasons by a Cards pitcher, earning selection as The Sporting News' N.L. Rookie Pitcher of the Year and tying for second in N.L. Rookie of the Year voting conducted by the BBWAA...led all major league rookies in ERA (3.19) and strikeouts (149), and paced N.L. rookie hurlers with 12 wins, which tied Todd Stottlemyre for the team lead...yielded only 12 home runs in 217 innings, posting the fourth-best homers-to-innings ratio among N.L. pitchers...had his best stuff at Busch, going 9-5 with a 2.73 ERA in 21 starts...was 4-1 in June and had a 2.18 ERA in July...in interleague starts vs. the Indians, Twins and White Sox was a combined 2-0 with a 1.19 ERA (22.2 innings/three earned runs)...pitched his first complete game in the majors 5/23 at SF but lost 2-0 to Shawn Estes...pitched his second complete game of the season 9/22 at PIT but lost 3-1...retired the first 17 batters 5/1 vs. FLA en route to his first major league win, a 3-2 Cards victory...made his big-league debut 4/4 at HOU, allowing one run on seven hits in five-plus innings, but did not earn a decision in the Cards' 3-2 extra-innings loss...in his 8/5 "homecoming" to New York state, worked 8.1 innings vs. the Mets in the rain, but did not earn a decision in the Cards' 5-4, 10-inning loss. Left the game with a 4-3 lead, but NY rallied for single runs in the ninth and 10th...with the temperature hitting 104 degrees, pitched 7.2 innings (five hits, one run) to post a 3-1 win (No. 8) vs. FLA on 7/26...earned his third victory over the Marlins on 8/22 at FLA, his ninth win of the year...in his 33 starts, the Cards were 18-15 while averaging 4.6 runs per game...at the plate, batted .205 (15-for-73) with six RBIs. Had a pinch-hitting appearance in Cards' extra-innings loss at SD on 6/10.

1998 — Made just one start before the All-Star break due to a strained right shoulder that confined him to the disabled list...returned on 7/10 to make 16 starts in the second half, concluding his sophomore season with a club-low 2.53 ERA...led the staff with a 1.94 ERA at Busch (in 10 starts) and a 2.07 ERA in night games (11 starts)...yielded two earned runs or fewer in 12 of his 17 starts...had a stretch of 18 consecutive scoreless innings over his last three starts...the Cardinals were 11-6 when he took the mound...made his only start of the first half on 4/11 at SF, and allowed two runs in five innings but did not earn a decision...in his first start off the disabled list, 7/10 vs. HOU, pitched six shutout innings, struck out six and allowed only three hits...threw 70 pitches, including 59 for strikes, but did not earn a decision in the 6-3 win...gained his first victory 7/20 at SD, allowing just one run (a Greg Vaughn homer) and three hits in 6.1 innings...pitched a complete game 8/4 at MIL while lowering his career ERA below 3.00...scattered four hits in a 2-1 win...established a career high with 10 strikeouts vs. CIN on 9/6 but did not earn a decision in a two-run, seven-inning outing...pitched seven scoreless innings on 9/16 vs. PIT in a 4-0 win...collected his first career shutout and fifth career complete game on 9/22 vs. HOU, allowing just five hits while matching a career high with 10 strikeouts.

1999 — Missed the entire campaign after injuring his right elbow in spring training...was placed on the disabled list on 3/26 and Dr. Frank Jobe performed "Tommy John" surgery in Los Angeles on 4/13...the procedure replaced a torn ligament in Morris' pitching elbow with a tendon from his right hand.

MISC: Attended Seton Hall University, where he played baseball and was named first team All-American...played for Team USA in 1994...named top prospect among college pitchers by Baseball America...graduated in 1992 from Valley Central H.S., where he played soccer, baseball and basketball...enjoys golf in his spare time...taped a PSA last year for St. Louis Police Department for National Night Out Against Crime & is active with Cardinals Care in doing hospital visits...was signed by Cardinals' scout Joe Rigoli...resides in Jupiter, Fla.

- Posted a .404 on-base pct. and .370 batting average in 18 spring games.

2000 POSTSEASON – Made his first postseason appearance and came off the bench to see action in two of the Division Series games versus Atlanta and four of the five games duing NL Championship Series versus the Mets.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1989 – Paced South Oregon (A) with 14 home runs...finished second in the Northwest League with a .336 batting average...led the league in doubles (22) and total bases (t-163)...was the top-fielding third baseman in the league (.936).

1990 – Led Modesto (A) with 23 doubles...finished second on the team with 15 home runs and 59 RBIs...was voted the top-fielding third baseman in the California League.

1991 – Finished the season with a then career-best 60 RBIs after starting the campaign on the disabled list following right shoulder surgery in January.

1992 – Clubbed a combined 19 home runs and drove in 82 runs between Huntsville (AA) and Tacoma (AAA).

1993 – Was promoted from Triple-A Tacoma to Oakland on 5/31...started at third base in 100 of the 117 games he was with the A's...made his first start on 6/1 and collected his first major league hit, a single against Baltimore's Ben McDonald...hit safely in 18 of his first 23 games and had 19 RBIs in his first 20 games...posted his first four-hit game 6/29 vs. CAL...belted his first major league home run off the Twins' Jim DeShaies on 6/12 at MIN.

1994 – Split the season between Triple-A Tacoma and Oakland...batted .286 at Tacoma and tied for the club lead with 17 home runs, despite playing only 65 games...opened the year at Tacoma and was recalled to the A's on 6/8...stayed with Oakland for two and a half weeks before being sent back to Tacoma on 6/26...season came to an end on 7/14, when he fractured his left ankle while sliding into second base.

1995 – Played the entire season for Oakland, posting then career highs in batting average, runs, home runs, RBIs and stolen bases...made 60 starts at third base, 12 in leftfield and one start each at first base and shortstop...prior to the season he had made just one appearance at a position other than third base...on 6/4 vs. BAL, he collected the first two-homer game of his career, with a grand slam (off Alan Mills) and a career-best seven RBIs...had a then career-high 15-game hitting streak from 8/17 to 9/1, batting .350 (21-for-60) during that period...finished his Oakland tenure ranked fourth in career games at third base, behind Sal Bando, Carney Lansford and Wayne Gross.

1996 – Was released by Oakland in spring training and was signed by Kansas City on 4/3...led the Royals in home runs (22) and RBIs (67)...opened the year at Triple-A Omaha and batted .333 with four homers and 13 RBIs in 18 games...contract was purchased by KC on 4/28, and he proceeded to notch career highs in nearly every offensive category...made 41 starts in leftfield, 34 at third base, 17 at first and six as the DH...had a pair of four-RBI games, 6/13 vs. BAL and 7/18 at CHI...posted a season-high nine-game hitting streak 8/13-23, batting .395 (15-for-38) in those contests.

1997 – Began the season as the Royals' Opening Day third baseman...played 77 games before he was designated for assignment on 7/28...joined Omaha (AAA) on 8/8...clubbed two home runs and had five RBIs vs. SEA on 5/24 and again vs. MIL on 6/27...hit safely in 15 of 17 games from 4/6 to 4/29.

1998 – Contract was purchased by the Mets from Triple-A Norfolk on 4/27...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/7 with a sprained left ankle...was transferred to the 60-day DL on 7/31, when he underwent ankle scope surgery to remove bone spurs (the surgery was performed by Dr. Martin O'Malley).

1999 – Appeared in 48 games for St. Louis after coming over from the New York Mets in a trading deadline deal for Shawon Dunston on 7/31...batted .287 with 10 home runs, 37 RBIs and a .516 slugging percentage for the Cardinals...did not appear in any games for the Mets in 1999...batted .330 (34-for-103) vs. righthanders and .300 (24-for-80) on the road...boasted a .358 (19-for-53) batting average with runners in scoring position...posted 10 multi-hit games and 11 multi-RBI games...seventeen of his 37 RBIs came with two outs...homered once every 15.7 at-bats for the Cardinals...versatile fielder made 37 starts at five different positions -- first base (1), second base (4), third base (7), left field (3) and right field (22)...batted .387 (12-for-31) with eight RBIs in seven games vs. MIL...began the year at Norfolk (AAA), where he batted .272 with 15 HRs and 54 RBIs...was a member of Team USA at the 1999 PanAm Games...batted .227 with two homers and three RBIs in seven games, helping the U.S. claim the Silver Medal...was recalled from Triple-A Memphis on 8/3 and made his Cardinals debut that night vs. San Diego...went 2-for-4 with a home run, double and three RBIs...hit safely in a season-high 11 straight games 8/8-8/22, batting .325 (13-for-40) with four home runs and 15 RBIs in that stretch...had four game-winning RBIs, including three games in a row 8/15-17...posted a six-game hitting streak 8/31-9/5 in which he went 13-for-26 (.500)...went 9-for-18 with five RBIs in a four-game series at MIL on 9/2-5, including 3-for-5 and a season-best four RBIs on 9/5...homered in four straight games (with 10 RBIs) 9/8 to 9/13.

NON-ROSTER INVITEE

2000 SEASON:

- Combined to make 65 appearances for the Cardinals and San Diego, the seventh-straight season in which he'd made 50 or more game appearances. He ranked third on the Cardinals in games pitched (43) despite being traded to the Padres in late July.
- Was 2-3 with a save (the 98th of his career) in 43 appearances with the Cardinals. He was 0-1 in 22 appearances for the Padres. His 22 games pitched after August 1 were the most by a Padres pitcher other than Trevor Hoffman (27) and Kevin Walker (24).
- Lone save came on 4/23 vs. COL in a rain-shortened 6-1/2 inning game that the Cardinals won, 6-3.
- Balk on 7/13 at CWS was the first of his ML career. It came in his 520th career game. He committed a second balk on 9/8 at SF while pitching for the Padres.
- Put together a season-best 10.1 IP scoreless innings streak that covered nine games from 8/16-9/6. He posted a 2.92 ERA in 14 games during August, his first month with the Padres.
- Six of the nine home runs he allowed came in road games. He allowed one grand slam (7/23 at HOU - Bill Spiers) but opposing batters went just 2-for-13 (.154) against him with the bases full. He didn't allow a single HR while pitching for San Diego.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1984 – Was signed by the Mets as a non-drafted free agent on 7/10...made a total of five appearances at Kingsport (Rookie) and Little Falls (A).

1985 – Was used primarily as a starter in his second professional season at Kingsport...allowed only 47 hits in 52.1 IP.

1986 – Led Class-A Little Falls with a 1.65 ERA and tied for the club lead with 25 appearances, all in relief.

1987 – Was selected by the Cubs in the the minor league Rule V Draft on 12/9/86...split the season between Class-A Peoria and Winston-Salem, posting a combined record of 11-6 in 25 games (20 starts).

1988 – His final season as a starter was with Winston-Salem...went 6-6 and led the Carolina League with 19 wild pitches.

1989 – Spent the entire season at Peoria, where he went 5-3 with 22 saves and a 1.78 ERA in 49 appearances...ranked fourth among Midwest League relievers with a .162 opponents' batting average.

1991 – Spent most of the season with Chicago...became the first Cubs rookie righthander to appear in at least 50 games since Bruce Sutter (52) in 1976...he and teammate Chuck McElroy (71 games) became the Cubs' first rookie tandem since 1974 to reach the 50-game mark ...made his big league debut on 4/11 vs. STL...picked up his first major league win 4/14 vs. PIT...allowed just two earned runs in a 23-game stretch, 5/17 to 7/1, a stretch of 22.1 IP...struck out Tim Wallach with two runners on to preserve a 4-3 win for his first major league save on 5/24 vs. MON.

1992 – Opened the season with the Cubs...earned his second career save 4/12 vs. STL...had a 5.91 ERA in 11 appearances before being optioned to Triple-A Iowa on 5/4...had a 2.59 ERA in 36 appearances at Iowa before being recalled to Chicago on 7/31...established career highs with 4.1 IP and seven strikeouts on 8/10 vs. MON...his wife Debbie (27) passed away in November after a battle with cancer.

1993 – Started the season at Iowa and had seven saves in 10 appearances before being promoted to the Cubs at the end of April...was dealt to CLE on 6/1 for shortstop Jose Hernandez...tossed 10.1 consecutive scoreless innings in his first six games with the Indians...notched his first A.L. win on 6/11 at TEX...was optioned to Triple-A Charlotte on 7/5 and was recalled by the Indians on 9/17.

1994 – Became the first Phillies righthander to win on Opening Day (4/4 at COL) since 1966...recorded his first major league hit and RBI on 4/13 vs. COL...compiled a four-game winning streak 4/4 to 5/24...missed six games due to the chicken pox, 7/14-19 .

1995 – Ranked fourth in the National League with 32 saves...became the Phillies closer after the third game of the year and promptly saved eight straight games from 4/28 to 5/14...was named the N.L. Pitcher of the Month for May after going 1-0 with a 1.76 ERA and 12 saves...compiled a 12.2 scorless inning stretch, 5/28 to 6/30...was named to the N.L. All-Star team after finishing the first half of the season with a 1-0 record, a 2.14 ERA and 20 saves...was the winning pitcher in the Mid-Summer Classic, becoming the third Phillies hurler to earn an All-Star win...allowed just two home runs in 65.1 IP on the year...at the time his 32 saves were the third-highest single-season total in club history.

1996 – Set career highs with 75 appearances, the fourth-highest total in the A.L. and third-most ever by a Red Sox hurler...converted 31 saves in 39 chances, including 16 in his last 17 opportunities...held the lead or tie in 51 of 65 (79%) of his chances...allowed only nine of 30 inherited runners to score...had 14 saves in 14 chances 8/6 to 9/20, including saves in seven straight appearances 8/6-21...went 3-0 with 15 saves and a 0.94 ERA in his final 22 games.

1997 – Posted his third consecutive 25-save season...ranked fifth in the American League with 76 appearances between Boston (49) and Seattle (27)...his 27 saves tied for sixth in the league...tossed a season-high 3.1 innings at BAL on 4/21...recorded five saves in June, all in a one-week span from 6/22 to 6/29, when he allowed just one earned run in that period...posted nine consecutive shutout appearances from 7/14 to 7/30...was traded to Seattle on 7/31 and immediately assumed the Mariners' closer role...recorded his first save with the Mariners at MIL on 8/3, when he struck out the side in the ninth inning...notched his 27th save on 9/23 vs. ANA, protecting a one-run lead to clinch the A.L. West title for Seattle...was 10-for-11 in save opportunities for the Mariners.

1998 – Overcame a slow start to become a steady contributer in the Seattle bullpen...finished third on the Mariners staff with 57 appearances...limited righthanders to a .225 batting average...after the All-Star break, limited opposing hitters to a .212 batting average...compiled a 2.65 ERA over his final 31 appearances (34.0 IP, 10 ER)...allowed a run in 14 of his first 17 games, but in only 11 of his last 40 games...recorded his first win of the season on 5/6 vs. CHI, snapping a career-high 11-game losing streak (dating back to 9/23/96)...posted a 2.70 ERA in September to lower his season ERA to 5.32, the lowest it was all season.

1999 – Was released by Baltimore in May and signed by St. Louis to a minor league contract on 5/15...pitched in 50 games, including 40 with the Cardinals and 10 with the Orioles...posted a 3-2 record with two saves, five holds and a 2.36 ERA in 53.1 innings for the Redbirds...his overall ERA was 3.77 in 62.0 innings of work...his ERA after the All-Star break was 2.17 (9 ER in 37.1 IP), including a 0.53 mark in September and October (1 ER in 17 IP)...opponents batted only .229 off him after the break...established a Cardinals 1999 club high with 16 consecutive scoreless innings pitched, 9/8-10/1...the string covered his last 11 outings of the season and opponents batted just .172 (10-for-58) off him in that stretch...worked two innings in 12 of his 40 games pitched for St. Louis...allowed two home runs vs. KC on 4/29 (his last game with BAL), marking the only time in 483 career appearances that he allowed more than one homer in a game...made a pair of one-inning relief appearances at Memphis (AAA) before the Cardinals purchased his contract on 5/26...made his Cardinals debut with two scoreless innings on 5/26 vs. SF and gained his first win the next day (5/27) over the Giants...worked one inning in relief 6/7 at KC and collected his second victory in a 7-5 Cards win...was placed on the 15-day disabled list 6/29 (retroactive to 6/23) with a strained right shoulder...it marked his first career appearance on the DL...returned from the DL on 7/16 and tossed two scoreless innings that night vs. the White Sox...notched his first Cardinals save on 7/23 at COL...his third win came vs. SD on 8/4...pitched 1.1 innings and struck out two batters...suffered his second loss when he allowed two unearned runs in 1.1 innings vs. CHI on 8/14.

MISC: Graduated from John Browne High School in Flushing, NY, in 1984...has two daughters. Jessica (12/31/86) and Heather (10/6/90)...is very active with the American Cancer Society and visits numerous children's hospitals...enjoys reading and playing golf...while with Boston, received the 1996 BoSox Club "Man of the Year" Award for his community endeavors and contributions to the success of the team...he's pitched for eight big league teams, including at least one from each of baseball's six current divisions.

FULL NAME: Robert Allan Smith
BORN: 10/23/79 at Torrance, California
OPENING DAY AGE: 21 M.L. SERVICE: 0.000
BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the fourth round of the June 1998 free-agent draft.
CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

2000 SEASON:

- Claimed the Cardinals' Minor League Pitcher of the Year honor after posting a combined 17-2 record and 2.26 ERA between his two stops at Arkansas (AA) and Memphis (AAA).
- Received a host of awards in 2000, including being named Baseball Weekly's Minor League Pitcher of the Year, the Texas League's Pitcher of the Year and Baseball America's Double-A Player of the Year. Also was named to Topps' Double-A All-Star team and to Howe Sportsdata's Pacific Coast League All-Prospect team.
- Led the Cardinals system in wins and ERA and figured in the top 10 in innings pitched (3rd-163.0), strikeouts (3rd-136) and opponents' batting average (10th-.223).
- Posted a personal winning streak of 15 consecutive games, tops in the minor leagues, from 5/6 to 8/21.
- Twirled a pair of no-hitters, both of the seven-inning variety. Blanked Midland in the second game of a doubleheader on 5/6, recording five strikeouts and one walk. Also tossed a no-no in the back end of a doubleheader on 6/11, when he blanked San Antonio, 1-0, and retired 17 straight batters between the first and seventh innings.
- Averaged more than three strikeouts per walk allowed (136:42).
- Was named Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Month twice - in July and August. Went 5-0 with a 2.27 ERA in July (at Arkansas) and posted a 3-1, 2.03 mark in August (at Memphis).
- Triple-A opponents batted just .206 off him, with four home runs in 54.1 innings pitched. Double-A batsmen hit .231 off him, with only five homers in 108.2 innings of work.
- Boasted a perfect fielding mark for the second straight season. Has made just one error (1998) in three years of pro ball.
- Had an incredible month of May, when he made five starts and went 5-0 with a 1.21 ERA. Allowed only 18 hits and four earned runs in 29.2 innings of work. Also struck out 27 batters and walked just seven.
- Despite missing the last month of the Texas League season, he finished as the circuit's leader in complete games (3) and shutouts (3).

- Was twice named the Texas League's Pitcher of the Week - May 1-7 and June 5-11.
- Allowed just one hit, fanned six and walked none in a rain-shortened five-inning win at Shreveport on 5/27.
- Started for the Texas League All-Stars in the 6/20 Texas-Mexican All-Star Game. Pitched two scoreless innings while allowing just one hit and striking out three.
- Fanned a season-high 10 batters in seven innings of work at San Antonio on 7/22.
- Went 2-for-3 at the plate and smacked his first professional home run in a 4-1 win over Shreveport on 7/27.
- Had his 15-game winning streak snapped when Memphis was defeated by Nashville, 7-5, on 8/27. Smith allowed four unearned runs and three hits over 6.1 innings. The loss was his first since 4/25.
- Helped lead Memphis through the PCL playoffs, where he went 2-0 with a 3.46 ERA. Struck out 13 batters in 13.0 innings and opponents batted just .178 off him.
- Suffered the loss in his only outing in the Triple-A World Series vs. Indianapolis.
- Including three postseason appearances, his overall 2000 record was 19-3.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in the 18th round of the June 1998 free agent draft.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

2000 SEASON:

- Ran away with the Potomac and Carolina League stolen base records, swiping an incredible 109 bases.
- His 109 steals were the second most stolen bases in Cardinals' minor league history behind Vince Coleman (145 at Macon in 1983).
- Stole his 100th base on 8/17 and broke Lenny Dykstra's (1983) Carolina League single-season stolen base record on 8/21 when swiped a pair of bases vs. Lynchburg. He finished the season just two steals shy of tying Marcus Lawton (111 SB's in 1985) for the fifth-highest single-season stolen base total in the minors since 1980.
- Was named to the Carolina League All-Star team.
- Finished second in the league with 82 runs scored.
- Best offensive month came in May when he hit .287 with five doubles, 12 RBI and stole 23 bases.
- Led all minor leaguers with his 23 steals in May and 27 in June. He also posted 21 steals in April and 22 in August.
- He was batting .269 over the first two months of the season, but a dislocated finger sent him into a tailspin at the plate during July and he hit just .189 after the month of June. He had more steals (27) than hits (25) in June.
- Was 4-for-4 with a double and one RBI on 6/15 vs. Wilmington; also stole three bases in the game.
- Swiped a season-high four bases on 8/19 at Frederick. Hit a grand slam in 5-0 win at Salem on 5/16.
- Stole three or more bases eight times, but he was also caught stealing a minor league-leading 35 times.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1998 – Played in 58 games for New Jersey (A) in his first professional season...stole a New York-Penn League high 42 bases, third in all of short-season minor league play...led the minor leagues with 27 steals in August...swiped five bases, matching the most in a minor league game, on 8/9 vs. Jamestown.

1999 – Split time between Class-A Potomac and Class-A Peoria in his second year with the club...his 64 stolen bases ranked sixth among all Class-A minor leaguers and led the Cardinals minor league system...swiped 24 bases in May, third among all minor league systems...his 35 stolen bases at Potomac were fourth in the Carolina League...stole five bases 5/28 vs. Kinston, tying a Carolina League record...scored a run in 12 consecutive games 8/9-8/22 (.306 BA, 2 HR, 9 RBI, 8 SB).

MISC: Graduated in 1994 from Williston (Fla.) High School where he played baseball, football and ran track...attended Central Florida University where he played both baseball and football...was member of Trans America Athletic Conference championship baseball teams at CFU from 1995-98...he resides in Williston, Fla.

BORN: 1/2/72 at Tacoma Park, Maryland.

OPENING DAY AGE: 29 M.L. SERVICE: 3.148

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Philadelphia Phillies with pitcher Ricky Bottalico in a trade for outfielder Ron Gant and pitchers Jeff Brantley and Cliff Politte, November 19, 1998.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001.

2000 SEASON:

- Had a break out season, taking the reigns as one of the team's most consistent starters while posting a career-high16 wins. His win total for the season surpassed his career win total (14) entering 2000.
- Made a career-high 31 starts and surpassed the 200 innings pitched mark for the first time in his career.
- He was 15-6 versus NL foes and 1-2 versus AL opponents.
- Earned NL Pitcher of the Month honors for May, when he went 5-0 with a 1.42 ERA in six games (five starts)...he tossed two complete games, one shutout (at ARI) and opponents batted just .217 off him for the month.

- Went 4-0 with a 2.65 ERA in five August starts, as opponents batted just .221 vs. him.
- Has won 22 of his 34 decisions since joining the Cardinals in 1999, including nine of 15 at home and 13 of 19 on the road.
- Despite collecting just three hits, Garrett delivered a team-leading 13 sac. bunts.
- Notched his 16th and final win on 9/11 at PIT in an 8-4 decision. Went 7.0 innings and allowed four runs on seven hits. Also collected an RBI-single off Jose Silva.
- Lost for the first time in seven starts dating back to 7/30 in his 9/6 start vs. MON. Worked 8.0 innings, but was charged with four runs on nine hits, including a pair of HR's, in the 7-2 defeat.
- Did not earn a decision in his 9/1 start vs. NY. Went 5+ innings and allowed five runs on seven hits, including two HRs, but the Cardinals came back to post a 6-5 win on Jim Edmonds' ninth-inning homer.
- Won his fourth-straight game and improved to 15-7 with a 6-3 win at ATL on 8/26 when he went 6.2 innings and allowed just one run on seven hits. Allowed no runs and only four hits through six innings before giving up three hits, a walk and a run before making his exit in the seventh frame.
- Upped his mark to 14-7 with a seven-inning effort vs. PIT on 8/21. Allowed a two-run homer to J. Kendall in the first and then retired 16 of the next 18 batters before giving up a two-run shot to B. Giles in the sixth.
- Won his 13th game with a 4-2 win at CHI on 8/15, going 7.0 innings and allowing two runs on six hits. Allowed a first-inning homer to S. Sosa, but allowed only one runner to reach second base after that.
- Did not earn a decision in his 7.2-inning effort 8/10 vs. COL. Allowed four runs on eight hits and had a 14.2 scoreless innings streak snapped in that contest.
- Tossed his second shutout of the season and third complete game with a 5-0 blanking of ATL on 8/5. Threw just 108 pitches in the nine-inning effort and allowed only five hits and one walk, as no Braves reached 3rd base.
- Got into trouble early and suffered his seventh loss, 4-2, at NY on 7/30. Allowed a run in the first and three more in the second and made his exit after four innings of work.
- Was steady in a 7-3 win over Randy Johnson and the Diamondbacks on 7/25 at STL. He allowed three fourth-inning runs, but the Cards overcame a 3-0 deficit vs. the "Big Unit" to give Garrett his 11th win.
- Lost his sixth game of the year on 7/19 at Bank One Ballpark. Went six innings and allowed four runs (three earned). Gave up three runs in a four-hit fourth inning.
- Had a solid eight-inning outing 7/14 at Comiskey Park, earning his 10th win of the year in a 9-4 win vs. the White Sox. Allowed a two-run HR to F. Thomas in the first, but settled down to face just three batters over the minimum the second thru eighth frames.
- Lost his fifth game 7/8 vs. SF. Failed to reach the fifth inning for the second-straight game, allowing six runs in 4.1 innings of a 7-6 loss to the Giants.
- Went without a decision in his start vs. HOU on 7/1. Allowed three homers and 11 hits in four innings of work and left the game trailing 7-6 in an eventual 10-9 win.
- After a spectaular May, Garrett lost four of his five decisions in June and went just 1-4 with a 4.26 ERA, as the Cards scored just 10 runs in his five June starts.
- Lost a 3-2 decision at CIN on 6/26. Allowed three runs in six innings, including home runs to K.Griffey Jr. and D.Young.
- Was a victim of low run support and fell to 9-3 vs. SF on 6/21. Allowed just three runs in 7.1 innings and struck out seven, but the Giants won 4-1. Garrett collected his first base hit of the season and drove in the Redbirds' only run of the night.
- Improved to 9-2 with a solid 3-1 win at San Diego 6/14. Went 7.1 innings and allowed just one run (a solo HR to Al Martin in the first) on five hits.
- Lost 4-2 at DET on 6/9. Allowed four runs on six hits through 6.0 IP, as the Cards were held to just four hits against Jeff Weaver.
- Suffered his first loss of 2000 on 6/3 vs. CLE. Had both his career-best eight-game winning streak and 18.1-inning scoreless streak snapped...went 5+ innings & allowed four runs on seven hits...B. Colon tossed six inn. of no-hit ball vs. STL in 4-2 win.
- Tossed his second-straight CG on 5/29 at ARI, allowing just six hits with no walks and eight strikeouts. Leadoff hitter Tony Womack was the only D-Back to reach second base (twice). Garrett became the first STL pitcher since Todd Stottlemyre (May 1998) to toss back-to-back CGs. The win made him the first Cardinals starting pitcher to open a season 8-0 since Bob Gibson in 1965.
- Tossed the first CG by a Cardinal in 2000 when he defeated the Marlins, 5-1 on 5/24. It was the third complete game of his career. Became the first STL pitcher since Bob Tewksbury (1994) to open a season 7-0.

- Won his career-best sixth-straight game on 5/18 at PHI. Went 5.2 innings and allowed two runs on nine hits in a 7-2 Cards victory.
- Came out of the bullpen vs. the Dodgers on 5/14 and earned a hold when he tossed one perfect inning.
- Garnered his fifth win on 5/9 at SF. Allowed three runs on eight hits in 5.2 innings pitched, as the Cards rolled to a 13-6 win at Pac Bell.
- Fired 7.2 innings of shutout ball vs. PIT on 5/4. Allowed just three hits and struck out six while walking six.
- Posted his third win on 4/28 at PHI. Went 5.0 innings and allowed four runs on seven hits in a 7-4 Cardinals victory.
- Struggled in a 10-6 win at HOU on 4/11 allowing all six runs in the 3rd inn.; Cards rallied, scoring seven runs in their 7th inning.
- Earned his first win of the year on 4/6 in a 13-3 rout of the Cubs. Worked seven innings and allowed three runs.

2000 POSTSEASON – Was handed starting assignment in Game 3 of Division Series at ATL and logged 3.2 IP, allowing one run, when he was forced to leave the game with recurring elbow tightness...he was left off the roster during the NLCS after it was determined he was suffering from a sprained medial collateral ligament and a strained flexor muscle in his right elbow.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1992 – Made pro debut for Bluefield's Appalachian League champions...made three starts in 12 appearances...allowed one hit in first three outings, all scoreless...pitched six shutout innings in his first start, 7/16 vs. Princeton.

1993 – Led Orioles' system with 16 wins and was fourth with 147 strikeouts for Class-A Albany...shared South Atlantic League lead with two shutouts, finished second in wins and fourth with 2.84 ERA...made 30 appearances, 24 starts, going 14-7...just as effective out of bullpen with two wins and a save in six outings...tossed no-hit game 6/9 vs. Macon, recording 11 strikeouts and one walk in a 1-0 win...worked another low-hit effort, yielding one safety in seven innings 8/13 vs. Capital City...allowed two or fewer runs in 13 of his last 19 starts...promoted to Class-A Frederick on 9/4 for Carolina League playoffs.

1994 – Opened at Frederick before joining Class-AA Bowie of the Eastern League...recorded minor league career-high 165 strikeouts over 144 innings...had fourth-highest strikeout rate in minors with 10.31 per nine innings and led EL starters with a 10.87 pace (126 K/104.1 IP)...finished second in O's organization in strikeouts...had five double-figure strikeout games with Frederick...fanned season-high 13 in seven innings and allowed only an unearned run on three hits, but suffered loss, 4/23 at Prince William...in only relief outing among 25 appearances all season, 5/21 vs. Durham, struck out seven in three innings...promoted to Bowie on 7/3...posted 11 strikeouts while walking none in four-hit shutout 7/8 vs. New Haven...returned to Frederick 8/11...was 2-0 in last four Class-A starts...impressive in final three outings, permitting no earned run over 22 innings and a .111 opponents' batting average (8-for-72) with 29 strikeouts...returned to Bowie on 9/5 and won regular-season finale vs. Harrisburg...suffered loss in decisive fifth game of EL semifinal series vs. Harrisburg.

1995 – Spent entire season with Bowie and made Eastern League-high 29 starts...also placed second in league with 175.1 innings and third with 139 strikeouts...had seven walk-free outings of at least seven innings...held righthanded hitters to a .219 average...went 4-0, 0.94 ERA over five starts, 6/20 to 7/12...tossed only complete game of season, allowing a run on seven hits 6/20 vs. Norwich...carried a no-hit bid until a two-out single in ninth at Norwich on 6/30, yielding an unearned run and fanning 11 over nine full innings, then picking up a 2-1 win in 10 innings...pitched for Scottsdale in Arizona Fall League.

1996 – Spent bulk of season at Rochester, first Class-AAA experience...ranked among International League leaders with one shutout (tie, third) and three complete games (tie, fourth)...went 6-0, 3.25 ERA at home...served up one home run as late as the fifth inning in 23 appearances and allowed .229 batting average (50-218) after third inning...threw two-hit, seven-inning shutout in first game of doubleheader, 7/14 at Norfolk, and in so doing, earned IL pitcher of the week honors...was also middle leg of three conecutive winning starts during which he allowed 1.44 ERA (4 ER/25 IP) and .113 batting average (9-80)...recalled 7/25 for major league debut that night at CLE, where he allowed three runs in 4.1 innings of relief, earning no decision in 10-7 loss...made two more relief appearances, also vs. Indians, before being sent back to Rochester 8/6...won two of last three starts to help Rochester win playoff berth...would not see postseason action for third time in five years as he was sent to PHI organization 9/4 to complete trade of six days earlier...attended Phillies' Florida Instructional League.

1997 – Opened season at Class-AAA Scranton/Wilkes-Barre...went 3-1 over four outings, 4/7-23, three starts and a six-inning relief stint, 4/23 at Ottawa, in which he picked up the win...made seven appearances at Triple-A before Phils bought contract 5/9...made National League debut, and first big-league start, 5/13 vs. STL...struck out career-high 12, most by a pitcher in first major league start since Astros' J.R. Richard whiffed 15 on 9/5/71 vs. SF, and became first in Phillies history to post two-figure strikeout tally in first ML start...allowed two runs on two hits but got no decision in 3-2 loss...singled off Andy Benes in first ML at-bat...would go on to finish among NL rookie leaders with two complete games (tie-2nd), eight wins (tie-5th), 117 innings (7th), 18 starts (8th), 81 strikeouts (9th)...in second start, 5/18 vs. HOU, collected first win, allowing an unearned run over seven innings in 5-3 decision...each of four April starts decided by two runs or less, as he went 2-1, 1.33 ERA (4 ER/27 IP) and gave up .189 batting average (17-90)...inflamed left knee resulted in 6/10 scratch and placement on disabled list retro to 6/5...reactivated for 6/22 start at ATL and, though lasting season-low 2.2 innings, did collect RBI double, first of ML career in each category...made first N.L. relief appearance, 7/6 vs CHI...worked first major-league complete game, 7/15 at ATL, a four-hitter and 8-1 win...had 12.2 straight walkless innings, 7/25 to 8/6...following departure from 8/17 start at HOU with tightness in right forearm, placed on DL second time in season, 8/18 to 9/2...returned with an inning of relief 9/3 vs. NYY...would go 2-1, 1.84 ERA (6/29.1) and .194 BA (20-for-103) in last four starts...capped rookie campaign with a second four-hit complete game, 9/24 vs. ATL.

1998 – Started the season with the Phillies, his first year on a major league Opening Day roster....surrendered two runs over six innings in Phillies' home opener, 4/12 vs. ATL, but was tabbed with the loss in the Braves' 3-2 win...made six starts before being optioned on 5/5 to Sranton/Wilkes-Barre of the Class-AAA International League...won his first start, 5/11 at Louisville, allowing two runs in seven innings...was disabled 6/27 to 8/3 with a sore right shoulder...returned to work an inning in relief 8/6 at Pawtucket and five shutout innings in a start 8/10 at Rochester.

1999 – Went 6-3 with a 4.22 ERA in his first season with the Cardinals...his six wins tied for third-most on the Cardinals staff...made his first five appearances out of the bullpen before moving into the starting rotation in August...made 12 starts and went 5-3 with a 3.84 ERA in that role...posted 49 strikeouts and allowed only 26 walks in 75.0 innings as a starter....his August ERA of 1.36 (5 ER in 33.0 IP) ranked as the best in the majors...posted a 5-1 record with a 3.43 ERA and a 43-19 strikeout-to-walk ratio in 13 night games...held righthanded hitters to a .236 batting average...made two stints with the Cardinals...was originally recalled from Triple-A Memphis on 6/23 and optioned back on 7/17...was recalled for the second time on 8/6...opened the season with one start at Class-AA Arkansas before moving up to Memphis, where he went 1-1 with a 3.16 ERA in four starts...earned his first Cardinals win in relief on 7/17 vs. CWS...was recalled from Memphis on 8/6 and made his first Cardinals start that night in the second game of a twinbill at PIT...lifted his record to 2-0 and posted an outstanding seven-inning effort in which he allowed only one run on three hits, with eight strikeouts and no walks...upped his record to 3-0 with a 5-1 win at PHI on 8/11...went 7.1 innings and allowed only five hits...gave up a first-inning home run to Ron Gant for the Phillies' lone run...left his 8/17 start vs. PHI after 3.2 IP when he suffered a bruised left forearm resulting from a Mike Lieberthal line drive...improved to 4-0 with a 7-5 win in game two of an 8/22 DH at NY...allowed just two runs (one earned) in his seven-plus innings pitched...established a career-high and matched Kent Bottenfield's 1999 club mark when he won his fifth-straight game with a 9-3 win vs. FLA on 9/1...suffered his first loss with a 4-1 setback vs. Greg Maddux at ATL on 9/6...went 2-for-2 at the plate, with a double and an RBI en route to his sixth win vs. HOU on 9/17...went five innings and allowed a season-high six runs in an 11-8 Cardinals win over Jose Lima...lost his last two decisions, both against the Cubs...suffered a 5-3 loss at CHI on 9/22 and a 6-3 defeat at Busch on 10/2 — his final appearance of the year.

- Used exclusively as a reliever since he made his Double-A debut with El Paso in 1992, Jeff has made 396 straight relief appearances since his last pro start.
- Has pitched major league games for the Pirates, Padres, Reds and Astros; the Cardinals are his 10th organization, as he has also spent time in the Montreal, Philadelphia, Milwaukee, Florida, Pittsburgh, San Diego, Houston, Cincinnati and Colorado systems.
- He's made two stints each in the Brewers and Pirates chains... since the Expos drafted him in 1986, he's changed organizations 12 times, has been drafted three times (amateur, Rule V and expansion), signed seven free agent contracts, been traded (in July 1995 from San Diego to Houston for OF Phil Plantier), and claimed on waivers.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1986 - Originally the Expos' second-round selection in the 1986 June draft, averaged 9.9 strikeouts per nine innings in his first pro season at Jamestown (A).

1987 - On 7/26, he fanned 11 and allowed just one hit in 7.0 innings.

1988 - Compiled a combined 2.21 ERA in 18 games between West Palm Beach (A) and Jacksonville (AA).

1989 - Was promoted from Double-A Reading to Triple-A Scranton-WB on 7/29.

1990 - Jeff spent the full season with the Philadelphia's Single-A club in Clearwater and posted a 3.03 ERA.

1991 - In his last year as a starter, was released by PHI on 7/24 and signed by MIL on 8/2.

1992 - A Texas League All-Star at El Paso (AA), Jeff converted to the bullpen and pitched in 50 games, allowing just one homer in 82.0 innings pitched on the year...fanned eight in 3.0 innings 4/27.

1993 - His 53 appearances led New Orleans (AAA) and ranked fifth in the league...he saved 22 games.

1994 - Milwaukee released him before spring camp closed, and he signed for his first of two tours with the Pirates...was recalled 4/18 and made his major league debut 4/19 at CIN. .claimed on waivers by SD on 5/12, he earned his first major league save 5/29 vs. St. Louis...his first big-league hit was a double off Fernando Valenzuela, 6/22 at PHI.

1995 - Left spring training on San Diego's Opening Day roster, his first of two stints with the Padres (through 5/16; also 6/12-22)... was traded to HOU on 7/19 . remained with the Astros for the rest of the year...his first six Astros apperances were scoreless...over a longer stretch. 15 of his first 17 Astros games were scoreless, including 11 straight unblemished appearances (12.2 ip) through 9/15.

1996 - Broke camp with the Astros...registered his second major league save 4/12 at CIN...was optioned to Tucson (AAA) 5/21, he won six of his eight decisions for the Toros...recalled by HOU on 9/3, he closed the year with the Astros, making two more appearances.

1997 - The lefthander spent most of the year with Indianapolis (AAA) in the Reds chain...his ERA stood at 0.87 (31.0 IP/3 ER) after 31 games...he pitched 5.0 straight innings without allowing a hit, 5/18-6/6...on 7/19 at New Orleans, he threw five wild pitches...the Reds purchased his contract 8/19 and two of his three appearances were scoreless...he cleared waivers and returned to Triple-A on 8/26.

1998 - Set career highs in strikeouts and innings, spending most of the year with Pittsburgh...on the Bucs Opening Day roster, Tabaka was optioned to Nashville (AAA) 4/24, then recalled 4/27...on 5/1 vs. LA, he notched his first big-league victory since 9/15/95 with the Astros...on 5/24, he suffered a broken jaw and underwent surgery the next day...the Pirates placed him on the DL and he missed the next five weeks...after four rehab appearances with Nashville, he was reinstated 7/3...he worked a season-high 3.2 innings 8/13 at Cincinnati, fanning a career-best five in a shutout effort...he reeled off six straight scoreless appearances, 8/13-30, dropping his ERA to 2.40...his ERA at night (1.83) was more than five runs better than during the day (7.15)...opponents hit just .204 off him (LHB hit .175 and RHB hit .218).

1999 - Hampered by tendinitis in his left elbow during spring training, went on the 15-day disabled list 3/26...the Pirates transferred him to the 60-day DL on 4/16 and he missed the entire campaign recovering from surgery...after the season on 10/14, the Pirates outrighted him off their roster.

MISC: Earned all-state honors in baseball at Copley (Ohio) High School...was named third-team All-America at Kent State University...he and his wife, Gretchen, and daughter, Brooke (8), reside in Clinton, Ohio...name is pronounced tuh-BAW-kuh.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2002.

2000 SEASON:

- Came to the Cardinals in a trading-deadline deal with Baltimore and appeared in 25 games (29.2 innings pitched).
- Went 3-1 with one save and a 3.34 ERA for the Cards after going 2-3 with 11 saves and a 4.89 ERA for the Orioles.
- Worked at least one inning in 21 of the 25 games he pitched for the Cardinals. Pitched 2.0 innings in six of his Redbird outings.
- Converted 12 of 18 save opportunities on the year.
- Went 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA in 12 September games (14.0 IP).
- Earned his first National League save and 100th career rescue on 9/5 vs. MON.
- Fanned a season-best four batters in 2.0 IP on 9/16 vs. CHI for his third STL win.
- Tossed 2.0 scoreless innings on 8/30 at FLA, with three strikeouts.
- Suffered his first STL loss on 8/25 at ATL, allowing a three-run homer to Chipper Jones in the seventh inning.

2000 POSTSEASON: Appeared in five postseason games for the Cardinals, including two in the Division Series vs. the Braves and three in the League Championship Series vs. the Mets...notched a hold in Game 1 of the D.S. vs. ATL...did not allow any earned runs in 3.1 innings pitched in the NLCS, but suffered the loss in Game 2 at St. Louis on 10/12, when the Mets scored an unearned run in the ninth inning of a 6-5 decision.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1987 – Began his pro career with Medicine Hat of the Pioneer League...appeared in 13 games, including 12 as a starter, and went 4-8 with a 5.14 ERA.

1988 – Spent the entire season at Myrtle Beach...posted a 10-6 record and 2.86 ERA on the year, including a 7-3, 2.16 mark in the final two months of the season...made 22 starts and pitched a career-high 151 innings...led the South Atlantic League with 19 hit batsmen.

1989 – Played the entire season at Dunedin (A)...went 5-8 with a 3.25 ERA...pitched in 33 games and made the transition to the bullpen...earned seven saves, his first saves as a professional.

1990 – Began the season at Class-A Dunedin...was named Florida State League "Pitcher of the Week" for 4/6-15...had a nearly 3-to-1 strikeout to walk ratio (46 SO/16 BB)...was promoted to Knoxville (AA) on 7/23...ranked second on the club in saves despite appearing in only 17 games...had 12 saves for Lara in the Venezuelan Winter League.

1991 – Had never played at Triple-A and had just 17 games of Double-A experience before beginning the season with Toronto...went 10-5 with a 3.36 ERA in 60 relief outings and tied with Mike Henneman of Detroit for the A.L. lead in relief wins...was second on Jays' staff with 63 appearances...his first major league win came in relief on 4/10 vs. BOS...pitched 3.0 shutout innings on 4/12 for his second consecutive win...his first ML save came vs. KC on 5/14...made three starts in June and was 1-1 with a 1.84 ERA...returned to the bullpen on 6/28...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 8/2 with tenderness in his right elbow...was reinstated on 8/18. 1991 POSTSEASON: Appeared in four of the five games vs. MIN in the ALCS and suffered his first postseason loss in Game 3, when he surrendered a pinch-hit solo homer to Mike Pagliarulo to break a 2-2 tie.

1992 – Started the season on the 15-day disabled list after recovering from off-season elbow surgery...went on a rehabilitation assignment to Dunedin (A) and Syracuse (AAA) prior to his recall to Toronto on 6/12...was optioned to Syracuse on 7/31 and recalled 8/11...was perfect in September, tossing 7.1 shutout innings...among A.L. pitchers with 35 or more innings, Mike was the only one to not allow a home run. 1992 POSTSEASON: Pitched twice in the ALCS vs. OAK...earned the save in the sixth and final game of World Series vs. ATL, when he threw out Otis Nixon for the final out.

1993 – Began the season with Toronto...appeared exclusively in relief for second straight season...stranded 20 of 32 inherited runners (62.5%)...ranked third on the team in games (53)...was optioned to Dunedin (AA) on 8/16 but was recalled on 8/30. 1993 POSTSEASON: Pitched once in the ALCS against CWS, a 2.1-inning outing in which he allowed one run in a 7-4 loss in Game 4...hurled 2.1 shutout innings in two appearances in the World Series vs. PHI.

1994 – Spent the entire season in the majors and appeared in 34 games for Toronto...was placed on 15-day disabled list on 5/27 with a sprained AC joint in his right shoulder...after coming off the DL, had a 2.91 ERA in 16 games (21.2 IP)...his only decision was a loss to BAL on 7/30...his ERA dropped each month of the season...posted a 2.38 ERA after the All-Star break and opponents hit just .200 against him in the season's second half.

1995 – Pitched in 31 games for Toronto and compiled a career-low 2.14 ERA...his only home run allowed was a grand slam by John Valentin on 6/21, coming in his last appearance before being placed on the 15-day disabled list...underwent arthroscopic surgery on 6/27 to remove bone chips from his right elbow...went 1-1 with a 1.04 ERA in eight rehab games at Syracuse (7/31-8/18)...was activated on 8/18 and retired the first 19 batters he faced...the only earned run he allowed after his return came 9/14 vs. TEX, when he worked a season-high 4.0 innings...stranded 15 of 27 inherited runners and retired 23 of 31 first batters faced...converted five of nine save situations.

1996 – Had a career-high 31 saves for Toronto, the sixth-best total in the A.L...it marked the sixth-highest single-season save total in club history...led the club in games pitched (59), first batter efficiency (.208), fewest baserunners allowed per nine innings in relief (10.6) and most strikeouts per nine innings in relief (8.3)...converted 31 of 38 save opportunities...recorded nine straight saves from 5/27 to 7/14...was 0-3 with five saves and a 9.72 ERA in July, however, he posted a 2.61 ERA the other five months of the season...converted six straight save opportunities from 7/23 to 8/19...was 0-1 with eight saves in nine opportunities in September...notched saves in each of his last five games...retired 41 of 59 first batters faced and stranded 11 of 17 inherited baserunners...righthanders hit just .191 (17-for-89) off him, while lefties hit .259 (8-for-30).

1997 – Appeared in 64 games with Toronto and Seattle...began the season with the Blue Jays...fanned a season-high five batters in 2.1 innings at ANA on 4/21...recorded saves in three consecutive appearances 5/9-16, tossing one shutout inning in each game...appeared in all four games of a series at BAL, 6/26-29...recorded saves in three consecutive games 6/26, 28-29...did not allow a run in six games from 6/24 to 7/2 (8.2 IP)...was 3-2 with a 2.87 ERA in 38 appearances as a Blue Jay...was traded to Seattle on 7/31...recorded first Mariner save 8/24 vs. NY...picked up first win as a Mariner on 8/31 at LA...allowed one earned run in his last 11 appearances of the year...posted a 1.93 ERA in September. 1997 POSTSEASON: Appeared in the postseason with his second club and allowed four runs in 0.2 innings pitched vs. BAL in the A.L. Division Series.

1998 – Recorded 19 saves in 24 chances for Seattle...his 19 saves tied for sixth most in Mariners history...stranded 38 of 60 inherited runners overall, including 14 of final 15...moved into the closer role at the All-Star break and converted 18 of 19 save chances in the second half...from his first win (4/16) through the end of the season he was 3-2, with a 2.36 ERA and 19 saves in 62 games (72.1 IP/19 ER)...converted his final 14 save opportunities, from 8/2 through the end of the year...allowed just one earned run in 10 June outings, posting a 0.87 ERA (10.1 IP/ 1 ER)...converted first four opportunities in July before suffering only blown save of second half on 7/30 vs. CLE...was tied for third in the A.L. in Rolaids Relief standings in August, with 23 points...posted a 1-0 mark with seven saves in final eight appearances 9/5-9/26...finished second in the A.L. in the Rolaids Relief standings with 23 points in September.

1999 – Pitched in 62 games out of the bullpen in his first season with the Orioles and finished 10th in the American League with 27 saves...tied for the league lead with nine blown saves...converted 18 of 19 save chances after the All-Star break for the second straight season...went 9-for-17 in save situations in first half of '99...held opponents to a .221 batting average, eighth best among A.L. relievers...allowed an average of 11.3 runners per nine innings pitched, the ninth lowest figure among A.L. relief pitchers...went 0-1 with a 1.40 ERA and held opponents to a .185 average after the break...saved 10 games in 11 chances and was the majors' leading Rolaids Relief Man for September, with 28 points...did not allow a run in his first five appearances of the season, going 3-for-3 in save opportunities...recorded saves in five of his first six opportunities before blowing 7 saves in 11 chances, 5/12-7/1...earned saves in five straight games, 9/17-22, the only time he pitched in more than three straight contests...saved seven games during the Orioles' 13-game winning streak in September.

MISC: Graduated from Midland (Texas) High School, where he was captain of the baseball team...played baseball at Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas...lists pitching in back-to-back World Series in 1992 and 1993 as the biggest thrill of his career...hobbies include golf and hunting...he and his wife Dawn (11/28/92) have two children: Jacob Dalton (8/2/96) and Mykala Marie (9/29/00).

- Suffered his first blown save as a Cardinal on 4/29 at PHI, allowing 2 runs in 0.2 IP.
- Earned 4th save & #50 career on 4/19 vs. SD with a scoreless 9th.
- Collected his 1st Cardinals save on 4/8 vs. MIL, striking out 4 of the 5 batters he faced. Earned save #2 on 4/10 at HOU with a scoreless 9th.

2000 POSTSEASON – Appeared in five games during the postseason and worked 4.1 innings without allowing an earned run...he struck out seven and walked no one, although he did hit two batters...appeared in two of three games during the Division Series versus Atlanta and earned his lone save of the playoffs in Game 1 of the opening series...he closed out the Cardinals series-clinching win in Game 3 at ATL with a scoreless 9th inning...made three game appearances during the NLCS, pitching in Games 2, 3 & 5 without allowing a run.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

1986 – Selected by Oakland in the January draft...started his pro career at Medford (A) of the Northwest League...led the league in starts (15).

1987 – Spent the entire season in Modesto's (A) starting rotation.

1988 – Split his season between Modesto and Huntsville (AA)…pitched a career-high 164.0 innings between the two stops.

1989 – Again worked in Huntsville's starting rotation…made one relief appearance, the first of his professional career…tossed two complete games, including his only career shutout.

1990 – Posted a career-high 11 wins in his first season at Triple-A Tacoma…made 23 starts and nine relief appearances, including his first professional save.

1991 – Acquired by the Dodgers from Oakland before the season…spent the year at Albuquerque (AAA).

1992 – Loaned by the Dodgers organization to the Mexico City Tigers of the Mexican League from 4/3 to 5/15…was released by the Dodgers following that stint and signed with Houston on 5/28…assigned to the Astros' Triple-A affiliate Tucson and worked almost exclusively out of the bullpen (made one start).

1993 – Split the season between the rotation (15 starts) and bullpen (28 games) at Tucson.

1994 – Opened the season at Tucson but was recalled by Houston on 5/9…lost his major league debut 5/10 at LA, allowing an unearned run in 0.1 inning of work…picked up his first big-league victory his next time out, 5/16 vs. SF (0.1 IP, 1 K)…earned first career save 8/6 vs. SF…did not walk a batter in his first 14 appearances (16.2 IP).

1995 – Led National League relievers with 103.1 innings, while his 72 appearances were second in the league to teammate Curtis Leskanic (76)…retired 53 of 72 (74%) first batters faced and allowed just 16 of 48 (33%) inherited runners to score…pitched two or more innings 22 times and went 3.0 innings four times…did not allow a run in his first 13 outings (4/26 to 5/21), a team-high 16.1-inning streak…his only save of the season came in a 2.2-inning scoreless appearance on 7/14 at SF.

1996 – Was traded to Montreal in the off-season...won his first four decisions for the Expos, giving him a personal career-high eight-game streak, dating to 1995…allowed just 10 earned runs over his final 34.2 innings (2.60 ERA)...hit safely in his first three at-bats of the season (two singles, one double) and finished the year 3-for-8...went 1-for-1 and drove in his first big-league run 4/28 at COL…left 6/18 game at COL and missed nine days 6/19 to 6/27 with a right flexor tendon strain.

1997 – Appeared in 53 games and pitched 62.0 innings in his second season with the Expos…earned his only save of the season with 4.0 innings of work 4/20 at PHI, the longest outing of his major league career…singled in his only at-bat of the season in that 4/20 game...left 8/17 game at SF with tightness behind his right shoulder, and then was placed on the 15-day disabled list with right knee inflammation (8/21 to 9/16)…pitched in four games after his return from the DL, allowing four earned runs in 3.1 innings.

1998 – After an off-season trade to Colorado, pitched mainly in middle relief but finished 26 games and recorded eight saves…led the bullpen in innings (76.1), ERA (2.83) and strikeouts (74)…averaged 8.7 strikeouts and 3.1 walks per nine innings pitched…held opponents to .233 batting average, second on the staff…his eight saves were one more than his career total entering the season…earned three saves and compiled a 2.35 ERA in June (12 games) and picked up three more saves and a win with an 0.84 ERA in September (10 games)…won Rockies' Player of the Month honors for September, the first pitcher to win the award since Darren Holmes in August 1993…went 3-1 with five saves and a 1.72 ERA, walked eight and struck out 27 in 29 appearances after the All-Star break…surrendered just one run in his last 20 games (21.1 IP, 0.42 ERA), dropping his ERA from 3.76 to 2.83…longest outing of the season was a 3.0-inning, four-strikeout effort 4/24 at FLA…put together 11.1 consecutive scoreless innings covering nine appearances from 4/14 to 5/13…struck out 13, walked four and allowed eight hits over that span…fanned at least one batter in 21 of 22 outings 4/11 to 6/20, and in 12 straight games beginning 5/16…final three saves came in consecutive appearances 9/18, 9/20 and 9/23…preserved a 1-0, 11-inning victory for Darryl Kile in the 9/20 game at SD...went 0-for-1 in his only career pinch-hitting appearance.

1999 – Established a Colorado club record with 31 saves, six more than the previous mark of 25 (Darren Holmes, 1993)...was outstanding on the road, where he saved 20 games in 21 opportunites while compiling a 2.52 ERA (10 ER, 35.2 IP), with nine walks and 38 strikeouts...saved 11 of 18 chances at home with a 7.40 ERA (34 ER, 41.1 IP), 28 walks and 33 strikeouts...his 39 career saves with Colorado placed him third on the club's all-time saves list...dominated the Dodgers, earning five saves in seven appearances...allowed just one earned run in 7.0 innings (1.29), with one walk and 10 Ks...did not allow a run in 10.0 innings (nine games) on artificial turf; recorded six saves, allowed eight hits and two walks and struck out 12 in those contests...recorded saves in four straight appearances once (6/12 to 6/20) and in three straight on three occasions...retired 52 of 73 first batters (74 percent) to lead the staff...also led the Rockies' bullpen with a 0.52 (37-71) walks-to-strikeouts ratio...tied for second in the N.L. with 63 games finished, one behind Robb Nen (SF)...established himself as the closer in spring training after holding the position for the final month of 1998...retired the first batter he faced in his first 12 outings and in 15 of his first 16...took the loss in Colorado's home opener on an 11th-inning home run by Jim Leyritz...notched his first win 4/19 vs. MON, fanning two of the four batters he faced...surrendered three solo homers to PHI on 5/9 in his first blown save of the season...struck out nine batters in 5.0 innings over a four-game span 5/25 to 5/30...combined with Darryl Kile and Mike DeJean on 1-0 victory 5/30 at PHI...was 11-for-11 in save situations with a 1.33 ERA and 21 strikeouts from 6/12 to 7/25...saved both games of a 7/3 doubleheader vs. SD, tying a club record...repeated the feat less than three weeks later, in a 7/22 twin-bill at LA...became first major leaguer since Jeff Brantley (1996) to save both games of a DH twice in a season...saved all three games of 7/21-22 series at LA, allowing two hits and fanning five in 3.0 innings.

MISC: Graduated in 1984 from Gresham (Ore.) High School and attended Mount Hood Community College for two years...with his father in the Air Force, he participated in the Little League World Series, playing for the team from Europe...he lists that experience at Williamsport, Pa., as his most memorable in baseball...Dave and his wife Robin reside in Castle Rock, CO, with their daughter Terryn and son Ty...he and his family have been active members of Cardinals Care, taking part in visits to many local children's hopitals...last year, he conducted a once-a-week interview each Friday on KSHE radio...name is pronounced VEERZ.

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the Milwaukee Brewers in a trade for pitcher Juan Acevedo and two minor league players to be named later, December 20, 1999.

2000 SEASON:

- Spunky leadoff man provided aggresive play both at the plate and in the field. Finished among team leaders in hits (146 - 3rd) despite missing significant playing time due to assorted injuries.
- His .300 batting mark led the team (min. 502 PA), the 2nd time in his career that he finished at .300 (He batted a career best .311 in 1998).
- Led off the game via hit, walk or HBP in 47 of his 118 starts (40%).
- Was hit by pitch for career-high 28th time on 9/29 vs. CIN. His 28 HBPs were the most by a Cardinal since 1910, when Steve Evans was HBP a franchise-record 31 times, the NL record for a lefthanded batter.
- He led all NL second basemen in fielding pct. with his .988 mark and he took part in 85 twin killings.
- Was forced to go on the disabled list, 6/16 - 7/3, due to right hamstring injury.
- He was also out of the lineup for 14 games due to left rib injury, returning on 9/19.
- On 5/24 vs. FLA, committed his 1st error in 60 games dating back to 1999. He made just two errors through his first 100 games played.
- Led the club with 10 bunt singles and 17 infield hits.
- Hit his fourth career leadoff HR 5/13 vs LA & had first career inside-park HR on 5/9 at SF.
- Matched a career high with 5 hits & 4 runs scored on 4/16 [2] at COL.
- Went 4-for-6 with 2 triples and 2 runs scored 4/8 vs. MIL.
- Had 3 hits, including a pair of doubles, in 6/17 win at LA.
- His 2-out, 9th inning single delivered winning run in 2-1 victory vs. NY on 9/2.
- Had a career-best, and Cardinals' season-best, 17-game hitting streak from 8/8-25. He batted .347 (25-72) during the streak.
- Has more career walks (192) than strikeouts (188). He fanned just 36 times in 2000 and had only three multiple strikeout games.

2000 POSTSEASON – Saw his first career posteseason action and batted .308 in Division Series sweep of the Braves...keyed clinching Game 3 win with his leadoff homer off Kevin Millwood on 10/7 at ATL...he finished the day with 3 RBIs...hit safely in each of the five games during NLCS versus NY Mets, and hit safely in all eight of the Cardinals postseason games.

CARDINALS WORLD SERIES STORY

1926 The Cardinals defeated the Yankees, four games to three, to win their first world championship. Veteran 39-year-old right-hander Grover Cleveland Alexander, obtained by the Redbirds in a midseason trade with the Chicago Cubs, won the second and sixth games, then came on to save the seventh.

1928 Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig paced the Yankees to a four-game sweep of the Cardinals. Ruth batted .625 for the Series and hit three home runs in one game, and Gehrig batted .545 with nine runs batted in. Four of Gehrig's six hits were home runs.

1930 Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Cardinals, four games to two, as the Redbirds hit only .200 and the Athletics .197. Cardinal victories were pitched by Bill Hallahan, 5-0, in the third game, and Jesse Haines, 3-1, in the fourth.

1931 The Cardinals got revenge against the Athletics, defeating them four games to three. Pepper Martin, the Wild Horse of the Osage, paced the Redbirds, stealing five bases, collecting 12 hits and hitting .500. Bill Hallahan and Burleigh Grimes each pitched two victories for the Cardinals.

1934 The "Gas House Gang" won the National League pennant on the final day of the season, then defeated Detroit in the Series, four games to three. Dizzy and Paul Dean, who combined to win 49 games during the regular season, each won two games over the Tigers. The final game of the Series, won by the Cardinals, 11-0, was marked by Commissioner Kenesaw Landis' order to eject Joe (Ducky) Medwick from the game. Medwick had slid hard into Tigers third baseman Marv Owen in the sixth inning, so infuriating Detroit fans that they bombarded Medwick with fruit, vegetables and debris when he took his position in left field in the bottom of the inning. Landis removed Medwick to halt the disturbance.

1942 The Cardinals lost the first game of the Series to the Yankees, then roared back to win four straight. Rookie pitcher Johnny Beazley won two games, lefthander Ernie White shut out the Yankees in the third game, and third baseman Whitey Kurowski belted an RBI-triple in the second game and a two-run, ninth-inning homer to clinch the finale.

1943 The Yankees evened their World Series record against the Cardinals at 2-2 by defeating the Redbirds in five games. The turning point of the Series occurred in the third game. With the Cardinals holding a 2-1 lead in the eighth, Johnny Lindell crashed into Whitey Kurowski at third on pinch-hitter George Stirnweiss' sacrifice bunt and jarred the ball loose from Kurowski's hand. After a fly out and an intentional walk, Billy Johnson's triple drove home three runs, igniting a five-run inning and a 6-2 Yankee victory. Manager Joe McCarthy's team won the next two games, 2-1 and 2-0, to win the title.

1944 In this only all-St. Louis World Series, pitching dominated as the Cardinals defeated the Browns, four games to two. The two teams combined to strike out a six-game Series-record 92 batters, 49 by Cardinal pitchers and 43 by Browns hurlers. Emil Verban topped Cardinal hitters with a .412 average.

1946 Harry (The Cat) Brecheen won three games and the Cardinals topped the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning of the seventh game, Enos Slaughter singled, then scored all the way from first on Harry Walker's double to left-center, a sprint that surprised Red Sox relay man Johnny Pesky, whose moment's hesitation allowed Slaughter to score the winning run.

1964 A team victory for the Cardinals, who defeated the Yankees, four games to three. Bob Gibson won two games; Ken Boyer hit a grand slam to win the fourth game; Tim McCarver, who batted a Series-high .478, smashed a 10th-inning home run to win the fifth game; and Ron Taylor and Roger Craig combined for 9.2 scoreless innings of relief.

1967 Bob Gibson pitched three complete-game victories and Lou Brock put on one of the finest offensive displays in World Series history as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. Gibson limited the Red Sox to only 14 hits in three games, and Brock topped all Series hitters with a .414 batting average. Lou also set a Series record by stealing seven bases, and Roger Maris hit .385 and drove in seven runs.

1968 The Cardinals led three games to one, but the Detroit Tigers rallied to win the last three contests and claim their first world championship since 1945. Left-hander Mickey Lolich, who pitched all season in the shadow of 31-game winner Denny McLain, was superb for the Tigers as he won three games, including the 4-1 finale. Bob Gibson won two games for the Redbirds and set Series records by striking out 17 batters in Game One and 35 in the Series, breaking the mark of 31 he set against the Yankees in 1964. Lou Brock batted .464 and stole seven bases.

1982 The Cardinals rallied from a 3-2 deficit in games to defeat the Milwaukee Brewers and bring the World Series Championship trophy back to St. Louis for the first time in 15 years. Joaquin Andujar nailed down two victories and posted a 1.35 ERA while reliever Bruce Sutter posted a win and two saves. John Stuper became only the 14th rookie to start two World Series games, winning the crucial sixth game, a rain-delayed contest that took five hours to complete. Dane Iorg batted .529 and tied a Series record for most hits by a designated hitter. Rookie Willie McGee turned heads by hitting two home runs and making two spectacular catches in one game. Catcher Darrell Porter was named the Series MVP on the strength of his clutch hitting and solid defense.

1985 The Cardinals won the National League Championship Series after losing the first two games to the Los Angeles Dodgers, then winning four straight, including the decisive sixth game on Jack Clark's three-run, ninth-inning homer. In the World Series, they won the first two games at Kansas City, then lost four of the next five games behind an offense that batted only .185 for the Series. John Tudor and Todd Worrell pitched the Cardinals to victory in Game One, and Terry Pendleton's ninth-inning, bases-loaded double sparked a 4-2 victory the next day. Kansas City won its first game, 6-1, behind Brett Saberhagen's pitching, then lost Game Four to Tudor, 3-0. Danny Jackson stopped the Redbirds, 6-1, in the fifth game, although Worrell tied a Series record by striking out six consecutive batters in two innings of relief. The pivotal moment of the Series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Six, with the Cardinals leading, 1-0. After Kansas City leadoff man Jorge Orta reached first on a disputed call by an umpire and Steve Balboni singled after his catchable pop-up fell safely in foul territory, former Cardinal pinch-hitter Dane Iorg stroked a one-out, two-run single for a 2-1 Royals victory. Game Seven was no contest, an 11-0 Royals victory.

1987 After coming back from a 3-2 deficit in games to win the National League Championship Series against San Francisco, the Cardinals lost their first two games of the World Series at Minnesota. Returning to Busch Stadium for Game Three, the Redbirds used a three-run seventh and strong pitching by John Tudor to cut the deficit to 2-1. The next night, utility infielder Tom Lawless, who was filling in for injured third baseman Terry Pendleton, led the Cards to a 7-2 win with a three-run homer in the fourth. The round-tripper was just the second for Lawless at the major league level. The Cardinals completed their sweep at home with a 4-2 win in Game Five. Vince Coleman and Ozzie Smith each stole two bases, and Todd Worrell earned his second save of the Series in relief of winner Danny Cox. In Game Six, the Cardinals took a 5-2 lead into the fifth inning, but homers by Don Baylor and Kent Hrbek carried the Twins to an 11-5 victory. In the decisive seventh game, Series MVP Frank Viola allowed only two runs and Greg Gagne broke a 2-2 sixth-inning tie with an infield single, giving Minnesota a 4-2 victory and its first-ever World Series title. The Series was the first in which the home team won each of the seven games.

CARDINALS HISTORICAL / SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1876 St. Louis became a charter member of the National League, then withdrew after the 1877 season.

1892 St. Louis rejoined the N.L. as the Browns, later becoming the Perfectos.

1920 The team moved from Robison Field to Sportsman's Park.

1940 First night games in St. Louis for the Browns and then Cardinals. Johnny Mize hit a club-record 43 home runs.

1946 Home paid attendance topped 1 million for the first time.

1948 Stan Musial won his third N.L. Most Valuable Player award and led the league in nearly every batting department — average (.376); runs (135); hits (230); total bases (429); doubles (46); triples (18); runs batted in (131); and slugging percentage (.702).

1950 The Cardinals played their first night opener in St. Louis.

1953 Anheuser-Busch, Inc., bought the Cardinals, renovated Sportsman's Park and renamed it Busch Stadium.

1954 Musial hit five home runs in a May 2 double-header against the Giants at Busch Stadium.

1957 Musial established a National League endurance record by extending his streak of consecutive games played to 895 before an injury forced him to the bench. The mishap occurred at Philadelphia on August 22, when he tore a muscle and chipped a bone in his shoulder blade as he swung at and missed a high, outside pitch. He won the batting title with a .351 average.

1962 Musial, nearing his 42nd birthday, made a bid for his eighth batting title by hitting .330, but Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers won the crown with a .346 mark.

1963 Musial, who won seven National League batting titles in his 22-year career with the Cardinals and had a lifetime average of .331, announced his retirement. His famous No. 6 became the first Cardinal number to be retired.

1966 The Cardinals closed old Busch Stadium on May 8 with a 10-5 loss to the San Francisco Giants. On May 12, they opened new Busch Memorial Stadium in downtown St. Louis by defeating the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings. Lou Brock singled with the bases loaded, driving in Curt Flood with the winning run. The winning pitcher was Don Dennis, the loser Phil Niekro. Mike Shannon got the first Cardinal hit, a first-inning single, and Atlanta's Felipe Alou hit two home runs. The Cardinals also hosted the All-Star Game.

1967 Home paid attendance topped 2 million for the first time.

1968 Bob Gibson had a 22-9 record, hurled 13 shutouts, had a 15-game winning streak and allowed only 38 earned runs in 304 innings for a 1.12 ERA, a major league record for a pitcher who worked more than 300 innings. He set a World Series strikeout record with 17 in the first game against Detroit. His remarkable season earned him the National League's Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards.

1969 On September 15 against the New York Mets, Steve Carlton struck out 19 batters, a major league record at the time. However, he lost the game, 4-3, as Ron Swoboda hit a pair of two-run homers. Carlton struck out at least one man in every inning and fanned the side in four different frames.

1970 Gibson had a 23-7 record and received his second N.L. Cy Young Award. The Cardinals played their first season at Busch on AstroTurf, which replaced the original natural-grass field.

1971 Joe Torre won the N.L. batting title with a .363 average and was named league MVP. Gibson pitched his only career no-hitter, an 11-0 victory over the Pirates on August 14. Red Schoendienst established a longevity record for Cardinal managers, completing his seventh season. Lou Brock became the first major league player to steal 50 or more bases in seven consecutive years.

1972 Gibson extended his major league record for most seasons with 200 or more strikeouts to nine. He also set an N.L. career mark for righthanders with his 2,786th strikeout. Brock extended his record for most consecutive seasons of 50 or more stolen bases to eight. The Cardinals drew their 50 millionth fan since 1900.

1973 Brock stole his 600th base, moving into ninth place on the all-time list, and extended his major league record for most consecutive seasons with 50 or more steals to nine. Gibson moved into second place on the all-time strikeout list. Joe Torre collected his 2,000th hit and 1,000th RBI.

1974 Brock steals 118 bases to break Maury Wills' single-season mark and surpasses Max Carey's N.L. career record. Brock moves from ninth to second on the all-time career stolen base list. Gibson strikes out the 3,000th batter of his career to become only the second pitcher in baseball history to reach that figure. The Cardinals draw more than 1,800,000 fans, the third-highest home attendance in their history. The Redbirds and Mets play a 25-inning game, the longest night game in major league history and the longest game ever played to conclusion. Cardinals win as Bake McBride scores from first on two errors. McBride is named the N.L. Rookie Of The Year.

1975 Brock gets career hit No. 2,500 and stolen base No. 800. Gibson retires after a 17-year Cardinal career and 251 victories. Gibby is honored by a standing-room crowd on Bob Gibson Day. Jacket Day attracts 50,548 fans, the largest regular-season crowd in St. Louis baseball history. Hrabosky compiles 13 wins and 22 saves and is named "Fireman of the Year." Ted Simmons finishes second in the league batting race with a .332 average.

1976 John Denny wins the National League ERA title at age 23, tying youngest right-hander to win ERA title in N.L. Lou Brock gets 2700th hit of his career and closes to within 27 of tying Ty Cobb's stolen base record.

1977 Lou Brock breaks Ty Cobb's career stolen base mark with number 893 in San Diego, August 29. Garry Templeton becomes youngest M.L. shortstop ever to gather 200 hits in a season. Templeton leads majors with 18 triples, highest number since 1957. Ted Simmons sets club record for home runs by a catcher with 21. Ken Reitz sets new fielding record with N.L. third baseman by committing only 9 errors. Bob Forsch wins 20 games.

1978 Bob Forsch no hits Phillies 5-0, April 16 at Busch Stadium. Manager, Vern Rapp dismissed April 24. Ken Boyer becomes Cardinal manager April 29. Ted Simmons sets club season record and career high with 22 homers for a catcher. George Hendrick has 7 RBI's at Atlanta, August 25. Busch Memorial Stadium gets new astroturf.

1979 Lou Brock collected his 3000th career hit (single off Dennis Lamp) in the 4th inning against the Cubs on August 13 at Busch Stadium. On September 23, Brock stole his 938th base making him baseball's all-time stolen base leader surpassing William (Sliding Billy) Hamilton. Keith Hernandez wins batting title with .344 average and is co-winner of National League M.V.P. award with Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. Garry Templeton led N.L. with 211 hits. Templeton also led the league in triples with 19, for the third year in a row, setting a new N.L. record and tying the major league mark. His 19 triples are highest number since 1957. He became the first switch-hitter in major league history to collect 100 hits, both right and left-handed, in one season. Garry finished with 100 hits RH and 111 hits LH. Ted Simmons hit a career high 26 home runs, which also set a club record for homers by a catcher.

1980 Ken Reitz sets new fielding record for N.L. third baseman by committing only 8 errors. Dane Iorg has 7 RBI's, August 28 vs. Atlanta. Manager Ken Boyer dismissed June 8. Whitey Herzog becomes Cardinal manager June 9. On August 18, John Claiborne fired as G.M. and Herzog named G.M. on August 29. Red Schoendienst served as interim manager for balance of season. On October 24, Herzog assumed dual role of general manager and field manager.

1981 The Cardinals finished the season with the best winning percentage in the Eastern Division, but missed the playoffs because they finished second in each of the two sections of the schedule caused by the mid-summer players' strike. The Philadelphia Phillies, leaders when the strike began, were voted the first-half championship (however, the Phillies, Cardinals, and Cincinnati Reds voted against it), while Montreal won the second half. In each half, the Cardinals played fewer games than the "winners", and could have tied or won either half with the opportunity to play the same number of games. In the individual field, Bruce Sutter, one of several players obtained in winter trades by Herzog, was the National League's top reliever, winning the Rolaids Relief Man award.

1982 In order to concentrate more on managing, Whitey Herzog stepped down as General Manager on Opening Day, turning the reins over to Joe McDonald. The move paid off as the Cardinals were out of first place for only 48 days of the season and claimed their first ever National League East Championship. A 3-0 sweep of the Atlanta Braves put the Cards in their 13th World Series against the Milwaukee Brewers who fell 4-3 to St. Louis in the 'Fall Classic.' The 1982 team was characterized by an aggressive running style of baseball; seven players stole bases in double figures, led by team catalyst Lonnie Smith, who swiped 68. The team hit only 67 home runs, the fewest in the major leagues. Strong and consistent pitching performances were the rule; prior to clinching the title the Cardinals never lost more than three games in a row. Bruce Sutter had a hand in almost half of the team's victories.

1983 Despite the fact that the 1983 Cardinals finished in fourth place, eleven games out, the team was competitive and exciting, although inconsistent, throughout much of the season. The team climbed to within a half-game of the division lead on September 5 before embarking on a thirteen-day road trip during which the failure of the starting rotation caused the team to plummet out of contention. Still there were noteworthy performances during the year. As a team, the running Redbirds set a new club record with 207 stolen bases. Individually, Danny Cox made his way from extended spring training in April to playing a part in the Cardinals' starting rotation. Bob Forsch pitched the second no-hitter of his career. The league's best right-fielder, George Hendrick, moved to first base after Keith Hernandez was traded and earned post -season honors at his new position. Ozzie Smith won his fourth straight Gold Glove and Willie McGee won his first one.

1984 The Cardinals got off to a bad start in 1984 and dwelled in fifth place for much of the first half of the season before turning things around after the All-Star break. Following the mid-summer classic the Cards posted a 42-33 record, second in the National League only to the eventual N.L. Champions, the Chicago Cubs. That surge lifted the Cards into a third place finish in the division at year end despite contending with many injuries. The team's 220 stolen bases set a new club record, surpassing the 207 mark from 1983, and made them the first major league team since the 1916 St. Louis Browns to steal 200 or more bases three years in a row...Individually, Bruce Sutter set a National League and tied the major league record for saves in a season (45). Joaquin Andujar (20-14) became the club's first 20-game winner in seven seasons. Rookie Terry Pendleton hit .324 after joining the club in July and sparking the team to a 41-29 record. The Cards drew over 2,000,000 fans for the third consecutive year.

1985 The Cardinals lost their first four games, struggled to 7-7, then lost four more. The next time they reached .500 it was at 20-20, and then things got better. They finally made it to first place on June 21, and they were there most of the season. Five defeats in six games early in September left the Cardinals a game behind the New York Mets with 25 to play. But the Redbirds then won 14 of their next 15 and took the division title by three games with 101 victories. Individually, Willie McGee was the batting champion (at .353, a new high for a N.L. switch-hitter) and Most Valuable Player; Vince Coleman was Rookie of the Year, and John Tudor and Joaquin Andujar each won 21 games and Danny Cox took 18. Willie McGee and Ozzie Smith won Gold Gloves again, and great starts by Tommy Herr (110 RBI) and Jack Clark (22 homers) contributed.

1986 The defending National League Champions stumbled at the beginning of the season. After the first two months of the season the Cardinals had the worst record in the League. But the team righted itself posting winning records in each of the next four months to finish third in the National League's Eastern Division. Individually Vince Coleman stole 107 bases to become the first player ever to steal over 100 bases in each of his first two seasons and the first N.L. player to steal 100 bases twice; rookie left-hander Greg Mathews, who was promoted from Louisville, won 11 games in little more than half a season; Ozzie Smith won his seventh straight Gold Glove and Todd Worrell was named N.L. Rookie of the Year. Worrell blazed his way to a major league rookie record 36 saves, becoming the first rookie pitcher ever to lead the league in saves and the first rookie to earn N.L. Relief Pitcher of the Year honor...Three attendance milestones were hit and surpassed during the course of the season. The Cardinals reached the two million mark for the fifth consecutive year, drew the 75 millionth fan in the history of the franchise since 1900 and drew the 50 millionth fan to see the Redbirds play under Anheuser-Busch ownership.

1987 Sparked by a potent offense, the Cardinals slipped no further than two games back in the N.L. East standings and claimed sole possession of first place on May 22. Beset by injuries to several key players throughout the season, manager Whitey Herzog made use of a mixture of experienced veterans and eager rookies to fill the voids created by injuries. The Cardinals extended their lead to 9½ games on July 23 but saw the lead shrink to 1 game as late as Sept. 19. A come-from-behind win a New York on Sept. 11 followed by a doubleheader sweep of the Expos on Sept. 29, set the stage for the pennant clinching win over Montreal on Oct. 1. Several Cards enjoyed banner seasons offensively, including Vince Coleman (third straight season with 100 SB), Jack Clark (35 HR and 106 RBI), Ozzie Smith (.300 BA for first time in his career), Terry Pendleton (.286 BA and 96 RBI), Willie McGee (105 RBI). The Redbirds had four starters with 10 or more victories (John Tudor, Bob Forsch, Greg Mathews and Danny Cox) while rookie Joe Magrane showed much promise in his initial season. In the bullpen, Todd Worrell followed up his impressive rookie season with 33 saves and Ken Dayley overcame serious elbow surgery to post nine wins in relief. 1987 was a fantastic year at the gate as well, as the Cardinals drew a Major League leading 3,072,122 fans, becoming just the third club in M.L. history to surpass the three million mark in attendance.

1988 After acquiring Tom Brunansky from Minnesota in April, the defending N.L. champions climbed within six games of first on June 12, but injuries to Bob Horner and Terry Pendleton crippled the offense. By the end of July, the Cardinals were 19 games out of first. Newcomer Jose DeLeon became the first Cards pitcher since 1972 to record 200 strikeouts. Sophomore hurler Joe Magrane won the N.L. ERA title with a 2.18 mark, despite winning just five games. Todd Worrell posted his third-straight 30-save season, and Vince Coleman led the league in stolen bases for the fourth consecutive year. Jose Oquendo became the first N.L. player since 1918 to play all nine positions in a season. Trades that brought Pedro Guerrero, Denny Walling and Brunansky to St. Louis also ended long-time affiliations with departing players Tom Herr, Bob Forsch and John Tudor. Despite finishing fifth, the club drew nearly 2.9 million fans to Busch.

1989 Although the outlook was bleak when injuries crippled the pitching staff in spring training, the Cardinals remained in the race until the final week of the season. The Redbirds pulled within a half-game of the division-leading Chicago Cubs with a dramatic come-from-behind win on Sept. 9, but a six-game losing streak followed and the Cards sunk to third place on the final day of the season. Pedro Guerrero was spectacular in the clutch, batting .406 with runners in scoring position and leading the club with 117 RBI and a .311 batting average. Vince Coleman again led the league in stolen bases and set a major league record by stealing 50 consecutive bases without being caught, a streak begun in 1988. Despite the early concern over the pitching staff, Joe Magrane (18 wins) and Jose DeLeon (16) spearheaded the patched-up starting unit. The Cardinals set a club attendance record, attracting 3,080,980 fans during a season that ended on a sad note when long-time club president August A. Busch Jr. died at age 90.

1990 Considered by many to be a contender following the spring training "lockout," the Cardinals never lived up to expectations and finished in last place for the first time since 1918. On July 5, Manager Whitey Herzog resigned after more than 10 years as the Cards' skipper. Interim manager Red Schoendienst took over until Aug. 2, when Joe Torre was named manager. Willie McGee won the league batting title (.335), despite being traded to Oakland in late August as the team made room for younger players. One of those was rookie catcher Todd Zeile, who led the team with 15 homers. John Tudor returned to the club and posted a team-high 12 wins but announced his retirement following the season. Vince Coleman led the league in steals for the sixth straight year, tying Maury Wills' N.L. record, and batted a career-high .292. Starting pitchers Jose DeLeon (a league-high 19 losses) and Joe Magrane (17 losses) were disappointments. Reliever Lee Smith was a steady closer following his acquisition in May, saving 27 games. Jose Oquendo set a major league record for fewest errors by a second baseman (three).

1991 Coming off a last-place finish, the Cardinals were one of baseball's biggest surprises in 1991, moving up to second place in the N.L. East. Manager Joe Torre, in his first full season at the Cardinals' helm, opened the year with several unproven players at key positions. Among the young standouts were outfielders Ray Lankford and Felix Jose. Lankford led the majors with 15 triples and had a team-high 44 steals. Nine Cardinals stole 10 or more bases, the first time since 1917 that a team had done so. Former Athletic Jose, playing his first full season in the National League, led the Cardinals in batting (.305) and plugged Busch Stadium's spacious gaps with 40 doubles. Sophomore Todd Zeile made a fine transition from catcher to third base, leading the club with 11 homers and 81 RBI. Catcher Tom Pagnozzi, seeing his first full-time duty, earned a Gold Glove award. The season also was a good one for Cardinals named Smith. Lee Smith set an N.L. record with 47 saves and became only the fifth pitcher to record 300 career saves. Ozzie Smith set an N.L. record for fewest errors by a shortstop (eight) en route to winning his 12th Gold Glove. Bryn Smith's 12 wins paced the pitching staff, which was without Joe Magrane, Frank DiPino and Todd Worrell due to injuries. Young starters Ken Hill (11 wins) and Omar Olivares (11 wins), and reliever Cris Carpenter (10 wins) helped fill the void.

1992 Though injuries took a toll in the Cardinals' centennial season, the team actually led the N.L. East by one game on June 1, despite losing three players in the first week of the season. Injuries or illnesses continued to mount, however, as the team lost shortstop Ozzie Smith to chicken pox for two weeks in late June and Omar Olivares and Rheal Cormier from the starting rotation. At second base, seven players were used. Ray Lankford, moved from first to third in the order, became the first Cardinal since Lou Brock in 1967 to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases. Ozzie Smith tied Felix Jose for the club lead in batting (.295) and stole a team-high 43 bases. The "Wizard" also collected his 2,000th career hit and 500th stolen base, besides earning his 12th All-Star Game berth and 13th Gold Glove. Bob Tewksbury emerged as the No. 1 starter, winning 16 games and ranking second in the majors with a 2.16 ERA. He joined Smith on the N.L. All-Star squad, as did catcher Tom Pagnozzi, who tied a league mark with a .999 fielding average, and reliever Lee Smith, who led the league in saves (43) for the second straight season. Smith received help in the bullpen from Todd Worrell, who, after missing the last two seasons to injury, moved into the top spot on the Cards' all-time saves list. The team's major league record 16-game errorless streak in August helped establish a club record for fielding (.985). On the down side, the Redbirds set records for most strikeouts and caught stealing in a season. Moving the fences in proved beneficial. The Cards set a Busch Stadium season high while out-homering opponents, 55-52.

1993 Helped by a 20-7 mark in June (a club record for the month) and a potent offense, the Cardinals closed to within three games of the front-running Philadelphia Phillies in mid-July, only to fall 10 games back by the end of August. Midseason injuries to relievers Mike Perez, Les Lancaster and Paul Kilgus put the pitching staff on the skids. Offensively, several players enjoyed banner seasons, reflected by the team's 118 home runs, the most in 30 years. Newcomer Gregg Jefferies finished third in the N.L. batting race at .342 and swiped 46 bases, the most ever by a Cardinal first baseman. Mark Whiten cracked a team-high 25 home runs, including four in the second game of a September 7 double-header at Cincinnati, thus becoming only the 12th player to accomplish the feat. His 12 RBI in the game tied former Cardinal Jim Bottomley's major league record. For the season, Whiten finished with 99 RBI. Todd Zeile drove in 60 after the All-Star break, finishing with a team-high 103 RBI as he settled into the cleanup spot. Bernard Gilkey enjoyed a breakthrough season, leading the club in hits, extra-base hits and runs scored. Ozzie Smith recorded his 16th-straight 20-steal season and passed Larry Bowa to become the all-time N.L. leader in games played at shortstop. Gerald Perry tied a club record with 24 pinch-hits. Though the pitching was largely inconsistent, Bob Tewksbury led the staff with a career-best 17 wins and walked only 20 batters for the second straight season. Cuban rookie Rene Arocha ranked second on the staff with 11 wins, despite missing nearly a month with a broken finger. Reliever Lee Smith became the majors' career saves leader in April and set a club record for career saves (160) before being traded to the New York Yankees in late August. The Cards slipped defensively, committing 159 errors and failing to place a member on the Rawlings' Gold Glove team for the first time since 1977.

1994 The season started with a bang when Ray Lankford homered in the first at-bat of the schedule, but a players' strike in mid-August forced the cancellation of the remainder of the season and the World Series, ending the year in tragic fashion. When play was suspended on August 12, the Redbirds were 53-61 and tied with Pittsburgh for third place in the newly formed N.L. Central Division. The club's 5.14 ERA was its worst since 1897, and the opposition outscored the Cards by nearly 100 runs. A seven-game winning streak by Bob Tewksbury and a consecutive-game homer streak of 12 games highlighted the early portion of the schedule, helping the club stay within five games of first place through July 2. The Cardinals were involved in 14 shutouts and, despite inconsistent pitching, won seven of them. They tied an N.L. record by using six pitchers in a shutout (2-0) win at Pittsburgh on May 17. On May 24 against Philadelphia, they established a record for most runners left on base (16) in a shutout loss. The Cardinals blasted 108 home runs, exceeding the 100-homer plateau for just the second time since 1980, and were on pace to hit their most round-trippers since 1963. They hit a Busch Stadium-record five home runs in a July 1 win vs. Colorado. An 8-20 record in July included two of the team's lowest moments: On July 16 at Colorado, Cardinal pitchers walked a team-record 16 batters, one short of the N.L. record, and on July 18, the team tied an N.L. mark by losing an 11-run lead in its 15-12 loss at Houston. Ozzie Smith passed Luis Aparicio on July 14 to become baseball's all-time assist leader at shortstop. On September 1, Mark Lamping was appointed president, replacing the retiring Stuart Meyer. Lamping named Walt Jocketty general manager in October, replacing Dal Maxvill, who had held the title since 1985. Hall of Famers Bob Gibson and Lou Brock were named to manager Joe Torre's coaching staff for 1995.

1995 The season was disappointing in most respects, with the Cardinals posting a 62-81 mark and their worst winning percentage (.434) since 1990. The schedule was reduced to 144 games due to the players' strike that continued into the first week of April. Once play began on April 26, the Cardinals never challenged for the NL Central lead. On June 16, Manager Joe Torre was fired and replaced by Mike Jorgensen. Although the team languished near the Central Division basement, there were a number of individual highlights. Reliever Tom Henke saved 36 of 38 opportunities, including a team-record 22 straight to begin the season, and won his first Rolaids Relief title. He also notched his 300th career save, becoming the seventh pitcher to reach that plateau. Henke headlined a bullpen that led the NL with a 2.71 ERA and a .225 opponents' batting mark. Rich DeLucia topped the team with eight wins (the lowest-ever total to lead the club), all in relief. While starters Danny Jackson and Ken Hill failed to fulfill expectations, Mike Morgan, who was acquired in a June trade for Todd Zeile, gave the Busch Stadium crowd a night to remember on July 3 when he held Montreal hitless for 8.1 innings.On offense, the Cardinals' outfield trio of Bernard Gilkey (a team-high .298 BA), Ray Lankford (25 HRs, 82 RBIs) and Brian Jordan (22 HRs, 81 RBIs) led the way. Lankford's team-high 25 homers were the most ever by a Cards center fielder, and he tied Jordan for the team lead with 24 steals, thus becoming only the fifth Cardinal and the first since 1948 to lead the team in both home runs and steals. Jordan and Lankford also formed the Redbirds' first 20-homer tandem since 1980. First baseman/outfielder John Mabry (.307) narrowly missed qualifying for the NL Top 10 in batting, but his average topped all NL rookies and earned him a spot on the Topps All-Rookie team. Ozzie Smith, who was slowed by a shoulder injury, added to his collection of fielding records on Sept. 15 when he turned his 1,554th double play, an all-time high among shortstops. He also became the first big-league shortstop since 1950 to play at the age of 40 and the first Cardinal shortstop to do so since 1918. Off the bench, veteran Gerald Perry became the club's all-time pinch-hit leader (70), rookie Mark Sweeney hit in seven straight pinch at-bats (one short of the major league record) and Danny Sheaffer hit the Cards' first pinch grand slam in nearly 10 years. The Cardinals took part in two bizarre games at Dodger Stadium: on May 12 they committed seven errors, their highest single-game total since 1940, and on Aug. 10 they recorded a 2-1 forfeit win, the first forfeited game in the majors since 1979. A busy off-season included the hiring of Tony La Russa as manager and the announced sale of the club to a group of long-time Cardinals fans led by Fred Hanser, William DeWitt Jr. and Andrew Baur. The Busch playing surface was changed from artificial turf to natural grass prior to the '96 season.

1996 With new ownership, new Manager Tony LaRussa and a variety of new players in place, the Cardinals made their first postseaon appearance since 1987. The year also marked the end of an era, as shortstop Ozzie Smith completed his 19th, and final, major league campaign. The Cardinals began their climb to their first N.L. Central Division title after falling nine games below .500 following a series sweep by Colorado in mid-May. They rebounded with a sweep of the division-rival Astros in Houston, went on to record a 17-10 mark in June and reached the All-Star break tied for the division lead. The race remained close until Labor Day weekend, when the Redbirds swept three games from the first-place Astros to take over the division lead for good. Right fielder Brian Jordan led the league with a .422 batting average with runners in scoring position and teamed with center fielder Ray Lankford, the N.L. fielding leader, to provide dazzling outfield defense. New left fielder Ron Gant led the team with 30 homers despite missing over a month to injury. Brothers Andy (18-10) and Alan Benes (13-10) combined for 31 wins, and newcomer Todd Stottlemyre fashioned 14 victories in his first N.L. season. Lefthander Donovan Osborne won a career-high 13 games. The bullpen was anchored by former Oakland relief ace Dennis Eckersley, who saved 30 games in 34 tries. Fan-favorite Willie McGee returned to the club after five years with San Francisco and Boston and batted .307, including .350 in the pinch. The season also featured many record-setting achievements: The Cardinals tied a 56-year-old club record with a seven-homer game (July 12 at Chicago); the pitching staff recorded a team-record 1,050 strikeouts; and Willie McGee's five-RBI inning tied Chick Hafey's 1930 mark. The Cardinals retired the uniform numbers of Red Schoendienst (2), Enos Slaughter (9) and Ozzie Smith (1). In their first postseason appearance in nine years, the Cardinals swept a best-of-five Division Series from San Diego. After taking a 3-1 lead over defending World Series champion Atlanta in the NLCS, the Cardinals lost three straight.

1997 After beginning the season with a six-game losing streak, the Cardinals never climbed above .500 and finished in fourth place with a 73-89 record, 11 games behind division-winner Houston. The Redbirds did manage to take sole possession of first place for two days (July 2-3), and their high-water mark for the season was an even .500 (41-41). But after trailing first-place Pittsburgh by only two games at the All-Star break, the Cardinals dropped to 7½ back by the end of July. During the course of the season, the Cardinals set several club records. They used a record 51 players (including 24 pitchers), swatted a franchise-record 144 round-trippers (one more than their 1955 total of 143), and established team highs in strikeouts — at the plate (1,191) and on the mound (1,130). Ray Lankford, who missed the first two weeks of the season while recovering from shoulder surgery, emerged as a star-caliber player, leading the team with a career-high 31 homers (the most ever by a Cards center fielder) and career-best 98 RBIs. He finished only percentage points behind team batting leader Delino DeShields (.2954 to .2946). Slugger Mark McGwire arrived July 31 and belted 24 home runs as a Cardinal, including 15 in September (a club record for one month). He finished with 58 homers, tying the major league record for righthanded hitters. McGwire became just the fifth player to hit as many as 58 home runs and only the second, next to Babe Ruth, to record 50 or more in consecutive seasons. "Big Mac's" total of 110 homers in 1996 and '97 are the most ever back-to-back by a righty. He finished the year by homering in 12 consecutive series, but none of those blasts matched the flair of the 517-foot shot he launched above the left-field scoreboard in his first at-bat on Sept. 16, the day he announced he'd signed a multiyear contract with the club. Pitcher Matt Morris displayed much promise in his first season, leading N.L. rookie pitchers in wins (12), ERA (3.19), complete games (three), strikeouts (149), opponents' batting average (.258) and innings pitched (217). He topped the staff in victories and starts (33). DeShields led the team in batting (.295), hits (169), triples (14), sacrifice flies (six) and stolen bases (55). He was the first Cardinal since Lankford in 1991 to lead the league in triples. The Cardinals posted an 8-7 record against A.L. opponents in their first year of interleague play. They swept a three-game series from Minnesota but lost three at Milwaukee. The team drew 2,634,014 fans, the fifth-highest total in club history. Before the season, the Cardinals added a hand-operated scoreboard in center field and moved the visitors' bullpen to right field.

1998 While Mark McGwire slugged his way to a record-setting season, the Cardinals finished in third place for the fifth time in the last decade, 19 games behind Central Division champion Houston. The 83-79 Cardinals jumped out of the gate strong, as McGwire began his march toward 70 home runs by going deep in each of the first four games, helping the Redbirds to a 16-11 record through April. As injuries took their toll, the Cardinals labored into the All-Star recess in fourth place, 12½ games out of first, with a 40-46 record. The team wound up closing the season with a 43-33 record after the break, including an 18-7 mark in September, the franchise's best record in that month since moving into Busch Stadium in 1966. McGwire remained the center of attention throughout the year, captivating a national audience as he marched toward Roger Maris' 1961 single-season record of 61 homers. Big Mac eclipsed the record with his 62nd homer at 8:18 p.m. Central Time on Tuesday, Sept. 8. The record-breaking homer came with two outs in the fourth inning —a solo shot to left field off Cubs' righthander Steve Trachsel. McGwire set a bevy of records during his home run tour de force. He walked 162 times to set a new N.L. standard, averaged one home run every 7.27 at-bats to break his 1996 major league record of one homer every 8.13 at-bats, hit an N.L.-record 38 home runs at home and became the first player to hit at least 50 homers in three consecutive seasons. McGwire also set a club record for most home runs in one month when he hit 16 in May, became the first Cardinal to hit a grand slam on Opening Day, hit the longest home run in Busch Stadium history (an estimated 545 feet on May 16) and became the oldest player (34 years, 324 days) in major league history to hit as many as 50 homers in a season. Home run records weren't McGwire's exclusive domain, however, as the team collectively set a single-season club mark with 223 homers, most in the National League and second-most in N.L. history. The Cardinals hit 10 homers in the pinch, also a team record, and homered in a team-record 17 straight games (34 homers total) from May 7 to May 25. The Cardinals' lineup featured four players with at least 20 homers for the first time ever, with McGwire and the outfield trio of Ray Lankford (31 homers), Ron Gant (26) and Brian Jordan (25) making history. McGwire and Lankford combined for 101 home runs, becoming just the third pair of teammates in big-league history to top the century mark in one year. Lankford wound up with a career-high 105 RBIs and became the all-time Busch Stadium home run leader, reaching 87 in his career. Outfielder J.D. Drew, the Cards' first selection (fifth overall) in the June amateur draft, signed a major league contract July 3 and made his big-league debut Sept. 8. On the pitching staff, 15 hurlers drew starting assignments, though the staff became more solidified in the second half as players returned from injuries. Righthander Matt Morris was activated from the disabled list on July 10 and led the staff after the All-Star break with seven wins and a 2.48 ERA. Cardinals fans turned out in record numbers, setting club home (3,194,092) and road (2,766,984) attendance marks. The club sold out its final 14 home games (the entire September home schedule).

1999 The Cardinals concluded the 20th century almost exactly the way they began it — their .466 winning percentage (75-86) in '99 was nearly identical to their .464 mark in 1900, and they finished 21½ games out of first place, slightly off their 19-game deficit 99 years earlier. Mark McGwire followed his record-setting 70-homer season of 1998 with a 65-homer campaign in 1999 and led the league with 147 RBIs. While extending his record string of consecutive 50-homer seasons to four, McGwire climbed 10 spots on the all-time home run list, moving into 10th place with 522 career blasts. He hit No. 500 on Aug. 5 off San Diego's Andy Ashby, reaching the plateau in the fewest at-bats (5,487) in big-league history. Third baseman Fernando Tatis enjoyed a banner offensive season that included a .298 batting average, 34 home runs and 107 RBIs. He also stole 21 bases to become just the fourth player (and first infielder) in Cardinals history to have a 20-homer/20-steal season. Tatis led the league with a .692 batting average (9-for-13) with the bases loaded, and on April 23 he became the first player to hit two grand slams in the same inning, connecting for both off the Dodgers' Chan Ho Park. Tatis' three grand slams during the year tied a club record, and his 34 homers were the most ever by a Redbirds third sacker. Joe McEwing's 25-game hitting streak from June 8 through July 4 established a club mark for rookies, ranking as the fifth-longest by a rookie in major league history. Shortstop Edgar Renteria led the team in games (154), at-bats (585), hits (161), doubles (36), and stolen bases (37). Pitcher Kent Bottenfield matched his career victory total by posting an 18-7 record. Bottenfield, who took a 14-3 record into his first career All-Star Game appearance, led the staff in wins, ERA (3.97), strikeouts (124) and starts (31). Rookie Jose Jimenez provided one of the season's other pitching success stories on June 25, when he no-hit Arizona, winning a 1-0 duel over the Diamondbacks' Randy Johnson. Jimenez became the 23rd rookie to toss a no-hitter and just the second Cardinals rookie to do so, after Paul Dean in 1934. Fan-favorite Willie McGee announced his retirement after the season, ending an 18-year major league career that included an N.L. MVP Award, two batting titles and 2,254 hits. Cardinals fans again passed through the turnstiles at a record clip, breaking the team home (3,225,334) and road (2,820,564) attendance marks for the second consecutive season.

2000 Following a disappointing finish in 1999, General Manager Walt Jocketty immediately went to work and bolstered the team's pitching staff by trading for starters Darryl Kile and Pat Hentgen, and closer Dave Veres. He followed up those moves by dealing for second baseman Fernando Viña and by signing free-agent pitcher Andy Benes, who had departed St. Louis just two years earlier. Mid-way through spring training, Jocketty pulled off perhaps the year's biggest acquisition by trading pitcher Kent Bottenfield and second baseman Adam Kennedy to Anaheim in exchange for All-Star outfielder Jim Edmonds. The 2000 squad opened the season with a 7-1 win over rival Chicago on Opening Day and remained in first place for all but three days. By the All-Star break, the club held an eight-game lead over the Cincinnati Reds and ended the season as National League Central Division Champions, 10 games ahead of their closest pursuer. With a 95-67 record, the team became the 23rd in franchise history, and first since 1987, to reach the 90-win mark. The Cardinals packed a powerful punch in the season's early stages, smacking home runs at a record rate. Twenty-one different players homered for the Redbirds as they posted a team-record 235 homers on the year. Despite bouts with back and leg injuries, Mark McGwire began the season strong and was hitting .303 with 30 home runs by the All-Star break. A severe case of tendinitis in his right knee caused McGwire to remove himself from the game on July 6 and he never fully recovered the rest of the season. He finished the year with 554 career home runs, ranking seventh on baseball's all-time home run list. Edmonds took over as the team's offensive leader, batting .295 with 42 homers and 108 RBIs while also drawing strong MVP consideration. He also turned heads with his spectacular defensive play, earning his third Rawlings Gold Glove award. A spark plug at the top of the lineup, Viña was everything Jocketty and Manager Tony La Russa hoped he would be, despite a couple of trips to the disabled list. While his .300 batting average led the team, Viña was hit by pitch a Major League-leading 28 times, the most by a Cardinal since 1910, when Steve Evans was hit a franchise-record 31 times. A trading deadline deal brought Will "The Thrill" Clark to St. Louis, and Clark, who announced his retirement following the season, sparked an offense that was sagging. He finished the season batting .345 with 12 homers and 42 RBIs in 51 games as a Redbird. Starting pitching was one of the strengths of the club as the Cardinals used only five starters through their first 122 games (August 19). Kile led the team with 20 wins, finishing second in the N.L. in victories while becoming the Cardinals first 20-game winner since 1985. Lefthanded rookie sensation Rick Ankiel finished second in Rookie of the Year balloting with an 11-7 record and a 3.50 ERA that was eighth among all National League pitchers. Ankiel struck out a team-high 194 batters, breaking Dizzy Dean's Cardinals rookie record of 191 set in 1932. His strikeouts per nine innings ratio of 10.0 was second only to Arizona's Randy Johnson and his .219 opponents batting average was third in the league. Garrett Stephenson began the season with an eight-game winning streak and finished with a career-high 16 wins. Hentgen posted 15 wins while Andy Benes contributed 12. Catcher Mike Matheny, another off-season acquisition, was a controlling factor in the success of the pitching staff. He established career highs in nearly every offensive category, but it was his defense that was most noticeable. Matheny threw out a remarkable 51% (46-for-90) of opposing base stealers which ranked first in the Majors and helped earn him his first Rawlings Gold Glove award. His season came to an unfortunate and abrupt end on September 29, when he severed two flexor tendons and a nerve in his right ring finger while accidentally cutting himself on a knife. He underwent surgery and missed the remainder of the season and all of the postseason. Edmonds, McGwire and Kile were each named to the N.L. All-Star team, but due to his injury, McGwire could not appear and shortstop Edgar Renteria was named as his replacement. Renteria had one of the best all-around seasons ever by a Cardinals shortstop, setting career highs in home runs (16 - the most ever by a Cardinals' shortstop), RBIs (76) and runs scored (94) and he proved to be one of the most consistent players for the club during the postseason. His .423 slugging percentage earned him the N.L. Silver Slugger at shortstop. For the 17th time, and the second time in five years under La Russa's helm, the Cardinals advanced to the postseason. St. Louis first met up with the Atlanta Braves in the Division Series, a team that had won its division nine out of the past 10 seasons. The Cards proved up to the task and quickly dispatched of the Braves, sweeping them in three games. The Cardinals moved on to face the New York Mets, a team that had tormented them all season. Aside from Andy Benes' strong Game 3 outing at New York, the Mets handled the short-handed Cardinals with ease by winning the best-of-seven series in just five games. The Cardinals were without the services of McGwire, Matheny and Stephenson during the N.L.Championship Series. Following the season, Jocketty was cited as Executive of the Year by both Baseball America and The Sporting News for his keen acquisitions. He helped the Cardinals become the first club in baseball history to acquire a 20-game winner (Kile) and 40-homer player (Edmonds) in the same off-season. For the third-straight year the Cardinals set a new attendance record as 3.3 million fans visited Busch Stadium, selling out a record 37 games.

BUSCH STADIUM 1966 — 2001

In the mid-1950s, several years after he persuaded the board of directors of Anheuser-Busch to purchase the St. Louis Cardinals, August A. Busch Jr. decided that if the team was to prosper and attract the fans necessary to support a major league franchise, it would have to move to a new stadium.

Mr. Busch took his idea for a new stadium in downtown St. Louis to city officials and civic leaders. Their interest in a major redevelopment of the downtown area and their realization that a new stadium could serve as the focal point paved the way for the laying of groundwork for the project.

In 1964, ground was broken, and on May 12, 1966, Busch Stadium officially opened as the new home of the St. Louis Cardinals. In a 12-inning inaugural, the Cardinals defeated the Atlanta Braves, 4-3.

Looking back over the stadium's 34-year past, it is clear that Mr. Busch and others involved in the project accurately anticipated that the new stadium would spur a rebirth of downtown St. Louis. With Busch Stadium as the focal point, the redevelopment of the downtown area has been marked by the addition of new office buildings, hotels, shopping complexes, parking garages and other facilities, including the International Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

Through the 2000 season, more than 74 million people have attended 2,698 games at Busch Stadium.

Recent improvements and additions include the installation in 1997 of a hand-operated scoreboard flanked by flag decks commemorating the club's World Series championships and retired numbers; the return in 1996 to a natural-grass playing surface, which replaced the artificial turf that had been in place since 1970; the opening in 1996 of the Family Pavilion, featuring a variety of games and attractions for families and children, and Homer's Landing, a picnic area located above the bullpen in left-center field; and the return of a more traditional "ballpark green" color scheme for the outfield fence and stadium trim.

Other improvements include the installation in 1993 of a state-of-the-art sound system and a new large-screen video display, a Diamond Vision MARK III High Contrast system by Mitsubishi Electronics. Prior to the 1995 season, a Plaza of Champions monument display honoring the Cardinals' World Championship teams was erected near the Stan Musial statue. And in 1998, the club dedicated the first in a series of statues that form an outdoor promenade between Gates 6 and 7 to honor the players who helped forge the Cardinals' championship tradition. Thus far, the club has unveiled statues honoring Bob Gibson, Stan Musial and Jack Buck, in 1998; Lou Brock, Red Schoendienst and Enos Slaughter, in 1999; and Dizzy Dean and Rogers Hornsby, in 2000. The statues were created by sculptor Harry Weber.

Busch Stadium's basic structure is concrete. The stadium is basically a two-deck facility with about half its seats in each deck. The seats completely surround the field without posts or columns to obstruct fans' views. The nearly circular structure has an outside diameter of more than 800 feet, covers more than 12 acres and is 130-feet tall, measured from the playing field to the top of the stadium.

The playing field at Busch Stadium is 10 to 30 feet lower than street level. Spectators move from the entrance level either up or down to seating areas. There are eight major entrances.

OUTFIELD AREA

Fair ball hitting above yellow line in left and right fields — HOME RUN. Ball hitting on or below yellow line is IN PLAY.

Fair ball bounding into field boxes, bleachers, bullpens or going through or under fences — TWO BASES.

DUGOUTS

Ball rolling onto top step of dugouts (which are at ground level) is IN PLAY.

Photographers' areas on outfield sides of each dugout shall be considered part of the dugout.

Ball thrown by pitcher from the rubber to catch baserunner off first or third base that goes into stands or dugouts — ONE BASE.

A pitch, thrown or batted ball that hits anyone on the playing field except as otherwise provided for in the Official Rules is IN PLAY.

Ball going through wire screen behind plate or lodging in it — ONE BASE on throw by pitcher — TWO BASES on throw by fielder.

HISTORY

POSTPONED GAMES AT BUSCH STADIUM

There have been 56 regular-season games and two postseason games postponed in the 35-year history of Busch Stadium. There were a season-high four postponed games in 1967, 69, 70 and 74. The home opener has been postponed three times: in 1973 by cold weather and in 1991 and 1994 by rain. The last time the Cardinals were postponed by snow at Busch was April 10, 1997. The last postponed game occurred April 24, 2000.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:

Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:

Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:

40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:

A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:

Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:

Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the number by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:

Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:

Add the total of hits, walks and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING AVERAGE:

Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after 3 years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring 3 years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:

Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES HITTING STREAK:

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES PLAYING STREAK:

A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

REGULATION GAME:

A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

DISABLED LISTS:

15-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) calendar days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

FARM AND SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

MIKE JORGENSEN
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Mike Jorgensen begins his 10th year as the Cardinals' Director of Player Development.

Jorgensen was named to the position on February 5, 1992, after working as the Cardinals' minor league hitting instructor/coordinator since 1990 and as manager for the Louisville Redbirds from 1987 to 1989. He made his big-league managerial debut following the dismissal of Cardinals skipper Joe Torre on June 16, 1995, and guided the team to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, Jorgensen also remained in his post as director of player development. He returned to player development full time following the 1995 season.

Upon retiring as a player after the 1985 season, Jorgensen was hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg when Dave Bialas moved up to Louisville to replace Jim Fregosi, who had been hired to manage the Chicago White Sox. Jorgensen led St. Petersburg to an 88-48 finish, the best mark in the Florida State League.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman-outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was selected by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968, appearing in eight games. He was traded to Montreal in a multiplayer deal for Rusty Staub at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland (1977), Texas (1978-79), the Mets again (1980-83), Atlanta (1983-84) and the Cardinals (1984-85), arriving with pitcher Ken Dayley in a trade for third baseman Ken Oberkfell.

Jorgensen, born August 16, 1948, in Passaic, N.J., and his wife, the former Brenda Rice, have three children; Brian Michael (9-30-73), Kristen Leigh (7-7-75) and Eric James (4-7-81) and one grandchild; Eric (10-12-95). He graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, N.Y., and attended St. John's University. Jorgensen enjoys quail hunting, cooking and coaching basketball in his spare time.

JOHN MOZELIAK
DIRECTOR OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

John Mozeliak begins his first year in his new position and will assist Senior Vice President/General Manager Walt Jocketty with the day-to-day Major League operations of the club. Mozeliak will also coordinate the efforts of both the scouting and player development staffs. He served as the Cardinals' scouting director for two years after being appointed to the job in November 1998. Mozeliak joined the organization following the 1995 season, serving as an assistant in scouting operations in 1996 and 1997, and as the assistant scouting director in 1998.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies, where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations.

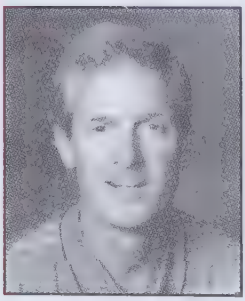
Mozeliak, 32, is a graduate of the University of Colorado and a member of the Missouri Scouts Association. He lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, and daughter, Allyson More (7/22/99).

MARTEESE ROBINSON
DIRECTOR OF PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING

Robinson joins the Cardinals staff as Director of Professional Scouting and will provide oversight for the team's professional scouting staff, including the team's advance scouting efforts. Robinson joined the scouting ranks in 1999 as scouting supervisor with the Toronto Blue Jays and was promoted to scouting coordinator in 2000.

Robinson, 34, was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the sixth round of the June 1987 draft. He played four seasons before retiring at the beginning of 1991. From 1992 to 1998 Robinson was a police officer in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Robinson was born in Newark, NJ, and graduated from Seton Hall Preparatory High School in 1984. He attended Seton Hall University from 1984 to1987 and led the nation in hitting in '87 with a .529 batting average, earning co-College Player of the Year honors with Robin Ventura. Robinson and his wife Charlene reside in Sayreville, N.J. with their children, Bria and Marteese, Jr.



MARTY MAIER
DIRECTOR OF AMATEUR SCOUTING

Marty Maier was appointed as the team's Director of Amateur Scouting in January of this year and will serve as the team's chief evaluator of amateur talent. Part of his duties will include overseeing the team's selections in the June amateur draft.

Maier was a member of the Cardinals scouting staff from 1988 to 1997, spending his final four years as scouting director. During his previous tenure with the club, the Cardinals drafted future Major Leaguers such as Rick Ankiel, Adam Kennedy, Matt Morris and Placido Polanco. Maier spent the past three seasons working with the Los Angeles Dodgers' scouting staff as a professional scout.

Originally from Hollywood, Fla., Maier graduated from South Broward High School in 1970. He attended Broward Junior College in Fort Lauderdale and Florida State University, graduating with a bachelor's degree in education. Maier and his wife Diane reside in Oakland, Calif.

JEFF SCOTT
DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING AND OPERATIONS

Jeff Scott was appointed in January of this year to this position after serving as director of player procurement since November 1998. He was a special assignment scout with the club from 1996 to 1998. In his position, Scott will focus his attention on upgrading and reorganizing the area of scouting and operations in international player development.

Before joining the Cardinals, Scott was scouting director for the Detroit Tigers from 1994 to '96, for Cleveland in 1988 and for the Seattle Mariners in 1984 and '85. He also was the Indians' director of scouting and player development in 1986 and '87, the Mariners' assistant scouting director in 1982 and '83, and a scout with Colorado in 1996. Major Leaguers scouted and signed by Scott include Edgar Martinez, Albert Belle, Omar Vizquel, Charles Nagy, Greg Swindell, Jeff Shaw and Bill Swift.

A former pitcher, Scott was drafted by the Texas Rangers in the third round of the 1972 amateur draft. He pitched for four years in the Rangers' system, reaching the Double-A level before injuries cut short his career. He then worked as a pitching coach for four years with the Rangers' Class-A Asheville club and managed Seattle's short-season Bellingham affiliate from 1979 to '83. Scott, 46, has three children; Jennifer, Sarah and Ryan.

MARTY MARTINEZ
SUPERVISOR OF LATIN AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT

Marty Martinez begins his second season in the Cardinals' farm system. Martinez' main focus is on developing the organization's young Latin American talent playing in Central America and for Cardinals affiliates up to the Class-A level.

Martinez joined the Cardinals after working for five years as the Detroit Tigers' roving minor league infield instructor. Before joining the Tigers, Martinez spent 15 seasons in Seattle's system in a variety of positions. With the Mariners, he served as a minor league manager (1980, 1994-95), roving minor league instructor (1981-84, 1987-88), instructional staff supervisor (1989) and Latin scouting supervisor (1990-91). He also was a major league coach from 1984-86 and in 1992. Martinez was a scout with the Texas Rangers in 1979 and a manager in their farm system from 1975 through '78.

As a player, Martinez was originally signed by the Washington Senators in 1960 and made his debut as a 20-year-old infielder with Minnesota in 1962. He wound up playing all nine positions during his seven-year major league career, which included nine games with the Cardinals in 1972, and batted a career-high .308 with Houston in 1969. Martinez, 59, resides in Tulsa, Okla.

FRED McALISTER
SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT

Fred McAlister became a Cardinals special assignment scout following the 1993 season after serving as scouting director since 1980. As special assignment scout, he reports directly to Senior Vice President/General Manager Walt Jocketty.

McAlister has been part of the Cardinals' organization since 1945, when he signed as a player out of high school. He played in the Cardinals' farm system from 1945 to 1960, serving as a player/coach or player/manager at various times.

During his tenure as scouting director, McAlister's first-round picks reached the majors in 12 of his 13 drafts, including a streak of picks from 1981 to 1987. McAlister's drafts produced more than 70 players who suited up for the Cardinals, as well as 17 players who reached the majors with other organizations.

McAlister also was the Cardinals' assistant farm director from 1967 to '69. He then served as a scouting supervisor and special assignment scout from 1969 to 1979.

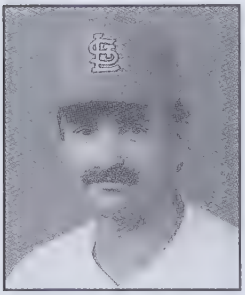
McAlister, 73, resides in Clearwater, Fla., with his wife Patty.

GEORGE KISSELL
SENIOR FIELD COORDINATOR FOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

As senior field coordinator for player development, George Kissell coordinates each of the Cardinals' minor league affiliates and reports to Director of Player Development Mike Jorgensen. Because of his expertise in fundamentals of the game, Kissell handles many of the instructional duties for the minor leagues during spring training and extended spring training.

Kissell spent 10 years in the minor leagues as an infielder and has served the Cardinals in several capacities since joining the organization in 1940. From 1946 to 1968, he worked as a manager, coach, scout and minor league instructor. Kissell was a Cardinals' coach from 1969 to 1975 and a special field assistant to General Manager Bing Devine in 1976.

Kissell, a Watertown, N.Y., native, graduated with a master's degree from Ithaca (N.Y.) College. In 1999, he was honored with a plaque that hangs outside Busch Stadium in recognition of his many years of service with the club, most of them as a teacher. He and his wife, Ginny, reside in St. Petersburg. The couple have a son, Dick, and a daughter, Kay.



JOE PETTINI
MINOR LEAGUE FIELD COORDINATOR

Pettini begins his fifth year as the organization's minor league field coordinator. He managed eight seasons in the system, most recently at Class-AAA Louisville, where he guided the Redbirds to the 1995 American Association championship. Overall, he was 475-569 at the helm of the Cardinals' farm affiliates.

The 46-year-old Pettini began his managerial career in 1989 with Hamilton, Ontario. He had stops at St. Petersburg in 1990 (60-74) and at Arkansas for the 1991 to '93 seasons (175-229).

Pettini's playing career began in 1977, when he signed with the Montreal Expos as a nondrafted free agent. In 1980, he was traded to the San Francisco Giants, where he played for four seasons. He was signed by Louisville in 1984 and played with the Redbirds for three seasons.

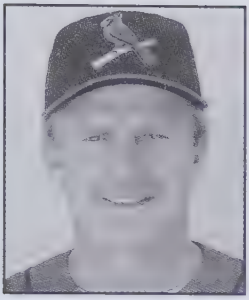
Pettini was born January 26, 1955, in Wheeling, W.V., and graduated from Brooke High School in Wellsburg, W.V., in 1973. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Mercer University in Macon, Ga. Pettini and his wife Barbara were married on November 11, 1981. The couple have two children: Amy Michele (2-17-83) and Joseph James (6-15-87). Pettini enjoys bass fishing, hunting and golfing.

MARK RIGGINS
MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING COORDINATOR

Riggins is entering his sixth season as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator and his 18th season in the system. In 1995, he served as the Cardinals' pitching coach under Joe Torre and Mike Jorgensen and was the pitching coach at Louisville from 1990 to 1994.

Riggins, 44, began his coaching career in 1984 with Johnson City, moved to St. Petersburg in 1985, to Arkansas in 1986, to Springfield in 1987 and back to St. Petersburg in 1988. He spent the 1989 season as the Cardinals' roving minor league pitching instructor before joining Louisville in 1990. Riggins pitched in the Cardinals' system for five seasons with Gastonia, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. He also played on loan for Baltimore's Charlotte club for part of 1983.

Riggins is a graduate of Loogootee High School in Indiana and earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural business in 1979 from Murray State University, where he was a three-year all-conference pitcher. He makes his off-season home in Murray, Ky., with his wife, Tammie, and daughter, Chelsea Lee.



BILL CAMPBELL

ASSISTANT MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING COORDINATOR

Campbell moves into his current position this season after spending his first year on the Cardinals' minor league staff as the pitching coach at Class-AAA Memphis.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Campbell spent eight seasons in the Milwaukee system. He was the Brewers big-league pitching coach in 1999 and spent the previous seven seasons as an instructor in Milwaukee's minor leagues. He worked as the minor league pitching coordinator for the Brewers in 1997-98, as a pitching coach at the Class-A level in 1996 and as a Triple-A pitching coach from 1992-95.

The 52-year-old Campbell pitched in 15 big-league campaigns, including the 1985 season as a member of the Cardinals. He appeared in three games in both the NLCS and World Series after pitching in 50 games during the regular season, one of seven seasons in which he worked at least 50 games. Campbell twice led the league in games pitched, with 82 for the 1983 Cubs and with 78 for the Twins in 1976, when he tied an American League record for most games won as a relief pitcher, posting a 17-5 record. Campbell appeared in the 1977 All-Star Game as a member of the Boston Red Sox, saving a league-leading 31 games that year with a 13-9 record.

Campbell resides in Palatine, Ill., with his wife Linda, their two daughters, Emily and Mamie, and son, Joseph.

RAY BURRIS

ROVING PITCHING INSTRUCTOR

A former Cardinal and veteran of 15 big-league seasons, Burris begins his second season as a roving pitching instructor. Burris, winner of 108 decisions in his career, twice won 15 games with the Cubs (in 1975 and '76) and pitched in 23 games for the 1986 Cardinals.

After retiring as a player, Burris was a minor league pitching coach for Milwaukee in 1988 and '89 and the Brewers' bullpen coach in 1990 and '91. He also worked as a roving instructor, special assistant to the general manager, advance scout and community development employee for Milwaukee. In 1992 Burris joined the Texas Rangers as an assistant pitching coach before moving to their front office from 1993 to '95. He served as the Rangers' special assistant for community development and special projects, and as assistant to the vice president of community development.

Since 1996, Burris has owned and operated his own businesses, the Academy of Sports Instruction and B & A Sports Promotions. He resides in Arlington, Tex., with his wife Debra. They have five children: daughter Deneen, an assistant basketball coach at Southern Methodist, and four sons in college, Djemal, Raymon, Damon, and B.J.

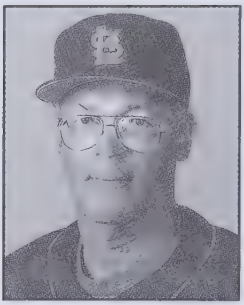
MITCHELL PAGE

MINOR LEAGUE HITTING COORDINATOR

Page begins his third year as the Cardinals' minor league hitting coordinator after joining the organization in 1998 as the hitting coach at Class-AAA Memphis. Before coming to the Cardinals, Page was the Kansas City Royals' first-base coach for the 1995-97 seasons and Oakland's Triple-A hitting instructor and first-base coach, at Tacoma, for the 1992-94 seasons.

As a player, Page enjoyed an eight-season big-league career with Oakland (1977-83) and Pittsburgh (1984). He was originally drafted by the Pirates in the third round of the June 1973 amateur draft but was sent to Oakland in a nine-player trade in March 1977. That year, he batted .307, hit 21 homers, drove in 75 runs and stole 42 bases — all career-best totals — and was named The Sporting News' A.L. Rookie of the Year.

Page was born October 15, 1951, in Compton, Calif., and has one son, Kyle. He resides in Oakland.



DAVE RICKETTS
MINOR LEAGUE CATCHING INSTRUCTOR

Ricketts is entering his 28th year as an instructor with the organization.

The 65-year-old Ricketts originally signed with the Cardinals in 1957. He was a backup catcher and pinch-hitter with the Cardinals from 1967 to 1969 and appeared in the 1967 and 1968 World Series. He spent his last season as a player with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1970.

Ricketts began his coaching career with the Pirates, serving as their bullpen coach from 1971 to 1973. He joined the Cardinals as a major league coach in 1974. In 1976, he was named manager at Sarasota, where he guided the team to a third-place finish. He managed at Johnson City in 1977 before returning to the majors as a coach form 1978 to 1991. In 1995, he was the pitching coach at Savannah.

Ricketts was born in Pottstown, Pa. He earned a bachelor's of arts degree from Duquesne University, where he starred in basketball along with his brother, Dick, a former Cardinals pitcher. Ricketts lives in St. Louis with his wife Barbara. The couple have one daughter, Candy.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

GAYLEN PITTS
MEMPHIS

Gaylen Pitts is entering his 21st season in the organization and his fifth successive year as manager of the Cardinals' Class-AAA affiliate. He begins his fourth season at the helm of the Memphis Redbirds following the move of the organization's Triple-A outpost to Tennessee in 1998. Pitts managed the Redbirds in their final season at Louisville in 1997. He also served as Louisville's manager in 1990 and coached there in 1983 and '84.

Pitts returned to the farm system in 1996 as Minor League Field Coordinator after serving the previous five seasons as a coach at the major league level. He was the Cardinals' bullpen coach from 1991 to 1994 and third-base coach in 1995.

Pitts also has managed Cardinal farm teams at Arkansas (1981-82, '89), Savannah (1985), Springfield (1986-87) and Johnson City. He managed the Oakland A's Modesto club in 1978-79. Pitts was named Texas League Manager of the Year in 1989, when he led Arkansas to the league championship. He also guided Springfield to back-to-back division titles in 1986 and 1987.

Pitts was signed by the Cardinals in 1964 out of Mountain Home High School in Arkansas, where he lettered in baseball and football. He was an infielder in the Cardinals' system until 1971. Pitts played 28 games at the major league level with Oakland in 1974-75.

Pitts, 54, resides in Mountain Home, Ark., with his wife Julia and son, Travis Ray (8-8-87). In his spare time, he enjoys trout fishing, snow- and water-skiing, and racquetball.

DANNY SHEAFFER
NEW HAVEN

Former Cardinals catcher Danny Sheaffer begins his first season with his former club, heading up the newest affiliate site at New Haven, Conn. Sheaffer has spent the last two years managing the Chicago Cubs single-A affiliate in Eugene, Ore.

Sheaffer, 39, began his major league career when he was briefly called up in 1987 while playing with the Boston Red Sox organization and in 1989 while with Cleveland. The next time he would experience a taste of big-league baseball would be 1993 as he spent the entire 1993 and 1994 seasons with the Colorado Rockies. In 1995, Sheaffer made his way to St. Louis and spent the next three years as a Cardinal. He played for the Cardinals' AAA-Memphis club in 1998 and retired from playing during the Cubs' spring training camp in 1999. His best season came in 1993 with Colorado, hitting .278 in 82 games, throwing out 15 of 51 (29%) runners attempting to steal.

Sheaffer, born August 2, 1961, graduated in 1979 from Redland High School in Lewisberry, Pa., where he was the school MVP and earned all-state honors in baseball. He played baseball while attending Harrisburg (PA) Junior College and Clemson University and appeared in the 1980 College World Series with Clemson. He and his wife LaDonna have two sons, Daniel (7-17-90) and David (5-9-95) and reside in Mt. Airy, NC. Sheaffer is an avid follower of NASCAR Racing.

JOE CUNNINGHAM
POTOMAC

Cunningham, a manager in seven of his 12 seasons as an instructor in the Cardinals' system, begins his fourth consecutive season at the helm of the organization's Carolina League entry.

In 1993, his second year as a skipper, Cunningham was named the Appalachian League's Manager of the Year for guiding Johnson City to a 37-31 mark, falling just half a game short of a playoff berth. He was 28-28 at Chandler in his managerial debut in 1992, 66-73 at Madison in 1994 and 70-69 at Peoria in 1997. Cunningham served as a roving minor league instructor in 1996 after coaching at Louisville in 1995, Johnson City in 1990 and 1991, and Hamilton in 1989.

The 38-year-old Cunningham, son of former Cardinals' All-Star outfielder and longtime front office employee Joe Cunningham Jr., played in the Cardinals' organization from 1984 to 1988 with Johnson City, Savannah, St. Petersburg and Springfield.

Cunningham was born on January 16, 1963, in St. Louis, where he graduated from Parkway Central High School in 1981. He attended Gulf Coast Community College in Panama City, Fla. Off the field, Cunningham enjoys hunting and fishing. His wife's name is Desilee.

JOE HALL
PEORIA

A former minor leaguer with the Cardinals organization, Hall makes his managerial debut as the skipper of the Class-A Peoria Chiefs. In 2000, Hall served as the minor league baserunning instructor for the Cincinnati Reds.

Hall played 12 professional seasons in baseball from 1988 to 1999. He was primarily an outfielder in the minor league systems with St. Louis, Chicago (AL), Detroit, Baltimore and Texas. He saw limited Major League action in 1994 with the White Sox and in 1995 and 1997 with Detroit.

Hall, 34, was drafted by St. Louis in the 10th round of the June 1988 amateur draft. He resides in San Angelo, Tex., with his wife, Amy, and two children, Joseph Jr. (6) and Grant (3).

BRIAN RUPP
NEW JERSEY

Rupp moves back to the managerial ranks after spending the 2000 season coaching double-A Arkansas. He moved from the minor league playing ranks in 1999, becoming the skipper of the Peoria Chiefs.

A native St. Louisan, Rupp played in the Cardinals' farm system from 1992-98 after being drafted in the 43rd round of the June 1992 amateur draft. He compiled a career .295 batting average, highlighted by a South Atlantic League batting title in 1993, when he hit .320 with 81 RBIs at Savannah. Rupp also earned the 1992 batting crown in the Arizona League, where he hit .386 while leading the league in hits and RBIs. Rupp, 28, was drafted as a shortstop from the University of Missouri-St. Louis but eventually found playing time at first and third base and the outfield.

A graduate of McCluer North High School, Rupp resides in Florissant, Mo., with his wife, Stacie.

CHRIS MALONEY
JOHNSON CITY

Maloney begins his first season as skipper at Johnson City after spending the past three years heading up the double-A Arkansas team. While with Arkansas, he earned honors as the 1998 Texas League Manager of the Year for guiding the 80-60 Travelers to a regular-season title and their first trip to the postseason since 1989.

A member of the farm system's coaching and managerial ranks since 1988, Maloney has a career 604-503 (.546) record in nine seasons as a manager. In 1993, Maloney guided the Savannah Cardinals to a 94-48 record and the South Atlantic League championship — a feat that warranted his selection by USA Today's Baseball Weekly as its 1993 Minor League Manager of the Year. The year before, his .737 winning percentage (56-20) at Hamilton was the highest ever posted by a Cardinals farm team, earning Maloney recognition as the New York-Penn League Manager of the Year.

Maloney also has managed at St. Petersburg in 1995 (64-67) and '96 (75-63), at Arkansas in 1994 (68-67) and at Johnson City in 1991 (40-26). As a coach in the system, he's had stops at Louisville (1997), Johnson City (1990), Arkansas (1989) and Springfield (1988).

Maloney was signed as a nondrafted free agent by the New York Mets in June 1983. The outfielder-first baseman was purchased by the Cardinals in 1986 and played for Springfield.

Maloney graduated in 1979 from St. Joseph High School in Jackson, Miss., and from Mississippi State University in 1983. He likes bass fishing, deer and duck hunting and golfing. Maloney is involved with the Multiple Sclerosis Society and lives with his wife, Laurie, in Jackson during the off-season.

MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

BOOTS DAY
MEMPHIS

Day begins his fourth season as a coach in the Cardinals' minor league system. He is in his third successive campaign at Triple-A Memphis after making his organizational coaching debut at Prince William in 1997.

Day joined the Cardinals' staff after coaching the previous two seasons in the Cleveland Indians' organization, at Class-A Kinston of the Carolina League in 1997 and at Class-AAA Buffalo in 1996. He previously scouted for Kansas City, the New York Yankees and Detroit, and managed the Tigers' rookie-level Bristol club in 1982-83.

A former outfielder who made his big-league debut with the Cardinals in 1969, Day played for Montreal in five of his six major league seasons, splitting the 1970 schedule between the Expos and Cubs. He batted .256 during his career, including a .283 mark for Montreal in 1971.

Day, 53, was born and raised in Ilion, NY. He now resides in Ballwin, Mo. He has two daughters, Kori and Tara.

DYAR MILLER
MEMPHIS

Miller begins his first year as pitching coach for the Cardinals triple-A club after serving as a roving pitching instructor the past four years. His most recent stint as coach in the Cardinals farm system came during the 1995-96 seasons when he was the pitching coach at triple-A Louisville. Miller previously coached in the Cardinals system at Arkansas (1985) and Louisville (1986). He was bullpen coach for the Chicago White Sox in 1987 and pitching and bullpen coach for the Sox in 1988. He coached in the Detroit system (1989-90) before serving as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians organization from 1991 to 1994.

The 54-year-old former pitcher was originally signed by Philadelphia. He spent seven years in the majors, pitching for Baltimore (1975-77), California (1977-79), Toronto (1979) and the New York Mets (1980-81).

Miller was born May 29, 1946, in Batesville, Ind. He graduated from New Point High School, where he participated in baseball, basketball and track He earned a B.S. degree in 1968 from Utah State, where he played baseball and basketball. Miller and his wife, the former Bertha Jo Williams, have four children: Scott, Matthew, Christopher and Sara Mae. They reside in Indianapolis. Miller, a teacher during the off-season, enjoys golf, hiking and fishing.

RON "POP" WARNER
NEW HAVEN

Warner begins his first year with the Cardinals in a coaching capacity, taking on the role of coach at the newest Cardinals' affiliate, the New Haven Ravens.

After playing in the Redbirds system for nine seasons, Warner spent 2000 as a batting practice pitcher for the Major League club. He was originally drafted by the Cardinals in 1991 in the 17th round as a shortstop. In 1999, he hit .290 with 11 home runs and 33 RBI for Memphis while playing several positions.

Warner, 32 attended the University of Wyoming. He resides in St. Charles, Mo., with his wife, Laura.

DAVE LaPOINT
NEW HAVEN

Former Cardinal Dave LaPoint starts his second year with the organization as pitching coach at Class-AA New Haven.

A major leaguer for 12 seasons, LaPoint began his coaching career in 1993 as pitching coach for the San Pedro de Macoris Dominican Winter League team. After working as an agent in 1994, he was the general manager, manager and pitching coach for the Adirondack Lumberjacks of the Northeast League in 1995 and '96. He guided the team to a championship in their inaugural season.

LaPoint, 41, pitched for nine teams during his major league career, logging his longest tenure with the Cardinals, from 1981 to 1984 and 1987. LaPoint tied for the team lead with 12 wins in 1983 and was second with 12 victories in '84. In 1982, the rookie lefthander pitched the Cardinals to a 4-2 victory on Sept. 27, clinching the N.L. East title. Overall, he was 35-23 as a Redbird.

LaPoint resides in Glens Falls, N.Y., with his wife, Laura, and their three children, Cody (9), Casey (7) and Max (4). He also has two sons, Bobby (17) and Tommy (13). LaPoint and his wife own a travel agency, LaPoint's Travel Services, and sports bar, Dave LaPoint's Pitchers.

MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

TODD STEVERSON
POTOMAC

In his third year with the Cardinals organization, Steverson rejoins the staff at Class-A Potomac after spending 2000 in Peoria. Steverson began his time in the Cardinals system in 1999 coaching at Potomac. Steverson wrapped up his playing career in 1998 as an outfielder with the Cardinals' Class-AAA Memphis club, capping a seven-year career that included big-league appearances with Detroit in 1995 and San Diego in '96.

Steverson, 29, originally was drafted out of Culver City (Calif.) High School by the Cardinals in the sixth round of the June 1989 amateur draft but elected instead to attend Arizona State University. Three years later, he was a first-round pick (25th overall) by Toronto.

Steverson, a cousin of former major leaguer Ron LeFlore, resides in Phoenix, Ariz.

BRIAN EVERSGERD
POTOMAC

Eversgerd begins his first year as a coach in organized baseball, coaching at class-A Potomac. He began his Major League baseball career with the Cardinals, signing as a nondrafted free agent on June 14, 1989. He pitched a scoreless inning of relief in his big-league debut for the Cardinals on April 26, 1994 and picked up his first Major League win in his only big-league start on May 20, 1994, at Florida. The left-hander also pitched at the Major League level for Montreal and Texas before returning to St. Louis from 1998 to 2000.

Eversgerd, 32, graduated from Carlyle (Ill.) High School in 1987 and played baseball at Kaskaskia Community College, leading the team to the 1989 sectional championship. He resides in Hoffman, Ill., with his wife, Lisa, and daughter, Kristen.

MARK GRATER
PEORIA

Grater joins class-A Peoria as pitching coach after coaching for the Caridnals' Carolina League affiliate, Potomac, for the past three seasons. This will be Grater's fifth season with the Cardinals overall, as he began his tenure with the club as a pitching coach for New Jersey in 1997.

A former pitcher nicknamed "The Saver," Grater appeared in the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1991 and Detroit in 1993. He led the Florida State League with 32 saves at St. Petersburg in 1989 and the American Association with 24 saves for Louisville in 1992. Grater was the Cardinals' 24th round pick in the June 1986 draft out of Florida International University.

Grater, 37, is originally from Rochester, Pa., and resides in Monaca, Pa.

JEFF SHIREMAN
PEORIA

Shireman returns to Peoria as a coach after managing the squad in 1998. For the past two seasons he has served as the manager for the organization's New Jersey affiliate where he made his managerial debut in 1997. In 1998, he managed the Peoria Chiefs to a 72-68 record.

Shireman, 35, coached at Arkansas in 1995 and '96 following the conclusion of his seven-year playing career in the Cardinals' system in 1994. Drafted by the Cardinals in June 1988, the infielder had stops at Johnson City, Springfield, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. Shireman attended Georgia Southern University, where he earned all-conference recognition in 1987 and '88 and Conference Player of the Year honors in 1988.

Shireman was born March 3, 1966, at Ames, Iowa. He graduated from Bucholz High School, where he received all-state honors in 1984 and all-district recognition from 1981 to 1983. He makes his off-season home in Little Rock, Ark., with his wife, Melissa, and two sons, Jonah and Jacob.

GARY BUCKELS
NEW JERSEY

Buckels, 35, enters his fifth season on the Cardinals' minor league staff and third at New Jersey after coaching at Peoria in 1997 and '98. Buckels playing career spanned eight seasons, starting in the California Angels' organization in 1987. He appeared in 10 games with the Cardinals in 1994, going 0-1 with a 2.25 ERA. The same year, he was named to the Triple-A All-Star team while pitching for Louisville.

Buckels was born in La Mirada, Calif., and attended Cal State-Fullerton. He resides in Orange, Calif., with his wife, Gina, and daughters, Megan and Tarah.

SID MONGE
JOHNSON CITY

In his second year with the Cardinals, Monge will serve as pitching coach at Johnson City after spending his first season at Peoria. The former big-league lefthander spent three seasons in the Padres' minor league chain, working as pitching coach for their rookie club in Peoria, Ariz., in 1998-99 and as pitching coach for Triple-A Las Vegas in 1997. Before joining the Padres, Monge spent five seasons as a pitching coach in Detroit's farm system.

Monge was 49-40 with a 3.53 ERA in a career that spanned 10 seasons. He played with the Angels (1975-77), Indians (1977-1981), Phillies (1982-1983), Padres (1983-84) and Tigers (1984). Monge was a member of the American League All-Star team in 1979, when he posted career bests with 76 appearances, 12 victories, 108 strikeouts and a 2.40 ERA.

Monge, 50, and his wife, Carol, have three children, Michael, Amanda and John.

TOM KIDWELL
JOHNSON CITY

Kidwell will make the transition from minor league player to coach, becoming a coach at rookie level Johnson City. Kidwell was drafted by the Cardinals in the 33rd round of the June 1998 free-agent draft and spent the '98 season with New Jersey. He played at Class-A Peoria in 1999.

Kidwell, 24, was born in Watertown, NY., and makes his home in St. Petersburg, Fla. He attended Yale University.

CREDENTIALS — Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies. Season credentials will be issued only to those agencies that cover the Cardinals on a daily basis. Season credentials must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made in writing to the Cardinals Media Relations Office. Deadlines for credentials are as follows: Season – March 16; Daily – two working days prior to the game requested. All agencies must have a letter on file to have credentials issued. Credentials are issued to working members of the press only. No spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media also are prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available at the press gate, between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. After 5 p.m., credentials are available at the Press Will Call window (located next to the press gate). Photo identification is required.

ADMISSION — The media entrance is through the press gate, located between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium. The press gate opens four hours before game time.

PRESS BOX — Take the elevators to Level 5. All persons entering the press box must sign in. The press box and broadcast booths are located on Level 5. The press box is for working members of the media only.

MEDIA DINING — Located inside the press box. It is open for meal service 1-1/2 hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately 90 minutes after the game for beverage service. There is a $7 charge for meals.

CLUBHOUSES — Both the Cardinals' and visitors' clubhouses are located on Level 1. Access the clubhouses by taking the elevator to Level 1. All working media with clubhouse credentials will be admitted 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until one hour before first pitch. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than ten minutes following the game's conclusion. At times, certain restrictions may be imposed for meetings, cooling-off periods, etc.

FIELD — All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch. No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges (i.e., photo pass).

PRESS NOTES — Game notes and statistics are available in the press box two hours prior to game time. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES — Media guides are available by request in the press box from club media relations representatives.

TELEPHONES — Five credit-card-only telephones are available for media use in the main press area. Two pay phones are also available in the press box.

TICKETS — All requests for media complimentary tickets must be made to the Cardinals Media Relations Office at least 48 hours before the start of the requested game. Tickets can be picked up at the Press Will Call windows between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium 90 minutes prior to the game. Photo identification is required.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING — 2001

RADIO

KMOX Radio, St. Louis, is the flagship station for a network of more than 100 stations covering 11 states. It will broadcast all 2001 games with commentary by Jack Buck, Mike Shannon, Joe Buck and Dan McLaughlin.

TELEVISION

WB-11, St. Louis, will televise 45 regular-season games locally and to a network of approximately 20 stations reaching seven states. Fox Sports Net, a regional cable network, will televise 59 games. Commentary will be provided by Joe Buck, Bob Carpenter, Al Hrabosky and Dan McLaughlin.

JACK BUCK

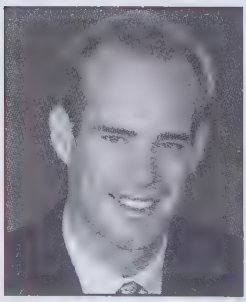
Jack Buck has kept baseball fans spellbound with his diction and quick wit since he joined the Cardinals' broadcasting team in 1954. Buck was paid the ultimate compliment for his skills in 1987, when he was inducted into the broadcasters wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame as the Ford C. Frick Award recipient. He was inducted into the Broadcasters' Hall of Fame in 1990 and into the Radio Hall of Fame in 1995. He's also a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame.

A native of Holyoke, Mass., Buck received a bachelor's of arts degree from Ohio State. He got his start in baseball as the play-by-play announcer for St. Louis' minor league clubs at Columbus and Rochester. Now KMOX Radio's sports director, Buck has at one time or another broadcast almost every type of sports event imaginable. He received widespread acclaim as the former voice of the National Football League, and he had the distinction of handling the first telecast of the old American Football League. His autobiography, "Jack Buck: That's a Winner," was published in 1997. In 1998, the Cardinals honored the legendary broadcaster by unveiling a bronze sculpture of Buck behind the microphone, outside Busch Stadium's main ticket lobby. Buck received a lifetime achievement Emmy in April of 2000 and was honored by the Missouri Athletic Club as St. Louis' "Citizen of the Year" in 2000.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon enters his 30th season in the Cardinals' radio booth. His many years as a player in the organization and in the front office give Shannon a unique insight that comes to the fore in his commentary, which is only heightened by his zeal for the game. In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his popularity and performance on the air and, as a player, on the field.

The 61-year-old St. Louis native broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and went on to star for the Redbirds' World Series championship teams in 1964 and 1967, and their N.L. pennant winner in 1968. His career was cut short in 1970 by nephritis, a rare kidney disease. The former outfielder-third baseman joined the Cardinals' front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales.



JOE BUCK

Joe Buck handles play-by-play duties on the Cardinals' radio network and on home games telecast by Fox Sports Net. He also is Fox Sports' lead baseball announcer for national telecasts.

Buck, 31, joined the Cardinals' radio team in 1991 after spending two seasons as the play-by-play voice of the Louisville Redbirds. He also has handled the play-by-play on Cardinals television broadcasts for both KPLR-TV and Prime, and in 1996, 1998 and 2000 he called the World Series for Fox. Buck was honored as the outstanding play-by-play announcer with a sports Emmy in 2000.

A graduate of Country Day High School in St. Louis, Buck studied communications and English at Indiana University. He married the former Ann Archambault in January 1993. They have two daughters, Natalie and Trudy.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky has made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals' 1970s bullpen, to one of the town's favorite broadcasters. His commentary and sharp wit are a staple of Cardinals home and road telecasts on WB11 and Fox Sports Net.

During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station. He has been a commentator on telecasts by Fox Sports Midwest, WB11, Prime and Sportstime cable, and hosts a local radio show on all-sports station KFNS. Away from the booth, Hrabosky is an active supporter of the MLB Players Alumni association.

BOB CARPENTER

Bob Carpenter has emerged as one of broadcasting's most prolific talents, calling games and describing the action for a myriad of major sporting events. He returns to the WB11 booth for his eighth season of Cardinals play-by-play, which he'll handle for all home games telecast on WB.

This season is Carpenter's 17th in baseball. With the Redbirds, he has called games for the Sportstime cable network in 1984, for the Prime cable network and KMOX Radio in 1995 and '96, and for Channel 11 since 1997. He begins his 11th season of baseball on ESPN and has worked in the TV booth for the Texas Rangers (1986-89), New York Mets (1992-93) and Minnesota Twins (1994). Over the years, he's shared the microphone with numerous former Cardinals, including Bob Gibson, Al Hrabosky, Ozzie Smith, Mike Shannon, Tim McCarver, Andy Van Slyke, Joe Magrane, Jerry Reuss and Jim Kaat.

A St. Louis native, Carpenter is remembered locally for his early play-by-play of St. Louis Steamers indoor soccer from 1983-86. He has worked college basketball games on ESPN for 13 seasons, emerging in the process as the "voice" of the Mountain West Conference (since 1996) and Conference USA (since '97). On the USA Network, he hosted the 1995 U.S. Open tennis championship and The Masters golf tournament from 1986-88. He's also been heard on ESPN's telecasts of college football action, World Cup soccer and as host of the 1990 Hall of Fame induction ceremony.

Carpenter is a 1971 graduate of McBride High School in St. Louis and earned a degree in broadcasting from the University of Missouri-Kansas City. He and his wife, Debbie, have two daughters.

DAN McLAUGHLIN

Dan McLaughlin enters his third season with St. Louis as the play-by-play voice for Cardinals road games telecast by WB11 and Fox Sports Net and he will also do some games on KMOX. Before joining the Cardinals, McLaughlin did baseball play-by-play at the collegiate level. A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood College, he began his professional broadcasting career in 1996 as a sports talk show host at KMOX Radio, where he still serves as an occasional host.

During the baseball offseason, McLaughlin, 27, has worked for three years as a regular on St. Louis Blues telecasts on Fox Sports Net and WB11. He's also been a pregame, intermission and postgame analyst for Blues radio broadcasts, and a television host and analyst for the Missouri Valley Conference basketball tournament.
